TOPPING ROAD TO CLOSE FOR INSTALLATION OF STORMWATER SEWER PIPE

The road is scheduled to be closed during midday hours starting on March 15, but bad weather may change that. The construction was originally scheduled for Friday March 11 but moved to March 15 due to a forecast of snow on March 11. Here is the latest from Tim Randick at City Hall who is the project manager:

In connection with the storm sewer installation we have one section that will require crossing Topping Road in between Topping Estates and Topping Estates North. The installation of this pipe at a depth of ten (10) feet while maneuvering between gas and water mains will be very difficult. For the safety of the motorists that use Topping and the workers that will need to perform the work, we will be temporarily closing Topping Road on the day that work is to be performed. We are working with the contractor to provide a message board providing advance notice of which day that will be, and the closure will only occur between 9:00am and 3:00pm to hopefully reduce the impact to commuters. The sewer installation between Topping Estates and Topping Estates North has been postponed until Tuesday, March 15th (weather permitting).

ILLEGAL SIGN? IS UNAPPROVED SIGN FAIR TO OTHER BUSINESSES THAT WENT THROUGH THE PROCESS FOR APPROVED SIGNS?

The Phillips 66 Station at Woods Mill Road and Clayton Road is a Phillips 66 owned property. The franchise is locally owned. Seven years ago Phillips 66 ordered that repair garages at their owned stations had to go. The franchise owner replaced the mechanics with cooks and ini 2015 opened the 3 Bay BBQ and Bakery that is open from 11-to-7.

They never got a rear sign for the building and meets city sign codes. Instead they put out a very large wooden sign on Clayton Road. The sign has stayed there for years.

I knew the answer to My Question to the City Planning Department before I asked it if the wooden 3-Bay BBQ sign had a permit and was legal. The answer from City Hall so far is “We are looking into it.” To me it was a fine sign for a few months but was grossly unfair after that to the other businesses and restaurants nearby, where the owners all got permits for signs and follow the city sign ordinances.

The violation can't be a big surprise to the city employees, who have ignored it. The Phillips 66 station is the refuel location for city vehicles, including vehicles used by people in the planning department and the police department.

MASON ROAD CLOSED ON SATURDAY FEBRUARY 26 FOR OVER AN HOUR DUE TO CRASH CAUSED BY TESLA DRIVER. On Saturday February 26, 2022 at 3pm Mason Road was closed for over an hour as Town and Country Police dealt with a three-car crash on Mason Road and the curves at Blossom Hill Lane.

Town and Country Police had Mason Road closed just south of Clayton Road. A County Police Officer had Mason closed at the entrance to Queeny Park.

The vehicle that caused the crash was a 2020 Tesla driven by a Town and Country resident. The driver was going south and crossed the center line hitting two NB cars.

This was a high dollar crash. The Tesla hit a GMC SUV and a 2022 Volvo.

Driver 1 stated she was traveling south on Mason Road. As she went around the sharp turn at Blossom Hill, driver 1 stated she did not know what happened.

Driver 2 stated he was traveling north on Mason Road. As he went around the sharp turn at Blossom Hill, driver 2 stated vehicle 1 crossed over the double yellow lines. Driver 2 stated he tried to avoid vehicle 1, but was struck due to vehicle 1 crossing into his lane.

Driver 3 stated she was traveling north on Mason Road. As she came up to the sharp turn at Blossom Hill, driver 3 said vehicle 1 was coming at her as vehicle 1 had crossed over the double yellow lines. Driver 3 could not avoid the oncoming vehicle 1 and her vehicle was struck by vehicle 1 on the driver side.

Witness 1 stated she was on Mason Road behind vehicles 2 and 3. As those vehicles traveled into the turn, vehicle 1 crossed over the double yellow lines striking both vehicles.

Vehicle 1 and 2 were towed due to damage by McNamara's Towing.

No injuries were reported on scene.

Again the driver of the Tesla is a Town and Country resident and he was not issued a citation.

GENERAL MOTORS HAS KILLED THE PRECISION VEHICLE LOGISTICS RAILYARD AND 3,000-to-6,000 SPACES FOR TRUCKS AND VANS. THE APPLICATION WAS PULLED.

A week after this Maryland Heights project was approved that would abut existing Chesterfield subdivisions and probably kill the development of a new subdivision along Hog Hollow Road and the Maryland Heights city limits, word was popping up that General Motors might kill the whole thing. On Tuesday the City of Maryland Heights confirmed that the application for the project had been pulled by the applicant Precision Vehicle Logistics.

The 93-acre property that would consist of parking for 3,000 to 6,000 vehicles from the GM Wentzville assembly plant being trucked in, plus two buildings, a repair garage and office building and a railyard for shipping the vehicles to dealers across the country. Also add 288 overhead lights.

Precision Vehicle Logistics Co of Wayne, Michigan got the Maryland Heights City Council to override a defeat of the project by the Planning Commission with an 8-0 vote.

The word floating around the Chesterfield and Maryland Heights City Halls was that when first looking at the proposed project in the Howard Bend flood plain General Motors officials did not notice all the residential housing around the project on the google map. (see below)

The next item making the rounds is the local General Motors dealers are aware of the high number of customers from the Chesterfield 63017 and 63005 area and are afraid because of the railyard effecting nearby housing prices and the railroad traffic through other parts of Chesterfield caused by the vehicle shipping facility, residents would stop buying GM products.

This caused the current unsubstantiated talk that General Motors has ordered the project be killed and a new location be found.

We tried to verify this with emails to Precision Vehicle Logistics and to a GM dealer on the National dealer advisory board, but never got a reply.

However when we talked to Chesterfield City Administrator Mike Geisel after Monday's Council meeting he told us that he had information from four separate independent sources that GM killed the project just approved by Maryland Heights.

Mike Geisel

At the start of the meeting Ward-1 Councilwoman Barb McGuinness announced that GM killed the project once they realized it would affect subdivisions in Chesterfield.

McGuinness and co-Ward-1 Councilwoman Mary Monachella along with Planning Commission Chair and Ward-4 Council candidate Merrell Hansen had been attending Maryland Heights Council meetings with a number of Chesterfield residents upset with the proposed project.

McGuinness announced at the Monday night Council meeting that GM had killed the project. She did not have any kind words to say about the Maryland Heights City Council who ignored their Planning Commission's vote. She also teared up a bit talking about how Chesterfield residents will not have to endure noise, lights and drops in property values.

"Mary (Councilwoman Monachella) and I have felt we were in a foreign country dealing with Maryland Heights. I don't know a single freezer (McGuinness owns the last Velvet Freeze ice cream store) I have that is colder than these people," said McGuinness.

“They could not believe we were there (at council meetings),” said Monachella of the Maryland Heights Council.

It took a while to confirm that the project was dropped, but we were able to do it on Tuesday when we got this email from the Maryland Heights media relations contact followed by the letter from Barb McGuinness.

I have been informed by our Community Development Department that the project has been withdrawn by the applicant. We do have a formal letter from the applicant stating that they would like to withdraw

Dear Jim,

Precision has been pursuing the appropriate approvals to proceed with building a vehicle holding facility on River Valley Drive and Hog Hollow Road in support of the GM Wentzville assembly plant.

Although the project received the appropriate local approvals, it has drawn concerns from the adjoining neighborhood and local officials in the town of Chesterfield. After thoroughly reviewing and considering these concerns, Precision has decided to discontinue the project in this location.

We recognize and appreciate the hard work by you and your team throughout this process. We thank you, Mayor Mike Moeller, Mike Zeek, and Erin LoRusso in particular, but recognize others from your team have also been involved in and committed to this project. We wish all of you great success as you continue the development of the community and economy of Maryland Heights.

Sincerely,

Darrin McElroy – “Mac”

Does this look like a supermarket with 132 employees?

Actually I'm sure this includes Annie Gunn's Restaurant, one of the most expensive places to eat in West County (I can only afford to go there for lunch). I'm very sure Annie Gunn's took a terrible hit at the height of the Pandemic...I mean I haven't been there for lunch for over two years.

$7,500 FOR A MAILING ON PROP U: On the April ballot there is the issue of Proposition U, which the City of Chesterfield would like to see passed very much. Prop U would add a 1-cent local city sales tax on anything purchased on the Internet.

Currently residents are avoiding city sales taxes by shopping on the internet and avoiding brick and mortar stores. Internet shoppers also avoid additional TIF or CID sales taxes used for the development of shopping centers.

Of course the City funds police, roads and parks from sales taxes, so if sales taxes go down due to internet sales with no Prop U, services would have to be cut or a property tax would have to be installed.

The City is allowed by law and court ruling only to explain a ballot issue to residents and not promote passage, The City included this in a newsletter that was mailed to every resident. It is also on a banner at the top of the City's website. The explanations of Prop U are close to a sell-job to pass it, but don't quite go over the line.

Before the Council on Monday was to spend another $7,500 for a mailer to residents just about Prop U. The only real comments at the meeting came from Councilman Tom DeCampi.

"I think we are walking a fine line with supporting this ballot issue I don't think we need to spend $7,500. It is already in the newsletter. I think we are flirting with some trouble. It is already on the website. We don't need to throw another $7,500 on this," said DeCampi.

Tom DeCampi

Councilman Mike Moore, chair of the Finance Commission thought he spoke in favor of voting to pay for another mailer on Prop U on the ballot, but you would not know it by what he actually said.

"Most residents know Proposition U is on the ballot," Moore said which said to me 'why spend another $7,500?'

Mike Moore

The Council voted 7-to-1 to do another mailing about Prop U, with DeCampi casting the only “No” vote.

CHESTERFIELD RECEIVES AWARD FOR CONCRETE PROJECT: At the start of Monday’s City Council Meeting, Public Works Director Jim Eckrich accepted an award from the Missouri/Kansas Chapter of the American Paving Association for use of concrete.

PW Director Jim Eckrich and John Jonas of the MO/KS Chapter of Am Pavers Assoc.

Jim Eckrich gave us this background:

The award was for a project in 2021 during which the City reconstructed Claymont Estates Drive, Denwoods Drive, Isleview Drive, Redondo Drive, and River Valley Drive. It was a really interesting project because all of these streets were previously asphalt and by converting them to concrete we were able to correct a number of problems, including significant drainage problems on River Valley Drive and Redondo Drive. Additionally, we had to coordinate our project on Claymont Estates Drive with Missouri American Water Company replacing a 16” transmission water main. The project turned out really well and was constructed within budget.
