May 16, 2020

CORONAVIRUS BAD FOR HUMANS, BUT MAYBE GOOD FOR DEER: In February and March there were no reports of deer being hit by vehicles in Town and Country. That is very unusual. Chesterfield is four times the size of Town and Country, has roads in semi-rural areas and along the banks of the Missouri River, plus an interstate highway. In April Chesterfield had no reports of deer hit by cars, found on the side of the road dead or impaled on backyard swimming pool fences.

The COVID-19 pandemic has drastically reduced the amount of traffic.

Here are the reports for April:

There were no car-deer crashes in February and March, but there were dead deer, usually dying after impaling themselves on swimming pool fences after misjudging a jump.

February 2020	Animal Care Services	3 Dead Deer removal	$300
March 2020	Animal Care Services	2 Dead Deer removal	$200

There is a non specific mention as a cost cutter making the rounds at City Hall to cut remaining deer management programs. The culling by sharpshooters happened in January and February. The only deer management item I'm aware of is dead deer removal from yards, pool fences and private streets. This is an email from Ald. Lindsey Butler to City Administrator Bob Shelton asking for an explanation.

Deer management: list states stop remaining costs. What does this entail? What are we not going to be doing for the remainder of the year?

I also followed up with an email making a similar request. By Wednesday evening neither of us have heard back.

APRIL ARRESTS IN TOWN AND COUNTRY: Thanks to the stay at home order and the coronavirus there were not many people out, including criminals and drunk drivers.

Over a 30-day period the Town and Country Police only had SEVEN ARRESTS! Several years ago with an active Highway Traffic Unit T&C would have 30-plus arrests a month. After pulling officers off of stationary interstate highway enforcement the numbers went down. You add that to the amount of people staying at home and not driving you have a record low month for arrests.

96 MPH, NO FINE AND NO POINTS. TOWN AND COUNTRY JUSTICE: If you are poor or rich you should not be doing 96 MPH on Wednesday October 28 at 9:30 in the morning on I-270.

But what is really sad is when you are cited and you don't have to pay a fine or get any points. You hire a lawyer, which many poor people cannot afford to do. The lawyer moves the case to St. Louis County Associate Circuit Court. There Town and Country Prosecutor Ed Sluys has no problems with a deal of pleading guilty with no fine, no-permanent public record and no-points for a SIS probation term. The driver Kristen Morgan (driving a 3-year-old Chevy Silverado pickup truck) did have to do 36 hours of community service and go to a Driver Improvement Class.

IN VIOLATION OF STATUTE/ORDINANCE - CHARGE CODE

TOWN AND COUNTRY GOING INTO THE BANKING BUSINESS: For just a minute it looked like Town and Country would not be going into the Banking Business by giving $225,103 Bryn Wyck, a partially gated subdivision in Ward 4 in the land of the rich, between Conway Road and Ladue Road.

This would be an ordinance to establish a Community Improvement District where the city would lend a subdivision money for an improvement (usually a road repair) and the subdivision would charge the residents and repay the city with interest. The ordinance requires a repayment over three years at a 3.5% interest rate. The subdivision is happy because it is cheaper than a bank loan.

The Finance Director Pam Reitz is okay with it because the city is getting a much lower return from banks on its money.

However, between the mayor's Town Square Project costing $10,000,000 or $4.5m over budget and the sudden loss of sales tax revenue due to businesses shut down for over two months because of the coronavirus pandemic the question arises "should the city be reducing its reserves by making loans when the money might be needed for everyday operation?"

For the ordinance to pass it needed five votes, Ald. Lindsey Butler and Barbara Ann Hughes voted against it. Tiffany Frautschi did not vote NO. Instead she abstained from voting, which in this case is the same as a NO vote. Ald. Pam Holman was about to abstain also, which would mean the ordinance would fail. But at the last minute she asked City Attorney Steve Garrett what abstaining from a vote meant. (It was difficult for me to believe an elected official did not know the definition of "Abstain.")

Garrett said it meant you didn't understand the proposal. Of course you pay a city attorney the big bucks to provide the wrong answers. Here is the definition from Webster's:

Definition of *abstain

intransitive verb

1: to choose not to do or have something : to refrain deliberately and often with an effort of self-denial from an action or practice abstain from drinking

2: to choose not to vote

"To choose not to vote" certainly is not being ignorant of the facts.

Apparently based on Garrett's wrong definition Holman suddenly voted for it. The CID loan passed 5-3. HAD IT BEEN TIED Mayor Dalton could have broken in the tie. In the past on some issues he has ABSTAINED and allowed the matter to fail. I think he would have voted for this one, which would have left him responsible if the money was badly needed now for daily operations during the COVIS recession/depression.

Noah Webster

ONCE AGAIN NO DISCUSSION OF MONEY ISSUES: The Aldermanic meeting was over in 27 minutes. Not once did the fact of large revenue shortfalls hitting the city and the spending of reserve funds for the day-to-day operation was addressed by the staff or elected officials.

Subject: Fwd: Potential Budget Reductions.xlsx

All,

Since we are very limited on time to speak and meet publicly, I am sending over my opinion on several items including the potential budget reduction list.

First, regarding the work sessions that were brought up at the Monday meeting. I actually prefer no work session as we are then talking during the meeting where it counts and should just be allowed to debate more. This is the operation of other cities. All debate happens on the dais, not pre-meeting where most of the public don't attend. If the work session is brought back during virtual meetings then I recommend that we don't discuss the agenda for the evening, but discuss the items that we have been recently putting under "other" or when items are urgent, but not on agenda. This is the way that our city held meetings prior to the last 15 years and it allowed open discussion and more info to be shared. Additionally, many aldermen have requested an open budget review and update and we haven't had that, yet. For those new aldermen, we have the authority to hold a special meeting and post it for the public. I am willing to make this happen if there is support.

On to the budget reductions:

1) City should immediately write structured parameters for CIDs. We currently do not have any and several residents have said that we allowed the tail to wag the dog by letting the applicant write their CID and having them be the ones to explain it when questions were asked. I agree that if an alderman is asked about a specific city policy and funding that the expert should be the governing body that made the CID not the one applying. The applicant is the expert on their project not the process/ regulation of the city.

2) potential list for reductions: I am waiting to hear back on which reductions have actually taken place and which are just options. For feedback from an alderman, I offer the followings suggestions.

A. Chamber meetings should not have more than one, maybe two, attendees from the city going forward even when we are in better financial shape. There has previously been an aldermanic rep and I am unsure who it is currently.

B. Eliminate cost for Mayor coffees for remainder of 2020. These can be held for free if needed.

C. Group Board Photo- $600 is too high anyway. I once again offer up that we consider using a different photog to ensure best pricing and to avoid look of favoritism( during the Board meeting when this was discussed last year, we were told we use him because he is our "friend"). Time to switch it up.

D. The tax collection fee($300) for the admin of the CID needs to always be charged to the CID and not paid by city.

E. If we haven't used contractor for prof services in 2019 nor public outreach for PW in 2019, eliminate these going forward from the budget and don't have that money as placeholders. If the need ever arose, which it seems that it doesn't often, then come to the Board and ask for the $.

F. Road sealing-$175,000. These are public roads that we are deferring to seal for 2021 or 2022. I can say from experience on my own streets that the costs to repair will go up.

G. Stormwater maintenance and larger projects: Total$358,000 delayed until 2021. Do the people who were slated to be fixed this year know that we are considering delaying them?

H. Deer management: list states stop remaining costs. What does this entail? What are we not going to be doing for the remainder of the year?

Stay well, everyone! I know that I am enjoying the time with family and teaching my three daughters.

Lindsey

UNAPPROVED CHESTERFIELD NEWSLETTER 372

WHY IS OLD CHESTERFIELD ROAD DOWN TO ONE LANE? Because it is about to collapse! See photos:

$550,000 FOR CULVERT REPAIR UNDER OLD CHESTERFIELD ROAD. ROAD IS CLOSED TO ONE-LANE ONLY UNTIL REPAIRS ARE DONE: On Monday May 4, the City Council approved $550,000 to be paid to the Gershensen Construction to repair the culvert that is failing under Old Clarkson Road. Gershensen was the low bid for the work at $522,000 the city added a contingency of $35,000.

The road, about 1,000 feet from the entrance to the city's lone trailer park, is reduced to one lane. The sign on WB Old Chesterfield Road announcing "Right Lane Closed Ahead" is a lie! It is actually the left lane (Eastbound lane) that is closed.

20-1603-Continued Last night a vehicle was stopped for a routine traffic violation on I-64, near Timberlake Manor. The driver and passenger were arrested for drug possession. A complete search of the vehicle resulted in the discovery of a large amount of stolen clothing, some of which had tags attached. Hidden in the driver's personal bag were more drugs, probably meth. A license plate from a stolen vehicle at Hilltown Village was found under the clothes, as was ID from the vehicle owner. A credit card and ID from a missing person in north county was discovered and the investigating agency was contacted. It was learned the missing person was dead, probably from an overdose. PLANNING & PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSION MEETING FEATURES STUPID STATEMENTS AS COUNCILMAN MOORE JOINS HURT IN OPPOSITION TO CHURCH SIGN: This is getting to be stupid. At the Monday May 4 City Council meeting Mayor Bob Nation had to break a 4-4 tie to allow the proposed digital sign for the front of the Chesterfield Presbyterian Church on Clayton Road.

“The sign message changing every 30 minutes should not be noticeable,” said Tom DeCampi at the Planning & Public Works Commission meeting on Thursday May 7.

“I’m not sure you would not notice it change every 30 minutes, said Mike Moore. “If my backyard is looking out at Clayton Road, I’m not sure it (the sign) wouldn’t be noticed.”

A few days earlier several people jumped on DeCampi for suggesting 10% pay cut for all city employees during the loss of revenue because of the businesses shut down due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Now it is Moore’s turn. An overview photo of the church and nearby houses show no one from any backyard can view the church sign. All the houses have view obstructions like the Mormon Church, other Presbyterian church buildings and trees. In fact there is only one house where you can see Clayton Road from the backyard, but it is at such an angle you cannot see the church sign further west.

I'm just cannot find any way for anyone in nearby subdivisions to see this church sign from their backyard. It seems like Councilman Moore is making Trump like claims of people on their back patio being harassed by a digital sign that changes every 30 minutes that they cannot see.

THE CANDIDATE SURFACES: Chesterfield Ward-1 candidate Barron Rutledge is now on Twitter with the same lack of information that he sent out on a post card in his race against Mary Monachella. On his photo spread he claims the election happened on April 7. But one of his tweets says it was moved to June 2. The one thing that is missing is his position on any city issue. Of course Monachella is not pointing out her position on issues either.

Barron Rutledge \(@barron\_rutledge\) | Twitter

If you go to Monachella's listing as a councilwoman on the city's website it almost reads as a campaign piece. It doesn't just list what she is doing for the city, it also gives a rather detailed list of her past community association memberships.
