DEER REPORT:

Town and Country: Deer killing themselves by running into vehicles was remarkably low for August in Town and Country. There were only three, with one being in a subdivision (Mason Valley). This is down from 7 in 2017. The other two were on Ballas Road which in the past has not been a big spot for deer death by vehicles.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN MEETING HAD FIREWORKS AND TRIED TO PUMP YOU UP.

WARD- TWO ALDERWOMEN WANT FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OTHERS WANT TO SPEND MORE FOR A FANTASTIC FOUNTAIN AND BROOK: The Work Session before the Monday September 10th Aldermanic meeting featured Parks Director Anne Nixon talking about the change orders on the Town Square Project that resulted another $210,000 in budget reserves being spent on an out of control construction project.

I was amused that Anne Nixon was giving the presentation since throughout the three-plus years of the Town Square-plans city officials repeated and repeated how the Town Square was not a Park.

Brinkman Development, the contractor doing the project along with building the commercial building, with a restaurant and shops, owned by Brinkman, wants to have stronger pumps for the “babbling brook” feature that elected officials wanted and a fountain. The pump changes alone would cost $67,784 more!

Brinkman came up with the original plan and now wants to change it, citing that it turns out stronger and more expensive pumps were needed.

Parks Director Anne Nixon giving a lecture on property that is not a park. Nixon was saying the pumps originally planned would be overloaded and subject to failure.

Here is how things went early on in the pre-meeting work session:

Ald. Tiffany Frautschi: Are you saying the design was flawed?

Nixon: I would not say it was flawed.

Frautschi: If we have to change it, it seems to be flawed.

Ald. Skip Mange: I would not make that conclusion.

Ald. Matt Reuter: What is the life expectancy of a fountain pump?

Nixon: You can burn out a pump in a year.

Reuter: What's the difference?

Nixon: It is twice the size. You should get 5-to-7 years.

Ald. Lindsey Butler: The pump we have approved has a three-year warranty, meaning we could replace it every year. Our Parks Director is now acting as an expert on pumps. When we had experts in Mr. Stock (George Stock & Associations engineering) and then Mr. Brinkman, they presented this with these pumps. We and Mr. Brinkman hired an engineer to design it.

Ald. Lindsey Butler

Dir. Of City Services Craig Wilde (a licensed engineer): The pump is just not for the brook. It is for the fountain where water is shot up in the air. The pump experts are the people who make the pumps and sell the pumps.

The City's Director of Services Craig "Grizzly" Wilde.

Wilde talked about how the smaller pump would be submerged in the stormwater retention basin that Wilde kept calling “a lake.”

Butler: Was this mis-engineered since day 1?

Brinkman Project Manager Mike Greaving: Yes.

Butler: So a year has gone by where we could have addressed this?

Greaving: It has been six months. (Actually it has been nine months)

Ald. Lynn Wright: I agree totally with the direction we are going tonight (spending the additional $67,000.)

Mange: It will be a few extra dollars. I don’t have a problem with it. (Apparently Mange considers $67,000 a “few”.)

Ald. Jon Benigas: I’m going with making this a Triple-A facility. (I don’t think he means turning it over to the Auto Club.) But something went wrong along the way. I want an answer of what went wrong and when did it go wrong.

Ald. Fred “Tax Cheater” Meyland-Smith: As we continue this project we discovered a better mousetrap. (Much like Fred considers claiming to be an Illinois resident and registered his SUV to property he owns in Illinois so he doesn’t have to pay city and state sales tax or County Personal Property is apparently a “better mousetrap.”)

Benigas: I don’t think it is a better mousetrap. Why didn’t we know about this a year ago?

City Administrator Bob Shelton: I don’t recommend getting the small fountain and pumps. If you don’t like it you will have to pay to replace it and get what you want.

ON TO THE OFFICIAL MEETING: Lindsey Butler made a motion to exclude the additional money ($67,784) for the water feature when the aldermanic meeting began.

Benigas: I understand the motion, but we want the fountain and brook to be fantastic. I think this (original bill) should be passed.

Wright: It takes time to find out what is best.

Frautschi: Our developer (Brinkman) said $250,000 was enough when we approved this project. Residents should not have to come back to every Board of Aldermen meeting to be sure we don't go back on our word.

Ald. Tiffany Frautschi

Butler: I have maxed out on what I will spend on this project. (By our spending numbers this project that was originally going to cost $5.6-million has broken the $9,000,000 mark.)

Frautschi: There are $12,000 in "Fee Changes." Brinkman said this would work.

Ald. Sue Allen: I think you can upgrade with some changes later. I say fiscal responsibility. (She would then vote against the amendment to delete the $67,784 for the new pump and voted for the original bill.)

Frautschi: Is our contract flawed? I would assume we never intended to suck up mud and spit it back on us. If it is a design flaw, someone should be responsible for the $67,000 to upgrade it.

Meyland-Smith: Every expert we hired recommends this upgrade. I don't have patience to play pin the tail on the donkey to blame someone.

The amendment to exclude the $67,784 for different pumps failed on a 5-3 vote with Butler, Frautschi and Reuther voting for it.

SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES There was one deletion from the $167,186 cost overrun bill. During the planning for the Town Square fire places and fire pits were eliminated. On a nice fall or spring evening the neighbors who live very close to the Town Square have every right not to have their bedrooms or entire house smell like a campfire from smoke from a fire pit. Somehow Brinkman put a fire pit back on the drawing board. The $750 addition was quickly removed by an 8-0 vote.

The two other expenses were approved but not on 8-0 votes. Brinkman wanted to change a large patio area in front of pavilions and the entry way from asphalt to concrete and change building materials for docks and decks from “treated lumber” to composite wood.

Tiffany Frautschi: These are things we should have considered when we agreed to the contract.

The vote for a $43,745 increase was approved on a 6-2 vote with Frautschi and Butler voting NO.

BRINKMAN INCREASES FIRE RISK OF MAIN TOWN SQUARE BUILDING: We discussed this in an earlier newsletter. Wood shake shingles are the most dangerous roofing shingles you can use, due to fire. Wood shake shingles are outlawed in parts of the United States including California and even in parts of Missouri and Kansas due to fire issues of fires started by lightning and fireworks.

Even treated “fire resistant” wood shake shingles are more dangerous than other roofing. After five years summer sunlight and winter conditions degrade the fire retardant chemicals on the shingles. How do I know this stuff? I was a fire and arson investigator for 10 years. I even wrote an article on this issue for Firehouse Magazine after a fire chief called me requesting national exposure on the issue.

SO what kind of roof is Brinkman putting on the town square building? Wood shake shingles of course. He stated he thought the wood shake shingles would give the building an “old-thyme” look.

It is important to note that the installation of a fire resistant roof and removal of adjacent flammable vegetation does not make a house invulnerable to wildfire. ... Spray-on or brush-on treatments of fireretardant chemical to wood shake and shingle roofs have limited longevity.

THE FIREWORKS: If you remember the Berra Family had a 4th of July fireworks show last July that caused outrage among neighbors to the north. The Berra fireworks display lasted 45 minutes and rained debris and hot ash onto neighbors' lawns and roofs. Several were outside protecting their property with garden hoses.

Legislation was written to prohibit fireworks from being shot off in residential areas.

The Berra family houses that are just for immediate members of the Berra family located on Terra Bella Drive which includes a horse riding arena and pasture.

They wanted a fireworks show and money was no object. They got a permit and then put on a 45 minute show without notifying the subdivisions to the north.

There would be a $100 fee for a permit. No fireworks showed could launch fireworks from property zone residential or suburban estate. In other word from where there are private residents. ($100 fee later changed to $150)

Changes to the bill include that all residents were to be notified whose property is 300 feet from the property line of where the fireworks display was being held.

There was a discussion about who would notify the neighboring homeowners. Tiffany Frautschi felt the company hired to shoot the fireworks should do the notifications.

“I think any company coming in to do fireworks are best to describe the event and answer questions. I don’t think we need to burden staff with additional work,” said Frautschi.

Jon Benigas: “I think the city should do the notification.”

Skip Mange: “The City sends out notices on all of these things (zoning issues mainly).”

Lynn Wright: “The City should do it. It is the right thing to do. Dogs are affected, people and military retirees are affected.”

Jon Benigas: “If we are concerned about that it (notifications) it should be 2000 feet from the property line.”

City Administrator Bob Shelton: “We would request the fee to be $150 for a permit instead of $100 due to the additional staff time and expenses.”

The bill was amended to include the 300 feet from property line, regardless how far that is from the launch area, for notifications and the fee increase.

Now what kind of jerks would have a 45-minute fireworks display that sent flaming debris onto neighbors’ property? It would be these folks:

Renee Berra

WHY IS THIS GUY MAYOR? On Monday night 09/10 Mayor Jon Dalton recused himself on five different agenda items. They were the two Change Orders by Brinkman Construction on Dalton’s Town Square Project totaling over $200,000. There has been over $1-million dollars of cost over runs after the Board of Aldermen signed a contract and construction began last December. Dalton negotiated the purchase of the land without the Board’s knowledge, then presented it and asked for $2,250,000 to buy the property that no one else wanted. He then step away from the cost over runs by recusing himself claiming at one time his law firm (Armstrong-Teasdale) represented Brinkman in a matter.

Two more matters involved a rezoning request for the building on the southeast corner of Clayton Road and Ballas Road and the special use permit for a bridal shop.

The final one involved signage variance for the Lutheran retirement center and nursing home.

MAYBE HE IS CELEBRATING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF WOODSTOCK: Town and Country City Attorney and named partner in the firm of Curtis, Heinz, Garrett and O'Keefe, Steve Garrett, who is over 65 has his ponytail the longest I can remember seeing it.

After last Monday's Aldermanic meeting I asked Garrett if he was now celebrating the 50th anniversary of Woodstock or if he was just trying to get his ponytail down to his waste. He then told me how a strand of hair die every 3-years. It was just like a lawyer; he didn't answer the question.

HERE TODAY AND GONE TOMORROW: An original 2-story house in the 12900 block of Thornhill Drive dating back 58 years was gone in 2-hours. The house was originally built by and for developer Don Breckenridge. Thornhill Estates in Town and Country was Breckenridge's first development project. He later went into hotels and convention centers. Breckenridge died in 2005 of cancer at the age of 72.

THE ORIGINAL TOWN AND COUNTRY SCHNUCKS STORE:

ANOTHER ONE ABOUT TO BITE THE DUST: The front yard of this house is where you would see “Defeat Dalton” signs when Mayor-Lobbyist, Stealer of Widow’s Business by Eminent Domain for a Night Club District That Never Got Built, Jon Dalton ran for reelection. Dalton and disgraced former Missouri Speaker of the House John Diehl used her yard for campaign signs until Dalton kicked her off the Police Commission under pressure for her inappropriate comments then things and signs changed.

GOOD TO SEE: A Town & Country police officer doing speed enforcement on Mason Road near the entrance to Queeny Park. Over a four-year period from 2008 to 2012 I checked the location of speeding citations and the section of Mason Road from Clayton Road to the south City Limits had an average of five citations a year. This is a dangerous road with blind curves. I have always believed part of the problem has been the police department's reluctance to write speeding tickets to wealthy residences in their Mercedes Benz and BMWs.

TWO YEARS AND TWO MONTHS PAIR OF DRUNK DRAG RACERS ON LINDBERGH BLVD. IN FRONENAC REFUSE TO ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY IN KILLING CRESTWOOD GRANDMOTHER:

It was on July 8, 2016 just after dusk, around 9 o'clock; Haven Sooter, 39 and now 41, was drag racing in his BMW down S. Lindbergh Blvd. He was drag racing a guy in a Ford Mustang. That guy was Clayton personal injury attorney Scott A. Bailey.

According to accident reconstruction experts both cars were being driven in excess of 110 MPH in a 40 MPH zone. After they crested a blind hill at Chaminade Prep, they left the Creve Coeur city limits and entered the City of Frontenac there was Kay Koutroubis, a 72-year-old grandmother from Crestwood, driving a 2004 Toyota. She was returning home after dropping off a wedding present. Bailey and Sooter refuse to man-up and throw themselves on the mercy of the court for killing a 72-year-old grandmother. They have delayed this case 26 months now and it looks like they are just getting started.

Lawyer Scott Bailey Haven Sooter mug shot after Nov Indictment Victim Kay Koutroubis

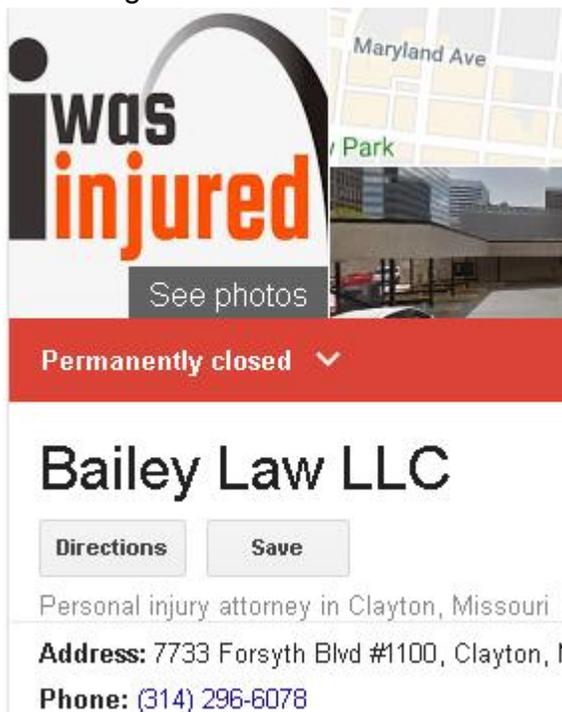

Haven has a lengthy record including an out of state DWI conviction in Los Angeles in 2002 and a DWI conviction after a 2001 arrest in St. Charles. He also has numerous moving violations that were reduced by local city prosecutors to non-moving violations. Two months prior to the killing of Mrs. Kaoutrobis Sooter was arrested by a Missouri Highway Patrol Trooper at the St. Charles casino for refusing to leave after becoming intoxicated and disruptive. This is from the court files.

2. State the facts that support a finding of probable cause to believe crime(s) was/were committed and that the accused committed the crime(s): . On April 24, 2016, at approximately 0240 hours, Haven Sooter was asked by Security Supervisor Kyle Burnett to leave the casino for being overly intoxicated. Sooter refused and responded to Burnett, "Fuck you." I identified myself a Corporal Keith Kinsey with the Missouri State Highway patrol and asked Sooter to leave Ameristar Casino. Sooter responded, "Fuck you too." Sooter was placed under arrest for Trespassing 1st Degree.

Now two years and two months after killing Mrs. Koutrobis , Sooter and Haven are still out on bond. Bailey refused to take a breath test. But a later blood test showed his level to be .18%.

Bailey was indicted and charged with two felonies, 1) Involuntary Manslaughter 1<sup>s</sup> Degree Involving a Death with a BAC level of .18% and simply Involuntary Manslaughter.

Bailey renewed his law license in 2018 but his Clayton law firm is "permanently closed" according to this website.

Bailey's eyes the night of his arrest

Bailey is represented by DWI lawyer Travis Noble. There have been 54 entries made on the case file. The case is next before Judge Kristina Kerr on September 24, 2018. Bailey's bond remains at $200,000 and his passport remains surrendered. However the requirement that he wear an alcohol detection bracelet on his ankle has been dropped. Bailey is contesting his drivers' license suspension for refusing to take a breath test. That case has also been languishing for 26 months.

Two years and a month after refusing to take the breath test Bailey's attorney asked the hearing officer for an extension. Apparently 25 months wasn't long enough for Travis Noble to get the case in order or they are hoping the Frontenac police officer handling the case drops dead.

Haven Sooter pled guilty to his drunken escapade at the casino in St. Charles County Court on 11/13/17 and was made to spend 30-days shock jail time, but then placed on a SIS probation term that will wipe the event from court files after two years if he successfully completes probation.

He was indicted for 1) Murder Second Degree Vehicle-Intoxicated and Felony Persistent Drunk Driving in the Drunken Drag Racing case.

Haven currently has a well-known drunk driver, Scott Rosenblum, representing him. Rosenblum was charged with DWI after crossing the center line on McKnight Road and crashing into the pickup truck of a sober driver. The Brentwood, Missouri prosecutor recused himself and Chesterfield City Prosecutor Tim "never convict a lawyer or a person represented by a lawyer of the most serious charge" Engelmeyer was assigned as a replacement. Engelmeyer amended Rosenblum's DWI to Careless Driving.

There are 85 entries on the case file involving Sooter. This includes Judge Kerr refusing to reduce the $250,000 cash bond on Sooter.

Here is our staff attorney's review on the court files and it appears as if the delay will continue as Sooter gets mental health examinations:

"Reading through the docket, it appears there was a search warrant at one time, because a letter from the prosecutor to Noble indicates he is sending reports, search warrant, etc. So, maybe there was a search warrant for his blood. But that's just a guess on my part. I don't know why the prosecutor would charge it that way unless he had proof of the level of intoxication.

It also looks like at one point, Sooter was going to plead and testify for the State, because the prosecutor endorsed him as a witness. When Rosenblum indicated he was going to take Sooter's deposition, the prosecutor withdrew Sooter as a witness.

Now, Rosenblum has asked for a psych evaluation of Sooter, indicating he's crazy as a loon. The judge had to go along with Rosenblum's request, so it's going to be a long time before Sooter is prosecuted. And, if he comes back crazy, then all bets are off. I'll bet he doesn't come back crazy, or if he is, medication will get him back to a prosecutable state."

After reading our lawyer's case review, I have to ask: Does this guy look crazy to you?

Attorney Bailey's mug shot after November indictment

Here is Sooter's attorney's $160,000 Bentley sports car after drunk Scott Rosneblum drove it across the center line on McKnight Road hitting a sober driver head on and injuring him.

Rosenblum's Bentley, no longer worth $160,000 after he drove home to Ladue drunk from the Ritz-Carlton in Clayton.

PRINCIPIA FOOTBALL PLAYER HAD SODOMY CONVICTION OVERTURNED BY SUPREME COURT. This incident and the adverse press for Principia won't go away. Maverick Holmsley was one of five Principia Varsity football players who dragged a number of eighth graders attending a football camp out of bed and shoved objects up their anuses. The other four all pled guilty to reduced felony and misdemeanor charges of assault and avoided having the label of "Sex Offender" and be on the Missouri Sex Offender Registry.

Holmsley wanted to go to trial and there he was convicted of Sodomy. However one juror wanted to speak out and change her vote after the court accepted their verdict. It was not allowed.

The Supreme Court ruled that the judge in the case, Kristine Kerr while sustaining a defense objection failed to tell the jury to disregard what was said.

Holmsley

The Holmsley family spent some money on the trial and appeal. The Margulis law firm defended him at trial and Scott Rosenblum represented him in appeal.

There is no word from Bob McCullough's office if the lame duck prosecutor will refile a felony charge or a misdemeanor assault charge or forget about it.

Ricardo Loma who pled guilty to misdemeanor assault and was sentenced to 10 days in jail as shock time, violated his probation and ended up doing six months.

WAL MART SHOPLIFTER CONVICTED OF FELONY RESISTING ARREST AND SENTENCED TO ONE-YEAR JAIL:

Lindsay Rothermich, 34, of St. Charles along with a male companion were maybe doing some Christmas shopping or simply stealing enough to sell and buy drugs on December 18, 2016 at the Chesterfield Wal Mart.

Upon exiting the store they encountered Chesterfield Police officers waiting for them. Officer Dammrich attempted to arrest Rothermich who ran across the parking lot. Once caught she violently resisted arrest. This should have turned the stealing into a robbery, but County Prosecutor Bob McCullough's office stopped issuing robbery charges on fighting shoplifters long ago. However Rothermich was charged with Felony Resisting Arrest. It must have been quite a tussle judging from the black eye on Rothermich in her mug shot.

Rothermich is a return customer in Chesterfield. She was arrested for Felony Shoplifting on 02/15/15, later convicted and had that probation revoked.

The Chesterfield PD would not provide a copy of the police report under the Sunshine Law as the shoplifting was pending in Chesterfield Municipal Court. It is likely to be a while getting the report as the male co-defendant's charges have to be closed and because Rothermich cannot make it to Municipal Court as she is serving a year in the County Jail on this case and several others.

This is from her Circuit Court file concerning the Chesterfield case:

Count: 01 RESISTING ARREST - CLASS D FELONY

I, James Dammrich, DSN 0267, Chesterfield Police Department, knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true. I have probable cause to believe that on December 18, 2016, at 100 THF Boulevard, Lindsay Rothermich, White, Female, DOB 01/30/1984, 5'02", 135lbs, committed one or more criminal offense(s).

Count: 01 RESISTING ARREST - CLASS D FELONY

The facts supporting this belief are as follows: At the Wal-Mart store in Chesterfield, defendant and a male companion filled a shopping cart with merchandise. Defendant then pushed the cart out of the store without making any attempt to pay for the merchandise. Chesterfield police attempted to arrest defendant and her companion outside the store. Defendant ran from the officers and, once she was caught after a brief foot pursuit, physically resisted arrest. The stolen merchandise was recovered.

Here is Rothermich's record that we could locate:

BOMB THREAT IN CHESTERFIELD VALLEY: Friday September 7, 2018 at 2 PM the Chesterfield Police responded to a bomb threat and evacuated a building at 633 Spirit Drive after a bomb threat was received by the Missouri Higher Education Loan Authority. Somebody didn't get their loan?

At 3:18 an All-Clear was given.

Subject: Bomb Threat

The road is currently working a bomb threat at MOHELA in the valley. They have evacuated the building and they have a dog on the way. They are unsure if the threat was directed toward the Chesterfield location or the location in South Carolina. Both locations have been evacuated until further information is learned.

SHE'S A PERFECT FIT: This thief on video stealing from Victoria's Secret at Chesterfield Mall might tie for the award of least likely shopper at Victoria's Secret.

We are attempting to identify the subject in this photo. Yesterday she stole clothing and sandals from Victoria's Secret at Chesterfield Mall, then fled in a gold Infinity Sedan. If you have any information please call us at 636-537-3000.

Senora Hackney was arrested stealing at Victoria's Secret in 2016. Neither of the people resembled anyone you would see shopping at Victoria's Secret. Staff should have been all over them.

Here are some of the comments on the Chesterfield Police Facebook site:

Stu Katz Not exactly a Victoria's secret model....How did the employees not see her walking? Another bullet hole in the foot for Chesterfield Mall.

Peri Elizabeth Obviously she's reselling the items! 🤔

Clair Williams I don't think she stole them for herself 😏

Jason Rufkahr I hope the "clothing" she stole was for someone else.

Robert Herzwurm The only reason she stole the stuff is because she's one hermaphrodite who never had the needed surgeries and she's lashing out against society cause she still has a penis albeit a very small one and needs the dopamine generated by crime to feel whole ?

Now this is more like it: Here are the three most recent arrests for stealing at Victoria's Secret. Ages 19-24 did not waste any time of releasing video of a grey car driving around cars stopped for a school bus loading children and across the front yard of a home on Bitterfield Drive in Ballwin, damaging a garden and yard sod. The school bus was going to Henry Elementary School which is attended by kids from Ballwin, Manchester, Chesterfield, a small section of Town and Country and unincorporated St. Louis County.

The video was on all four St. Louis TV stations with local news. The car's driver and owner was identified as Matthew McCloskey, 52, of Overland, MO. However, KTVI reporter Andy Banker reported McCloskey has recently been living in Ballwin.

MONARCH ASSISTANT FIRE CHIEF BACK TO HURRICANE AREAS: Monarch Ast. Fire Chief Les Crews returned to St. Louis on August 28 after spending close to two weeks in Hawaii as a supervisor of rescue operations in connection with the hurricane that damaged the Big Island of Hawaii. Last year he was sent to Texas and Puerto Rico following hurricanes.

On Friday September 14 Chief Crews left town again to stage with FEMA response teams on the East Coast at about the same time Hurricane Florence comes ashore.

What is amazing is that the Union backed Monarch Fire Board fired the entire command staff including Crews in 2011 after a jury verdict of discrimination and harassment that centered on one fire district battalion chiefs, Fred Goodson (who later committed suicide). However the firing of the entire command staff and replacing them with Fire Union members seemed to be over the top.

When Jane Cunningham, who ran on a pro-citizen anti-union platform, pledging to hold down out of control payroll spending, was elected in 2013, she and Director Robin

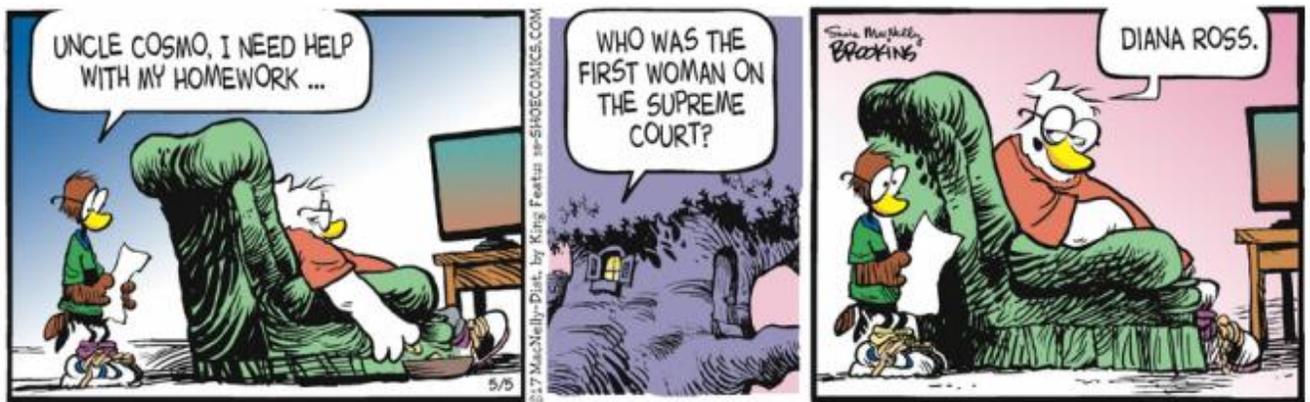

Harris rehired some of the command staff that was fired, including Les Crews and current chief Cary Spiegel.

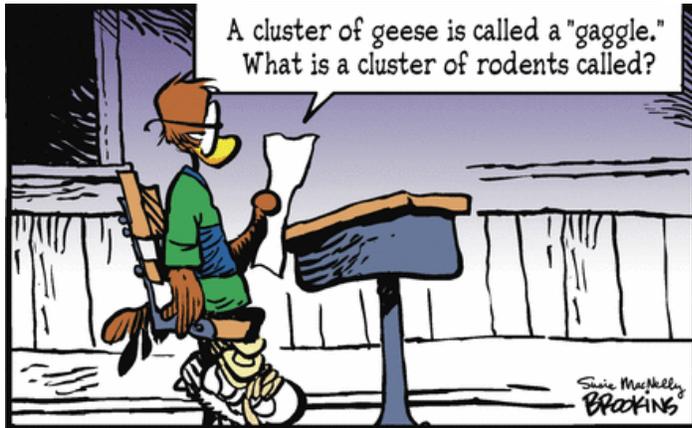

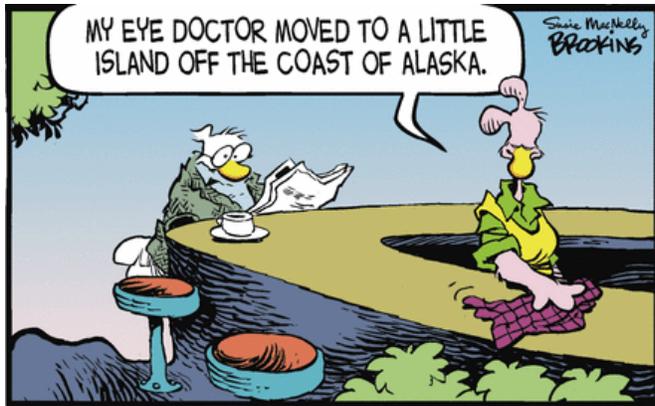

This goes to show the problems with politics in public safety. Crews is so well respected that every time there is a major disaster he is attached to the Federal Emergency Management Administration to lead part of the rescue operations.
