THE LAMB HOUSE FLOODING SUIT ALLEGING T&C FAILING TO ENFORCE BUILDING CODES CONTNUES. 601 Greenwich Green used to have a Clayton Road address for a ranch house on a flat lot that faced Clayton Road. Then Town & Country approved a mcmasion to be built twisted to face Greenwich Green. The new house did not meet all building requirements and the slant of the newly developed property flooded the house (a classis mid-century modern) at 603 Greenwhih Green owned by Dave and Erin Lamb. Town and Country has been tied up in litigation for 2 ½ years over issuance of a building permit.

TOWN AND COUNTRY BOARD OF ALDERMEN MEETING

Old Board

New Board

The two new aldermen, Ben Schwoerer (ward 1) and Joe Kinsella (ward 3) were sworn in.

LUTHERN SENIOR SERVICES EXPANSION BILL DEFEATED The bill to redevelop Mason Point, the senior living and nursing home, was moved to be continued to the next meeting. The motion was made by Ward 2 Alderwoman Holly Even. There was a long pause. Without a second to the motion would mean the continuance would fail.

Ward 3 stated she was reluctantly going to second the motion, but added she didn't know what good it would do. She said it was clear to her that the ordinance allowing the expansion was not going to pass.

Alderwoman Michelle Francisco

The vote for a motion failed. Alderwoman Sue Allen (a resident at the facility) and Ald. Fritz Wiesehan (management of a competing retirement nursing home) recused themselves.

The motion to continue the bill was defeated 4-2. Next the bill itself was defeated on another 4-2 vote.

Approval of Bill No. 23-14 (as amended)

MAYOR REHM... BEFORE INSTITUING A PROPERTY TAX, FIRST STOP WASTING MONEY: At a recent Board of Aldermen meeting after the Proposition U Sales Tax on Internet purchases badly failed at the polls, Mayor Rehm said that this might mean the reinstatement of a property tax after 30 years without one.

If it is needed to provide basic services fine, but let's get rid unnecessary spending first.

Here is a good example. MoDOT maintains the grass along the center and shoulder of I-64 and all State Highways. Former aldermen Skip Mange and Fed Meyland-Smith claimed the intersection of Mason Road and I-64 was the gateway to Town and Country. (It certainly is NOT. Town and Country became a Village in 1950. The gateway then and now are WB Clayton Road at Bopp entering the city limits from Frontenac and NB Ballas RD at the Des Peres City Limits. Mason and I-64 were not annexed until 34 years later.

Mange and Meyland-Smith pushed a bill through where the City would maintain the landscaping of the right away in place of MoDot even though it is MoDot's property and job. They did not like how often the grass was being cut.

So here is what Town and Country is paying landscapers to do a job that MoDot will do at no charge:

Maybe before hitting us with a tax Mayor Rehm could give this work back to MoDot to cut their grass.

EIGHT YEARS AFTER A COUPLE OF DATES, MAN THREATENS TO BREAK-IN VICTIM'S RESIDENCE AND RAPE HER. T&C DETECTIVE EXLINE APPEARS TO HAVE BROKEN THE CASES FOR THE FBI After a couple of dates in 2014 the victim started to hear from in 2021 Robert Merkle, 53, by text threatening to use a key he has to her residence and rape her.

This is nothing new for Merkle as he had been arrested several years before for similar offences at least three times with other woman. Three years in prison for Harassment apparently did not get his attention. The Country Prosecutor's Office was going to this to a grand jury for an indictment, however Merkle ended up in prison awaiting sentencing on 5-Federal charges.

Here is the Town and Country charges explained in a probable cause statement by Det. Katie Exline.

I, Katie Exline, DSN 0123, Town and Country Police Department, knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true and documented in report number 22-117. I have probable cause to believe that on January 26, 2022, at 14457 Willow Bend Park, Town and Country, MO, 63017, Robert Merkle, White, Male, DOB 01/17/1969, 6'01", 195lbs, committed one or more criminal offense(s).

Count: 01 HARASSMENT - 1ST DEGREE

The facts supporting this belief are as follows: I have been informed of the following. T.B. and the defendant were in a dating relationship in 2014 that lasted for a short period. On the above date T.B. received multiple text messages on her phone. T.B. believes the messages were from the defendant based, among other things, on a name that he called her and a reference to their relationship. In the text messages the defendant stated that he had a copy of T.B.'s key to her residence, and that he was going to break in and rape her. T.B. called the police, and after the police arrived the defendant sent another message to T.B. telling T.B. to stop calling the police.

I believe the defendant poses a danger to T.B. and to the community because I have been informed that he has a prior conviction in 2017 for three counts of harassment, in which he was sentenced to 1 year in jail (1722-CR04530-01). In that case the defendant was charged with sending sexually explicit and threatening text messages to three different women. The defendant also has a prior conviction for harassment from 2018 in which he was sentenced to prison for three years (18JE-CR00198-01). In that case the defendant was charged with sending a text message to a woman indicating that he had a fantasy to violently rape her. I have also been informed that multiple other women have asserted that the defendant has sent them threatening and violent messages.

GUILTY PLEA AGREEMENT

2. GUILTY PLEA:

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, in exchange for the defendant's voluntary plea of guilty to all 5 counts in the Indictment:

A. The parties agree that Defendant be sentenced to 60 months in prison on all counts to be run concurrently. The guideline range (combination of Total Offense Level and Criminal History Category) ^{shall c.l.} ultimately determined by the Court pursuant to any chapter of the ^{RM K39} Guidelines and Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a); and

3. ELEMENTS:

As to Counts I, and II, of the Indictment, the defendant admits to knowingly violating Title 18, United States Code, Section 875(c), and admits there is a factual basis for the plea and further fully understands that the elements of the crime are:

- A. The defendant knowingly sent a message in interstate commerce;
- B. Containing a true threat to injure the person of another;
- C. The defendant sent the message with the intent to communicate a true threat or with the knowledge that it would be viewed as a true threat.

As to Counts III, IV, V of the Indictment, the defendant admits to knowingly violating Title 18, United States Code, Section 2261A(2)(B), and admits there is a factual basis for the plea and further fully understands that the elements of the crime are:

- A. The defendant used an electronic communication service or any other facility of interstate or foreign commerce;
- B. The defendant used the electronic communication service or any other facility of interstate or foreign commerce to engage in a course of conduct;

C. While engaged in that course of conduct, the defendant intended to injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and

D. The defendant's acts constituting the course of conduct caused, attempted to cause, or would be reasonably expected to cause substantial emotional distress to that person.

4. FACTS:

The parties agree that the facts in this case are as follows and that the government would prove these facts beyond a reasonable doubt if the case were to go to trial. These facts may be considered as relevant conduct pursuant to Section 1B1.3:

In January of 2022, law enforcement were notified that defendant Merkle was harassing a female. Further, a subsequent review of the defendant's cell phone revealed that he had been harassing numerous women since May of 2021.

As to Count One: Victim "T.B.", Charge Section 875(c):

On January 26, 2022, the Town and Country Police Department responded to an address in their venue and interviewed a woman identified as "T.B."

T.B. reported she met the defendant (Robert Merkle) in April 2014. T.B. reported she met the defendant on a dating website and they had dated briefly before she ended the relationship.

T.B. told investigators that during intermittent periods from 2014 through January 2022, T.B. continued to receive text messages from the defendant which were annoying, but she did not consider them threatening. T.B. told investigators she ignored the text messages and did not respond to him.

T.B. told investigators that during the evening of January 26, 2022, she received a text message string from Merkle, who she believed was using a fictitious or internet-generated telephone number. T.B. told investigators that although the defendant was using an unfamiliar telephone number, she knew it to be him because he referenced a nickname only he used, he described a specific attribute of her home, and he said they had sex during April 2014.

A transcript of the text messages investigators believe were sent by Merkle is included below. T.B. told investigators she did not reply to the text messages.

- Hey Tamster?
- Remember the last night we had sex in late April 2014?
- I photographed your house key before we left your place that evening
- See there was this online company that made a physical copy of a key purely from a cellphone picture.
- Cool, ya know?
- I remember you looked at your keys on your breakfast bar table. You saw they had been moved and for a second I thought you were gonna sniff me out. But you never made the connection
- I got the key to your front door not but 5 fuckin days later
- And it worked, too [face emoji]
- I still have it and I bet the lock is still the same
- I'm gonna find out for sure this Friday nite, Tamster.
- So if you happen to wake up Friday nite around midnight w a hand over your mouth and a dick going in and out of your cunt, well, at least you'll know who it is

After the police arrived at the residence of T.B., she received a text message from who she believed was Merkle. A portion of the message is included below:

- And for Christ's sakes, Tammy, quit calling the fuckin cops on me. Now I'm gonna have to call in another favor w/ my...ummmm..."F"lowers "B"y "I"rene buddies to quash this shit
- Damnit woman!

Investigators asked T.B. if the key to her home had numbers at the top of it which correspond to the key cutting depths to make a new key. T.B. told investigators the key to her home has numbers on it similar to what Merkle described.

Based on T.B.'s statements, FBI Special Agent Ryan Cornelius (SA Cornelius) applied for and received federal search warrants to search Merkle's home¹ and cell phone. On January 27, 2022, FBI responded to Merkle's place of employment and arrested him. SA Cornelius observed that Merkle's did not have his Apple Iphone on him on the way to the police station. Investigators discovered that the defendant gave it to a co-worker. It is retrieved by law enforcement. The defendant invoked Miranda and did not make any incriminating statements. Besides the Federal Search Warrants obtained for his home and the defendant's cell phone, another search federal search warrant was also served upon the defendant's email account, "robertscottmason2022@gmail.com." Computer devices and cell phones were seized from the defendant's home/room.

FBI Special Agent David Howe, who is an experienced forensic analyst, reviewed the computer devices seized from Merkle's apartment which included: two older computers, 4 cell phones, 3 SIM cards, 7 USB devices, and a media player. One computer (labeled by the FBI as item "1B3") and one older Android-based phone (Item "1B5") had the Gmail address of robertscottmason2022@gmail.com linked to them. Another Android-based cell phone (item "1B6") contained: links to the robertscottmason2022@gmail.com account, and had a text from "Textme²" showing the defendant was using Textme services. A third cell phone (Item "1B8") also has the robertscottmason2022@gmail.com email address associate with it, and there were violent text messages located on that phone to Victim Three, "C.E.," from a Textme account under the name of "tammybell."

Relevant to the allegations made by victim T.B., law enforcement located messages sent to her from the defendant on one of his cell phones (item 1B5). Included in the located text messages was the threatening message the defendant sent about raping her on Friday night. Law enforcement was able to access the data on Merkle's Apple Iphone in the Fall of 2022. Evidence of emails and text messages to the victims were located on that cell phone as well. Including an email to victim T.B. dated January 12, 2022 from "robertscottmason2022@gmail.com."

As to Count Two: Victim "M.O.," Charge Section 875(c):

An adult female victim, M.O. residing in Glen Ellyn, Illinois, reported to police that on January 24, 2022, she received text messages from the phone numbers: 571-932-8165 and 314-766-1091. They used her nickname "Mxxx." One of the texts from phone number 571-932-8165, that was also located on one of the defendant's Android based cell phones (item 1B5) was: "I'd love to know your address. I like to masturbate and think about coming to your house some night really late, breaking in, mounting you with no grace at all and having really hard sex with you."

As to Count Three: Victim "C.E.," Charge Section 2261A:

C.E. resides in California and received threatening text messages from the defendant in October of 2021. These messages were located by the FBI on the defendant's Android Phone (Item 1B8).

C.E. told the FBI that she recalled receiving the text messages in October of 2021 on her personal cell phone from a number she did not recognize. SA Cornelius read the victim a string of text messages from Merkle's phone (1B8) which she stated she recalled. She blocked the number after that because she found the messages threatening. The messages said, "Cxxxxxx" "this is an old friend," "have you ever been sexually assaulted," "I am thinking about breaking

“this is an old friend,” “have you ever been sexually assaulted,” “I am thinking about breaking into your house and fucking your fucking brains out.” The messages appeared to have come from an account with the name, “tammybell4920.” These text messages to C.E. were located on the defendant’s phone and were dated that they were sent on October 11, 2021. On October 13, 2021, the defendant sent two text messages from “tammybell” account, that read: “have you ever been fucked against your will?” “I am thinking about breaking into your house and fucking your brains out.” Victim C.E. received another message from the defendant on October 26, 2021. It read: “Cxxxxxxx, I would like to fuck your brains out until they leak out of your fucking ears.” C.E blocked the number and the messages stopped.

As to Count Four: Victim “L.K.,” Charge 2261(A):

L.K. is an adult female that resides in Saucier, Mississippi. She received repeated phone calls and text messages from an unknown individual from June 2021, until January 2022. She reported these threatening messages to both the Harrison County Sheriff’s Department and the Gulfport Police. The defendant’s Android phone (item 1B5) contained evidence that the defendant was the person cyberstalking L.K. L.K. sent screenshots of the threatening messages on her phone to SA Cornelius:

- Robertscottmason20297632 sent to her on DATE:
 - Robertscottmason20297632 (Merkle’s phone): L**
 - L.K.: ?
 - Robertscottmason20297632: Youre very beautiful
 - L.K.: Who is this
 - Robertscottmason20297632: L* I would love to know your address, I masturbate and think about coming to your house some night really late, getting in, mounting you with no grace at all, and just start having really hard sex Id love to know your address. I like to masturbate and think about coming to your house some night really late ...

- Robertscottmason20297632: But what I would really like to do is spray semen all over your face while you're having an orgasm.
- Defendant sent a photograph of L.K. (from the internet) to her.
- L.K. asked him for his name.
- Robertscottmason20297632 responded: L* you motherfucker I really need to get on top of you and piston my penis in and out of your goddamn cunt.

As to Count Five: Victim "J.A.," Charge 2261A

J.A. resides in Edwardsville, Illinois. In December 26, 2021, J.A. received an email from the email account of robertscottmason2022@gmail.com. This email account belonged to the defendant. J.A. was asked if she had worked at Wells Fargo in 2014. She then received emails on January 5, 2022, through January 17, ²⁰²² ~~2021~~, ^{CV} ~~1236~~ that were sexual and threatening in nature from the defendant's email account. Including: "Jxxxx I'd love to know your address. I like to masturbate and think about coming to your house sone night really late, getting in, mounting you with no grace at all and just start having really hard sex with you." Then on January 5, 2022, the defendant through the robertscottmason2022@gmail.com email account wrote the following: "Yeah. So anyway I remember you as being insanely smoking hot. Smoldering hot. In fact the first week or two after we started I recall you were wearing a micro (emphasis on micro) miniskirt, jacket, heels and tights. Don't think I'll ever forget that, Jxxxxxx I thought: this girl must f*ck like a g*ddamn Ferrari.... And I'm prolly not wrong in that analysis, wouldn't you concur?" On January 17, 2022, the defendant emailed J.A. the following: "Jxxxxxx what I'd really like to do is spray semen all over your face while you're having an orgasm."

I had a retired US Ast. Attorney look at tis material and he gave Town and Country Detective Katie Exline credit for breaking these cases open and the Town and Country victim who actually knew that the suspect was Merkle.

It looks like Mr. Merkle's problems started with his arrest on a Complaint written by Detective Exline from T&C for Harassment of his ex-girlfriend. His bond was set at $75,000.00, so he sat in St. Louis County Jail. Then the feds got involved, and he was indicted on August 10, 2022 for a whole bunch of harassment crimes. The AUSA written him in from St. Louis County, where he remains to this day. He pled guilty to a whole bunch of crimes on March 16, 2023 before United States District Judge Stephen Clark. After his sentencing, back in St. Louis County, the prosecutor had an Amended Indictment issued, and he is scheduled to be back in St. Louis County Court on June 22nd. Personally, I think Judge Clark is going to hammer him and he will be gone for a long, long time. Then, I think Merkle will plead to the State charge and get concurrent time. The federal plea is very long and detailed.

POPULAR BIG BAND SINGER RETURNS TO ST. LOUIS FOR ONE PERFORMANCE

Dean Christopher had quite a following whether he was singing with a big band at concert halls in St. Louis or with a trio in Kirkwood. He moved to Florida with his wife, a retired Parkway School teacher.

He is coming back for one more performance with a big band behind him on Friday May 6th. If you have not seen Dean this might be your last chance. It is certainly worth the trip to South County.

LETTERS AND EMAILS. I have several newsletter readers from overseas. Here is an email I got after posting the latest Drunks & Thieves newsletter from a reader in Ireland.

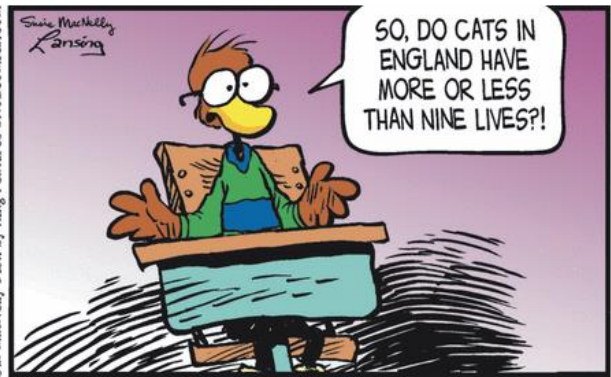

The police must be p...sed off when they go to all the trouble of bringing drunk drivers to court, and they don't even get penalty points, not to mind bans???!!!

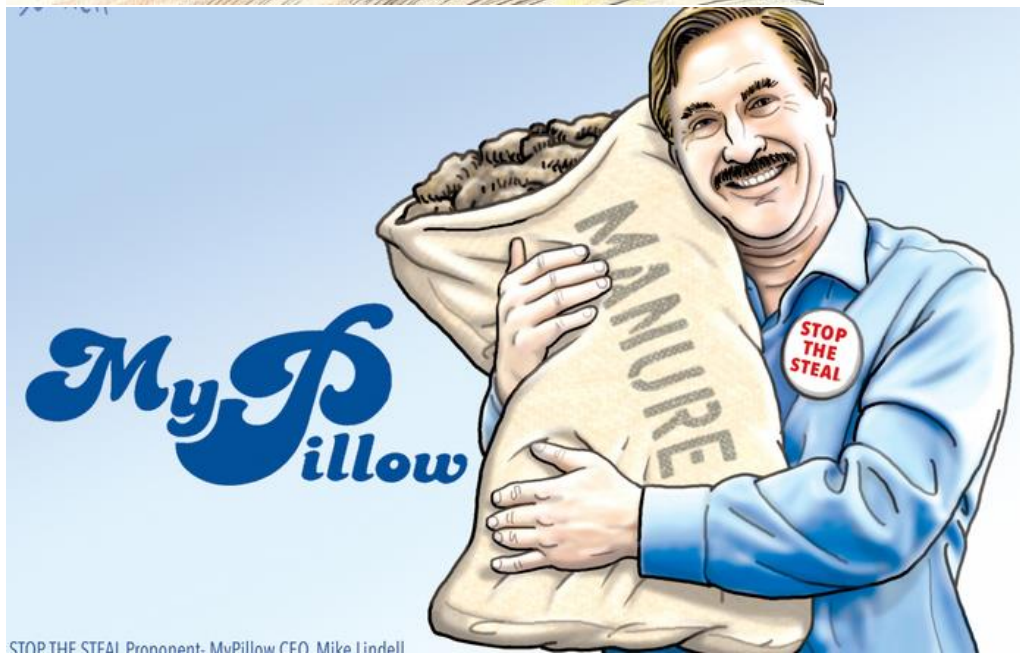

My regular reader from Dublin Ireland, Ronan Woods, a retired banker and his wife a retired high school PE teacher.

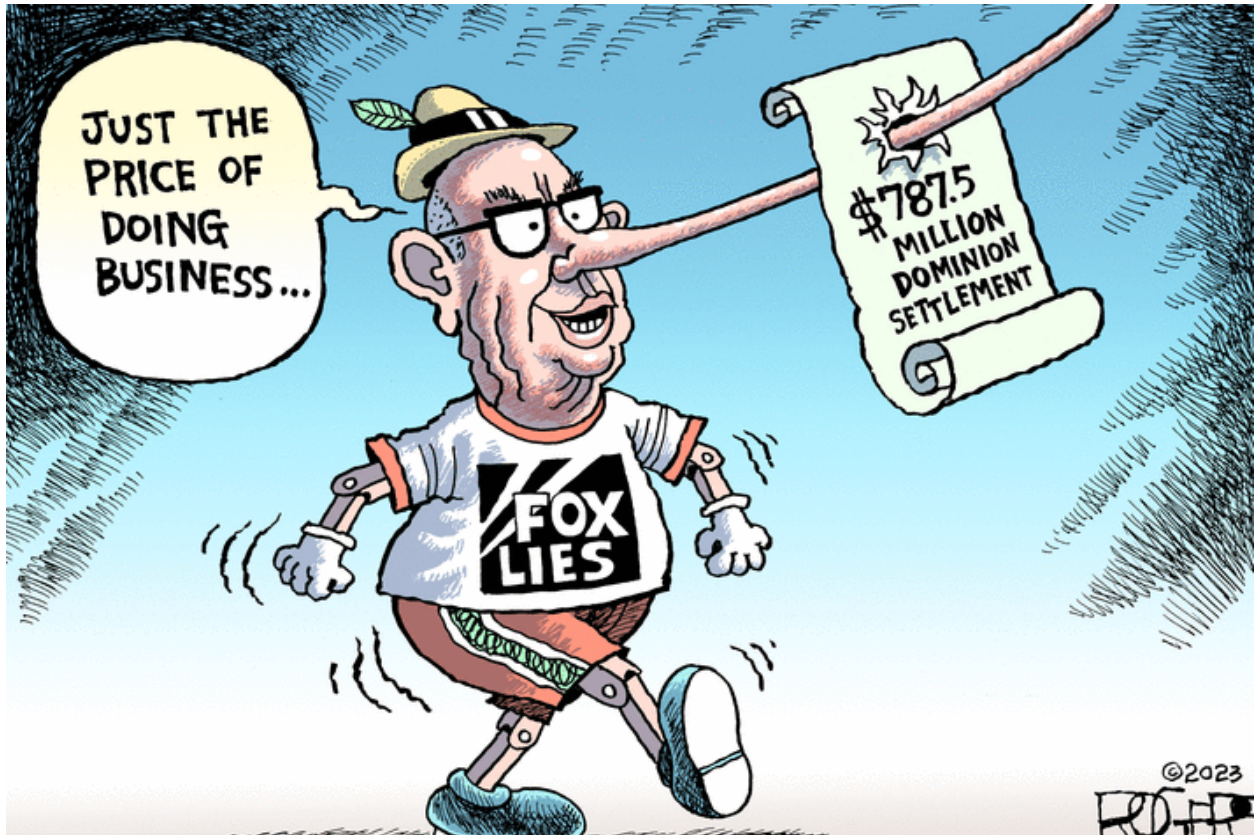

I had a simple reply to Ronan about his thinking how the police must be pissed off with the likes of Tim Englemeyer never convicting Drunk Drivers. It was "They are."
