TOWN AND COUNTRY

Florissant man is charged in carjacking of woman

Jerome C. Robinson, 19, of Florissant, was charged Monday with taking a car at gunpoint from a woman in Town and Country on June 20.

Police said Robinson used a car to block the woman's SUV at a stop sign at Bopp and Clayton roads about 10:50 p.m. Two men forced their way into her red Jeep Cherokee, taking it, her purse and a cell phone.

Robinson, of the 1400 block of Sunsetshire Drive, was charged with first-degree robbery.

One would only hope that someone would challenge the request to make disappear sticking a gun a gun in a woman's face and stealing her car and purse. The late Circuit Judge Jim Hartenbach, who lived in Kirkwood felt eight years in prison and a record of conviction was proper. I knew Jim and I think he was right.

TOWN AND COUNTRY DETECTIVE EXLINE RECEIVES COMMENDATION OF APPRECIATION FROM THE FBI

In 2021 and 2022 Det. Exline investigated a case where suspect Robert Merkle was calling and emailing a Town and Country woman threatening to rape her and break into her house and sexually assault her.

Det. Katie Exline

She developed Merkle as a suspect and found that he may have been committing similar crimes in other States, at which time she notified the FBI and continued to investigate with an FBI agent.

They found other victims in Illinois and Mississippi. Merkle was arrested and the FBI found the computer and a cellphone responsible in sending the sex threats.

Robert Merkle

Thanks to Det. Exline's investigation and contacting the FBI the following convictions of Merkle occurred:

08/10/22 5-cts Federal Felony Harassment 5-yrs prison FBI

01/26/22 Felony Harassment 7-yrs prison Town & Country PD

Merkle had these prior convictions for similar offenses:

09/14/17 St. Louis City PD 3-years prison

03/30/17 Jefferson Co SO 3-years prison

02/23/17 St. Louis City PD 3-years prison

Here is what was on the FBI Commendation to Det. Exline.

The U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation recognized (Detective) Katie Exline for her exceptional performance during a cyberstalking investigation conducted throughout 2022-2023. The investigation was initiated in 2022 when several victims in Missouri and across the country reported they had been receiving explicit and threatening illegal messages from an unknown perpetrator. One such incident was reported in the City of Town and Country. When the investigation encountered technological barriers, (Detective) Exline contacted the FBI for assistance. As a result of this co-investigation and partnership, the suspect was identified, charged, and convicted at both the state and federal level.

The FBI expressed that it was extremely grateful to work with such a devoted Law Enforcement partner and congratulated (Detective) Exline on a job well done. The document was signed by Christopher Wray, Director of the FBI.

BOND HEARING REDUCES "NO BOND" TO $150,000 FORMER TOWN & COUNTRY POLIC OFFICER FOR SEX CRIMES. Recently retired Town and Country Police Seargent Jordan Fowle on 01/29 had a Jefferson County judge set his bond on 9-counts of Child Sexual Assault of his daughters at $150,000 with house arrest and no contact with the victims or juveniles under 18-years of age, wear a monitor and possess no guns.

FINAL REPORT

2024 Deer Management Program

Town and Country, Missouri

by

White Buffalo, Inc.

16 January 2024

INTRODUCTION

The City of Town and Country contains a matrix of suburban and commercial development, parks, and other open spaces. The absence of any deer management combined with fertile soils allowed the local deer population to increase to a level incompatible with some land use and human activities before our involvement. Although deer physical condition is not an issue, there is ongoing concern regarding deer-vehicle collisions and damage to garden and landscape plantings. This is the 14th year in which a deer population management program was implemented.

METHODS

Pre-baiting was conducted from 13 December 2023 – 2 January 2024. Sharpshooting efforts were conducted from 3 – 15 January 2024. Eleven days of fieldwork were required to achieve the harvest of 89 deer.

We followed the operations protocol outlined in the contract and changes agreed to verbally prior to the onset of site preparations. Sixteen sites were available throughout the area of operation.

Fourteen sites were used as part of the 2023/2024 Town and Country, MO deer management program. Two locations were not used due to lack of deer activity or weather conditions not being conducive to operations. Nine of the locations had been used in previous years. Five new sites were added to the property list: one in Ward 2, one in Ward 3, and two in Ward 4. The five new sites resulted in the harvest of 22 deer. Ward 2 continued to produce the highest removal numbers, accounting for 42% of the overall harvest. This pattern has been stable throughout the years.

When temperatures become extremely cold deer tend to reduce their movement to conserve energy. This resulted in a lower harvest on the last 3 days of the project than would be expected in better climatic conditions.

Harvest results from specific sites ranged from a high of 11 deer to a low of 3. The most productive site was in Ward 4 and contributed 12% to the total.
