TOWN AND COUNTRY DEER vs CARS REMAINS LOW IN 2021: Despite not being able to afford to have sharpshooters reduce the deer herd in January of 2021, Town and Country has not seen an uptick in deer and vehicle encounters. In the first three months of 2020 there were 5 incidents. In 2021 there have been 5 vehicle-deer crashes.

WHERE DOES MAYOR DALTON LIVE? Town and Dalton Mayor Jon Dalton sold his condo in Mason Village located behind the shopping center. The new owner has it for lease. Dalton moved in here three years ago after getting kicked out of his house off Topping Road after his divorce, that was apparently so messy the court file was sealed.

Now the question is, has he moved out of town? He has one more meeting plus two weeks later the swearing in of his replacement. But if he has left town he should resign.

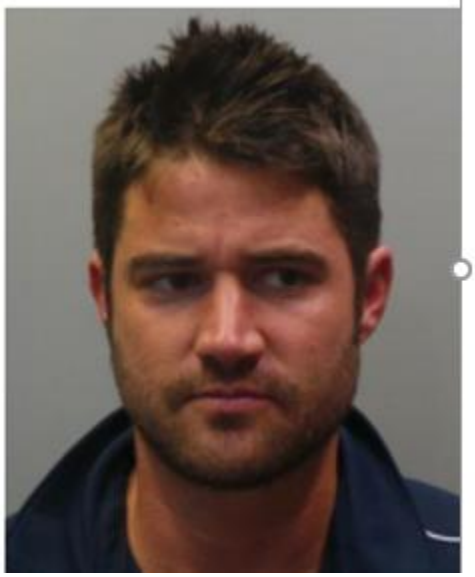
NOT EVERYONE SAYING GOOD BYE: I received this email last week:

the city is putting together a special farewell for Dalton and sent email to aldermen asking for them to submit clips

They have not gone to all former alderperons asking if they wanted to submit a clip. I'd love to congratulate him on getting away with conflicts of interests with his lobbying clients and the city for 16 years, including the Fire District, cigarette makers, other cities, construction companies, nursing homes and much more. Also the $10,000,000 Town Square that has turned into a retail development for a Dalton client.

ANOTHER FAN LETTER:

Good Morning John, Your newsletter posts slandering my family are very disappointing and upsetting to see. My brother is indeed an addict and has real issues, but you dragging my family through the mud is despicable. I consider you and your "newsletter" to be complete scum, and people like you are everything that's wrong with the world. You spread gossip, trash, and provide absolute zero value to the world with your content. I hope you sleep well at night knowing you are publishing derogatory (and inaccurate for that matter) information about total strangers. Get a real hobby and start figuring out a way to provide value. You look pretty old, but there is still time to salvage this life for you. Do you have kids or a family? Maybe spend a bit more time fostering those relationships than looking for ways to tear other people apart and down. America is a beautiful land, and free speech is a beautiful thing, but people like you are NOT what the founders of this country or anyone envisioned when they contemplated freedom of speech. I'll pray for you, and if you could pray for my brother instead of writing about him that'd be appreciated. If you reply, Nick Ahlering



Now here is Patrick's crime record. His victims are usually his parents.

Brother Nicholas, who has a law degree from Florida Costal U. He owns and operates Orangetheory Fitness in Chesterfield. He let his Florida Bar license expire.

I will remain silent on Patrick's latest criminal adventures and let police detectives in charging document's probable cause statements tell the story.

However, thanks to Nick's message, I checked for updates. The latest theft from Town and Country has not been filed yet but it is covered in the St. Charles charges.

CHARGES

Count: 01 IDENTITY THEFT - CLASS D FELONY

I, Jason Gibbs, DSN 5340, Manchester Police Department, knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true and documented in report number 21-1104. I have probable cause to believe that on January 26, 2021, at 14441 Manchester Road, Patrick Ahlering, White, Male, DOB 09/21/1988, 6'02", 200lbs, committed one or more criminal offense(s).

Count: 01 IDENTITY THEFT - CLASS D FELONY

The facts supporting this belief are as follows: Defendant used his father's credit card account number to make an online purchase of a Rolex watch from the Diamond Family store in Manchester. The total amount of the purchase was $11,116.78 including sales tax. After placing the order online, defendant picked up the watch the same day at the store. Defendant's father, upon discovering the transaction, contacted the store to dispute the purchase. Defendant was arrested several days later and confessed to writing down his father's credit card account number some time earlier and then using that number to make the purchase. He said he sold the watch to a jewelry store in St. Charles later that same day, receiving $6,800 in cash for it, which he then used to buy a 2012 Chevrolet Cruze.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I, Officer R. Blanchard 412 , with the St. Charles Police Department, a law enforcement agency, state that the facts contained herein are true to my best knowledge and belief and that any false statements made are punishable by law.

1. On 02/03/21 (date of crime) at 230 N. Main St.
(location of crime)

in St. Charles County, MO, Patrick Ahlering did:
(name of suspect)

Commit the crime of Stealing (By Deceit) by knowingly selling the victim merchandise that was purchased from a stolen credit card.

On 02/03/21, I responded to 230 N. Main Street in reference to Fraud. Upon arriving, I spoke with the reporting party who stated he purchased a Rolex watch from Patrick Ahlering for $6,800. The reporting party said he found out later by the Manchester Police Department that Ahlering used a stolen credit card to purchase the watch. The reporting party advised the business would like to receive restitution for the incident.

While conducting a formal interview with Ahlering, he stated he used the stolen credit card to purchase the Rolex and sell it to Walter's Jewelry for $6,800. Ahlering said he knew his actions were fraudulent at the time of the transaction.

3. I have reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant will not appear upon the summons or is a danger to the crime victim, the community or any other person because:

Ahlering has a criminal history that consists of fraudulent use of credit cards and other miscellaneous offenses.

The Prosecuting Attorney of the County of St. Charles, State of Missouri, charges that the defendant, in violation of Section 570.030.1(3), RSMo, committed the class D felony of stealing, punishable upon conviction under 558.002 and 558.011, RSMo, in that on or about February 3, 2021, in the County of St. Charles, State of Missouri, the defendant, with the purpose to deprive the owner of a Rolex watch disposed of such property, knowing or believing that it had been stolen.

Keeping with the theme of not writing anything sarcastic or embarrassing about Patrick Ahlering, I decided to go Joe Friday on the issue and do just the facts.

There is a new feature on the top of our website. It is all the criminal charges filed against Patrick Ahlering in the words of the detectives and officers in their probable cause statements.

Now for something about my newest reader, Nicholas Ahlering. He graduated from law school, briefly practiced in Florida and currently is not licensed to practice law.

Nick is a clear and present danger on the streets or highways, just look:

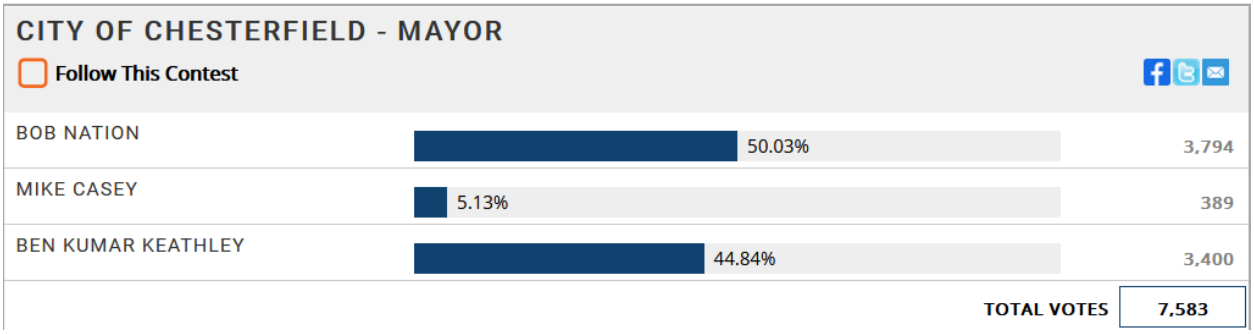
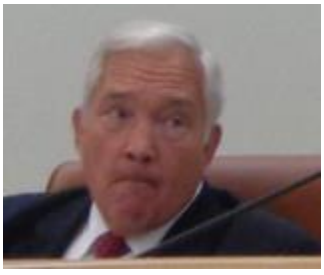
UNAPPROVED CHESTERFIELD NEWSLETTER 419

MAYOR NATION GETS HIS THIRD TERM: Old won out over young in the mayor's race. 70-year-old Bob Nation, seeking his third term as mayor defeated 32-year-old councilman Ben Keathley



The fact that former councilman Mike Casey had his name on the ballot, he did not campaign played no part in the outcome. His 389 votes would not have made a difference. If Keathley got all the 389 votes for Casey he still would have lost by five votes. I think Keathley's problem was getting young people to the polls. The time I spent at Chesterfield polling places, I saw very few people under 50 showing up.

Bob Nation gives me plenty to write about. Often you don't know what will get Bob upset. I was interested in seeing the judge and prosecutor get replaced if Keathley won. Judge Rick Brunk (soon to be forced to retire) and PA Tim Engelmeyer play a game that is disgraceful if Justice in Chesterfield is supposed to be "For All." If you can afford to hire a local lawyer Engelmeyer and Brunk will drop the criminal charges and convict you of illegal parking or littering along with a big fine. If you can't afford a lawyer you get hammered. Bob Nation knows this has been going on and has refused to put a stop to it.



The family dog working the polls did not even help Ben.

The mayor's wife, Louise, was working the City Hall polls. I asked her if she had been inside yet. She said she couldn't go into the building. I asked why the mayor's wife couldn't go into City Hall. She said, "Because of my mask. She had written on the mask, "Vote for Bob."

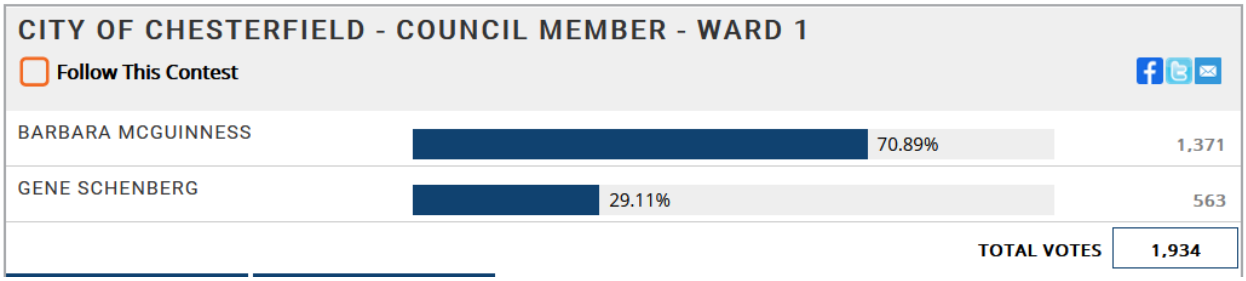
Keathley had originally filed for reelection to his council seat. He entered the mayor's race when Councilman Tom DeCampi was forced to withdraw from the mayor's race after Mayor Nation put an apology on the city's website along with a police body web cam of a response to Best Buy over Thanksgiving weekend calling the police when DeCampi's college age son would not wear a mask in the store and DeCampi took his off. The story went regional and even national with all the local TV stations and the Post-Dispatch picking it up. Keathley was talked into dropping out of the City Council race and enter the mayor's race.

Some think that Tom DeCampi and his backers working for Ben might have been a mistake. They say Ben should have stay as far away from Tom as possible and Tom could help him the most by not going public helping him.

WARD 1: Barb McGuinness, an original member of Chesterfield government when the city began in 1989 (chair of the Planning Commission) clobbered Gene (Let me shoot squirrels in my backyard and vote to spend $800,000 to rent an empty lot with no plans to use it) Schenberg, with 71% of the vote.

Schenberg has run twice for the Council after being appointed to fill an empty seat and lost twice. He created some neighborhood foes when he wanted to shoot squirrels at his house. He has now lost three times.

McGuinness maybe isn't the hardest worker at City Hall but she is the hardest worker on the City Council. She owns and runs the last Velvet Freeze Ice Cream shop in the world in the murder capital of St. Louis County, Jennings, Mo. Not only does she run and staff the store, open and close it, she also makes all the ice cream. I mean all the flavors from Swiss Chocolate to Pecan Crunch to Heavenly Hash to Butter Brickle. The woman is in her 70s and has a full schedule.



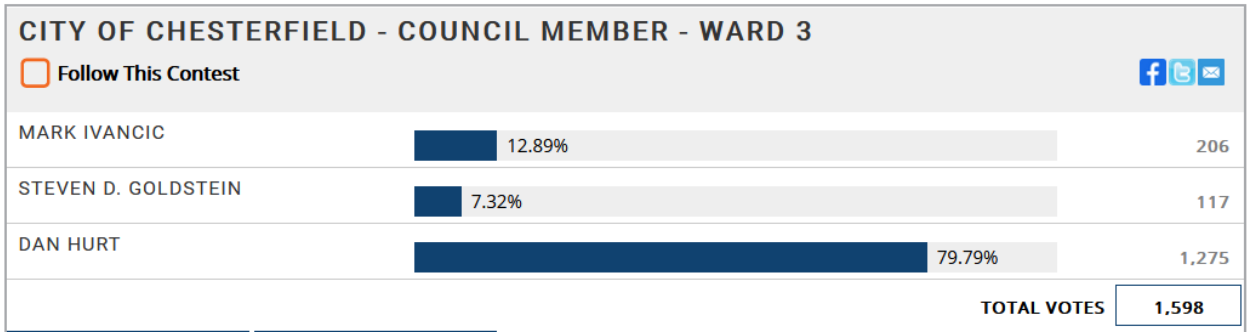
WARD-2 After lawyer Ben Keathley dropped out of this race it was a battle of the chiropractors. Both candidates are practicing chiropractors. The unique thing about the race is that Edward Ernstrom lives in the only trailer park in Chesterfield, along I-64, off of Old Chesterfield Airport Road. He is also one of the few residents of the trailer park where English is his primary language.

CITY OF CHESTERFIELD - COUNCIL MEMBER - WARD 2

Follow This Contest

AARON ALAN WAHL	55.88%	974
EDWARD J. ERNSTROM	44.12%	769
TOTAL VOTES		1,743

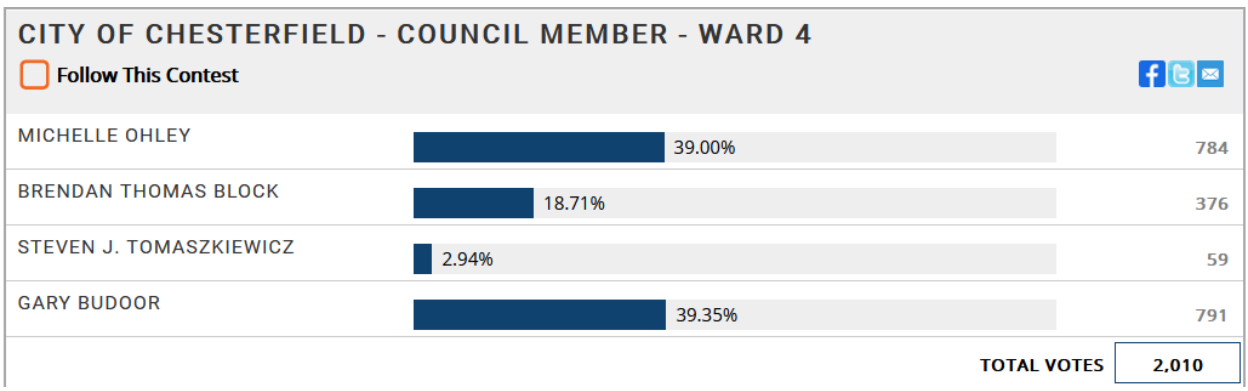
WARD-3 Dan Hurt, a longtime Councilman with a couple of breaks in service and the owner of a manufacturing company, waited until the end of the filing period to put his name back on the ballot for reelection. While Barb McGinness got the most votes in any council race, Hurt won by the largest margin with just under 80% of the vote.



WARD 4 This was perhaps the biggest surprise of the day. Giridhar Sriperumbudoor, who ran under the name of Gary Budoor edged out incumbent Michelle Ohley by 7 votes.

Sriperumbudoor got the most in contributions, collecting money from only people with India surnames from around the region. Some thought he was hurting his chances by going door to door during a pandemic. But he got just enough votes to win.

Sriperumbudoor's occupation is in IT management and consulting. Maybe he could help the Chesterfield IT people to put meetings online so residents would not have to drive to City Hall to watch local government meetings. I expect a push for a high-end Cricket Field.



Sriperumbudoor

The loss by Michelle Ohley put Tom DeCampi in an unusual position. He and Ohley were aligned on many issues, with Ben Keathley occasionally joining them. Now it could be DeCampi all by himself in issues against Mayor Nation.

Michele Ohley and Tom DeCampi

TIME FOR CRIME The last week saw a lot of incidents and criminals arrested with lengthy records. You are used to seeing this right before Christmas as it is easier for thieves to steal in crowded stores, not Easter. Also drug dealers take a couple of days off for Christmas meaning drug addicts have to get a several days supply of dope. Here is a rather long POLICE BLOTTER.

A St. Louis County Police Officer was assigned to assist a road construction crew in closing several lanes of EB I-64 for nighttime construction. A large flashing arrow sign was in place followed by the marked County Police Car with all flashing light activated.

Woods was driving his 2019 GMC Yukon. Woods ignored the flashing arrow sign and struck it and then hit the median wall before swerving back and hitting the police car.

Sgt. Rick Mundy was in the police and saw Woods out of control Yukon coming for the rear of his police car. He put the car in drive and stepped on it, but it was too late. After the collision the Yukon burst into flames. Woods and his 12-year-old son got out of the car without any serious injuries. Not so for Sgt. Mundy. He got an ambulance ride to the hospital.

Woods' Blood Alcohol Content was .199% taken well after the crash.

This is from Chesterfield Officer Todd Lantz's police report.

This crash occurred in the far left lane (lane #1) of east bound I-64 just past the exit ramp for Chesterfield Parkway West. Half on the shoulder and half in the left lane was a large lighted arrow board with the arrow pointing right indicating to merge right. Vehicle 2 (V2) was a police vehicle with all emergency lights activated stopped in the far left lane, closing the left lane due to a MODOT construction zone. Vehicle 2 (V2) was east of the arrow board. Vehicle 1 (V1) was east bound on I-64 traveling in lane #1. Driver of V1 was inattentive and failed to observe the 11ft tall, 4ft by 8ft flashing arrow board. V1 subsequently struck the arrow board. V1 ran off the roadway to the left colliding with the concrete median. V1 returned to the roadway colliding with the rear of V2. V1 then became fully engulfed in flames.

Driver 1 stated the following: We were coming back from the baseball game. All of a sudden there was an embankment in front of us. Hit it and then crashed into the cement wall. Then I think there was a cop car right in front of us, I hit that and then all of a sudden, the flames came up.

Driver 2 stated the following: I was stopped in the left lane with all my emergency lights activated. I was assisting with shutting down the left lane for the construction. I looked back and saw him coming up fast. I just knew I was going to get hit. I threw it into drive as fast as I could and started to hit the accelerator but he came crashing into me.

Driver 1 and Passenger of V1 reported no injuries. Driver 2 complained of head, neck, arm, chest and back pain. Monarch Ambulance 2257 arrived on scene. Driver 2 was transported to [redacted]

The large arrow board had extensive damage. The sign is rented from Traffic Control Company. The construction crew on scene was Sweetens and supervised by MODOT.

I observed extensive damage to the front of V1 from the crash and damage throughout V1 due to the fire. V2 had extensive damage to the rear of the vehicle. V1 was towed by Big Boys Towing. V2 was towed by D&L Rideout.

I, Greg Rupp, DSN 0264, Chesterfield Police Department, knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true and documented in report number 21-1109. CHESTERFIELD RESIDENT, WEB DESIGNER AND JAZZ SINGER IN HOSPITAL WITH COVID-19:

On Tuesday April 6 Joe Mancuso posted on his facebook page a photo of him in the hospital, not looking great battling COVID-19 along with a written message.

This virus is no joke... I have been struggling with covid-19 for 10 days from home, but this morning I was having trouble breathing. They have me on steroids, antibiotics and oxygen... I hope to feel better soon, I can feel the effects of the oxygen already.

Joe's facebook page is overflowing with prayers and other similar messages.

Here are some of the art work:

Here are a couple that are perfect if you have a model railroad set up in your basement.

From Kensington, Maryland

A suburban train station outside of Oslo, Norway.

This cow is from the Faroe Islands (population 52,337) located north of Scotland and between Iceland and Norway in the North Atlantic.

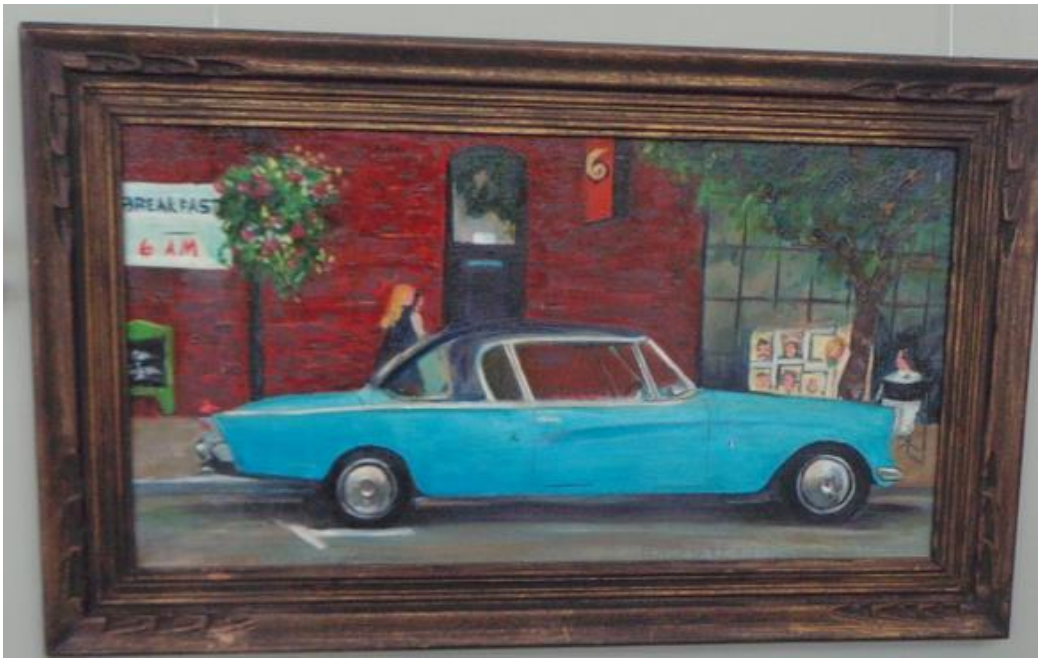
Thinking about getting chickens? Maybe you would want to start with this.

Chickens and real chicken wire

For the fisherman with time on his hands.

A masterpiece by a copiest (painted with approval of the art museum vs a forger who does it without permission)

My favorite: This is a 1950s Studebaker sports car. The owner is the artist with his paintings for sale to the right. This is from Fishermen's Wharf in San Francisco



THEFT FROM THE ART SHOW: It was the smallest piece on display so it was place on the front desk counter close to the police department window. It was stolen by day two of the art show. If you notice, there are two art description cards but only one sculpture. The frog is missing. A police commander said the security video will be checked for a suspect.

I learned at deadline that the frog maybe coming back to the art show. A person in Springfield. MO was identified, contacted and said he would mail it back.

FROM THE DIAMOND: Just in time for opening day.
