Planned Urban Development. Allowing many more housing units. Out of 7 speakers five were for the change.

Speaking in favor of the development was former Mayor John Nations, who appeared speaking for the developer.

Here is the Council agenda item on the issue. At the Planning Commission this barely passed on a 5-4 vote.

The rezoning is in anticipation of a new single-family residential subdivision with 50 units and a site-specific ordinance.

Currently the proposal is 1-house 3.5 acres changed to 50 houses or more. See below.
