A year ago the Town and Country Police reduced the amount of time they are on I-64 and I-270 doing traffic enforcement. They are still out there as the city still receives grants from Missouri for additional enforcement details, but not as nearly as much as back in 2018.

In 2019 there were less than 30 citations issued to drivers doing 100 MPH. The stats kept by the police are for speed 36-40 and 41-and above over the limit. So a large number of the total of 36 citations issued were for doing between 96-and-99 mph.

In 2020 from January 1 to March 15 there were 9 citations for 100 mph or more issued. However when the “stay-at-home” orders were issued and most business shut down the highways were wide open with little traffic. From April 20 to May 15 there were 15 citations issued for people doing 100 MPH or more. Then there was the motorist from Ballwin who on Friday May 15 clocked doing 80 MPH in the 35 MPH zone on Clayton Road approaching Weidman Road.

We obtained copies of the 16 citations for people doing 40 MPH or more over the limit. They are listed below with some background on the drivers. (In the same period of time Chesterfield PD cited four drivers doing 100 MPH on I-64.)

You might think vehicles doing over 100 mph were all high-performance cars. That would not be the case in the majority of the cases.

Here are the makes of vehicles in the 100 MPH club:

- Infiniti 2004 635 101 MPH

  2006 QX80 100 MPH

- Nissan 2012 Sentra 101 MPH

  2015 Altima 102 MPH

- Mazda 1994 MX6 102 MPH

- Subaru 2018 Crosstrek 109 MPH

- Dodge 2013 Ram PU 102 MPH

  2015 Challenger 102 MPH

- Chevrolet 2014 Impala 100 MPH

  2015 Camaro 80MPH in a 35 zone

- Hyundai 2018 Elanta 113 MPH

- BMW 2009 328i 105 MPH

- Toyota 2019 Tundra 109 MPH

- Honda 2006 Accord 102 MPH

- Lamborghini 2008 Gallardo 107 MPH

- Kawasaki 2018 Motorcycle 115 MPH

Zachary Kleine was driving his 12-year-old Lamborghini on Sunday April 26 at 1:45 in the afternoon on EB I-64 at Woods Mill Road at 107 MPH. In my law enforcement career of 30-years I had written well over 10,000 citation and never once wrote down the word “Lamborghini,” like Sgt. Chris Moore got to on this citation. However I’m very disappointed that Sgt. Moore did not issue a citation for “Fail to Display Ft Lic Plate.”

On Friday May 1 around dusk at 8:02pm Todd C Muser, 31, was riding his 2016 Kawasaki motorcycle. Motorcycles are often tough to see on Interstate Highways and Muser was on NB I-270.
