Officer Diaz

He contacted the driver, Ryan T. Shaw, 24, of Ballwin. Shaw said he had hit a pothole getting on the highway that blew out his tire. He added that he was coming from a friend's house and admitted having 3 beers. Officer Diaz found him to be very drunk. This is from his report:

Shaw did agreed to take a field breath test. That showed his BAC level was 3-times above the legal limit registering at .252%.

Shaw was asked to recite the alphabet from “C to W.” His response was “Dude I can’t do that. Everybody sings the alphabet.” He was then arrested.

Shaw stated that the truck was not insured as he just bought it.

At the police station he refused to take an “Official Breath Test” as he could not provide enough breath after five times for the breathalyzer to provide a BAC reading. Prior to his arrest Officer Diaz asked Shaw if 1 was sober and 10 was very drunk how did he rate his condition. Shaw said he was a “4.” He also refused to be interviewed at the police station.

Shaw was issued citations for DWI, Impeding Traffic (15mph with flat tire) and No Insurance.

OUTCOME: On 11/17/22 Shaw came to court with defense attorney and area municipal judge Charles H. Billings. He pled guilty to DWI and was placed on a 2-year SIS (no-fine, no points and no permanent record) probation. The No Insurance charge

SPEEDING DRIVER WAS HIGH ON MARIJUANA PASSES POLICE CAR: It was a Friday night into Saturday morning May 7, 2022 at 1:55am. Cpl. Dan Duddleston was in his police car on the shoulder on I-64 near Mason Road when he observed a speeding car approaching him. His radar unit showed the car, a gold Hyundai, doing 79 MPH in the 60 mph zone.

The driver of the Hyundai did not slow down after passing Cpl. Duddleston' police car, in fact he sped up. Cp. Duddleston pulled out to stop the car, but before turning on the red lights he checked his radar again the showed the Hyundai was doing 85 mph.

Cpl. Duddleston stopped the car on WB I-64 near Hwy 141. Upon contacting the driver, Daniel F. Sigmund, 18, of Ellisville. Cpl. Duddleston immediately smelled the odor of marijuana on Sigmond and noticed Sigmund's eyes were dilated and bloodshot. His speech featured mumbling and once out of the car his balance was unsure.

Sigmund passed some sobriety tests but failed more than half. He was arrested for DWI-D and speeding. At the scene of the stop and later at the police station Sigmund admitted smoking a gram of marijuana with friends. At the scene of the stop he stated that he smoked the weed about one-and-a-half hours earlier. At the police station an hour later in the "official interview" he said it how been 2 ½ hours.

During that hour Sigmund was taken to Mercy Hospital where a drug sample was obtained. A police lab test confirmed that Sigmund's blood contained the presence of THC (marijuana).

At the time of the arrest a marijuana vape pen with marijuana in it was seized from the front seat of his car.

DRUNK DRIVER PASSES FULLY MARKED POLICE CAR AT 91 MPH Officer Wesley Laney while in In-Service training was driving a fully marked Town and Country Police car west on I-64 on Sunday night November 7, 2021 at 11:03pm. Laney was sworn in as a T&C officer on 09/27/21. In the police car with Officer Laney was Officer Hamel.

Officer Laney reported seeing a vehicle approaching the police car at a high rate of speed. The vehicle, a Nissan Rouge, did not slow upon passing the marked police car and was clocked at 91MPH in the 60 zone.

He stopped the car at the Maryville University exit and upon reaching the car he noticed a female front seat passenger trying to hide an open beer can with her feet.

The driver, Charles Floyd Smith, Jr., 60, of St. Louis immediately said "My bad."

Officer Laney immediately noticed the Smith appeared to be drunk with BOB (booze on breath), bloodshot eyes, slurred, stuttering and mumbling speech containing profanities.

This is from his police report:

Officer Laney

Smith agreed to do field sobriety tests and failed the majority of them. He agreed to take a field breath test but refused to blow into the tube. Smith said he had a few beers about two hours earlier but was not drunk. He stated he was just going home and that he lived near the St. Louis University in St. Louis, however he was going in the opposite direction of home.

He was arrested and taken to the T&C police station. Prior to his arrest he was asked if he had a gun on him. He stated he did not. A simple pat down before being placed in the police car revealed a Berretta pistol in a holster on his belt.

An officer took his intoxicated passenger to the station where she called a sober person to pick her up. Prior to being driven to the police station her large purse was search and the open beer car was found.

At the police station Smith who claimed not to be drunk refused to prove it and refused to take a breath test or be interviewed.

After booking he was issued citations for DWI and Speeding and offered to be released to a sober person. He refused and was placed in a holdover cell until he sobered up on Monday morning.

ARREST WITH MORE KICKS THAN IN A SOCCER GAME. A VERY DRUNK WOMAN WITH GRANDKIDS IN CAR, TRIED BACKING DOWN OLIVE AND THEN KICKED NUMEROUS POLICE OFFICERS AND MEDICS. On Wednesday February 1, 2017 at about 8pm Chesterfield Officer Craig Friemel got a full days work and more, including bruises to his legs, when he answered a call of a weaving Jeep SUV north on Ladue Road from Hwy 141.

Officer Friemel

When he found the car the driver was backing down Olive from Ladue. Officer Friemel used his flashing lights to stop the car. That didn't work, the driver then backed over the median as Officer Friemel turned on the siren.

When the driver finally stopped she refused to roll down a window or open the locked door. Officer Friemel saw two children in backseat unrestrained. He got the boy to unlock the rear door and he removed the children from the car.

Once the kids were removed from the car, the 50-year-old driver exited with officers finding her highly intoxicated. There was a lot more than just BOB (booze on breath) as sign of being drunk. This is from the police report:

The driver was identified as Rogina Johnson, 50, and grandmother of the two children in the back of the Jeep. She claimed to have only two beers. She kept falling against the police car as she attempted to walk.

When asked to take field sobriety tests she replied, "No! Fuck your tests." Johnson was then arrested and handcuffed. Blood was observed on her shirt and she said she got it earlier in the evening fighting a man on Grand Ave. in St. Louis.

While attempting to put Johnson in a police car she kicked at an assisting officer.

Found in Johnson's vehicle were several empty beers cans, two unopened beer cans that were still cold to the topuch and a baggie of marijuana next to the gear shift

Chesterfield Police Officer Mueller transported Johnson to the police station and reported that she said she was going to get a gun and kill him.

At the police station Officer Mueller had to help Johnson into the building to keep her from falling. Once inside she kicked Officer Mueller in the leg which cause her to remain handcuffed and placed in a cell.

Several officers then assisted in removing Johnson from the cell for booking. She was explained the Implied Consent Law for a breath test and shouted repeatedly, "I am not doing no test so you can prosecute me."

At this time she tried to kick Officer Friemel only to have him block the kicks. She then used her fist and struck him in the hand.

Several officers then took her back to a cell. When leaving the holding area they heard her kicking the cell bars and hitting her head. They went back to check on her and Johnson was laying back on her back on the floor apparently unconscious. The more fun began...the Monarch FPD paramedics were called.

Johnson was back to her old self when the paramedics arrived. She was combative and cursing them. She fell limp at the stretcher. She continued to strike out and kick and to be handcuffed and strapped to the stretcher.

At the hospital she continued her combative behavior. She issued these citations:

TWO SHOPLIFTERS ASSAULT MACY'S SECURITY OFFICERS AFTER BEING STOPPED FOR STEALING.

On Thursday October 10, 2019 the Macy's store was still in operation at the Chesterfield Mall. At about 1:30 Deandra Sherie Johnson, 19, attempted to claim she was returning cosmetics she had purchased. Macy's refused to honor the "return" as Johnson had no receipt.

Johnson and Brean Y. Armstong, 18, then went to the cosmetic section of the store and were view by store security on video taking $124 in cosmetics and then leaving the store.

Security stopped Johnson since she had the goods on the first level of the mall, then the kicking began. Johnson began kicking and punching the security officer who was eventually able to control her and head to the security office, but then Armstrong appeared.

Armstrong attempted to free Johnson and kicked in the groin a security officer assisting in the apprehension of Johnson. Security officers eventually got Johnson to the office and locked the door. Armstrong instead of fleeing, was pounding on the door. Armstrong also knocked a computer used by employees to log on and off duty to the ground.

On arrival of the police both were handcuffed and taken to the police station where Johnson was charged with Stealing and Assault while Armstrong was charged with 2-counts of Assault and Peace Disturbance.

SEVERAL HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS OF POLICE TIME AND EFFORT GO INTO SOLVING THE THEFT OF A $10 BOTTLE OF WINE On Sunday morning July 18, 2021 at 11:10am police were dispatched to the Total Wine and More Store on Clarkson Rd concerning a theft that had just occurred.

A customer waiting for a curbside purchase observed a male and a woman leaving the store. She further observed the male take a bottle of wine out of his pants and place it in the backseat of a gray Chrysler and drive off. The witness wrote down the license plate number.

Store staff showed officers a security video of the male lifting up his shirt and putting the bottle in his pants then leaving the store. The male was wearing a white surgical mask. Store employees said the same man was in the store three days earlier causing a disturbance. In video of that incident the suspect was not wearing a mask.

An officer ran the license plate and then obtained the photo of the registered owner who was clearly the suspect, Maher Z. Jaouni of Florissant.

The car was registered to an address in St. Louis. Two officers went to that address to arrest Jaouni, but the suspect was not there. The woman with Jaouni had a Total Wine Customer Card used at purchase often for a discount. Officer Fenton obtained her name and called her. She agreed to have Jaouni turn himself in at the Chesterfield Police Station.

He did turn himself and refused to make a statement. He was issued a citation for Stealing and released.

GRAB AND DASH AT THE POLO SHOP GET FOUR THIEVES $2,551 WORTH OF CLOTHES. On Sunday September 26, 2021 at about 11:10 in the morning three women and one male entered the Polo Store at the Outlet Mall. When in two minutes they were gone along with 37 Polo fleeces valued at $2,551.

Security cameras recorded the theft but the Mall camera did not show what car they got into. The four went to a table where the $68.95 fleeces of varying sizes were grabbed and left the store with the suspects.

A copy of the video recording was taken to the police station where attempts were made to identify the suspects with a computer facial recognition website.

Photos of the suspects were placed on the department's facebook page. (photos later removed as it included a juvenile) This was the post:

We are attempting to identify the subjects in the attached photos.

On Sunday, 9/26 at 1110 am, these subjects entered the Polo store at 18521 Outlet Blvd. Each grabbed several pieces of clothing and immediately ran out without making any attempt to pay.

Then at 1132 am, the same subjects entered the Polo store at 17017 N Outer 40, grabbed several more items of clothing and ran out; again making no attempt to pay.

These subjects are also suspected in 2 other larcenies over the weekend.

Several callers identified the women as

Olivia S. Johnson 26

Tiffany L. Richardson 24

Charles J. Hester 19 the male

Olivia Johnson called the police station and admitted being one of the suspects but said she stole the items at gunpoint. She was told to turn herself in and make a statement. She said she wouldn't. She was then told the photos would be given to TV stations to use on their newscasts. It should be noted that Johnson and Richardson were on video earlier stealing at the Outlet Mall and the Polo Store.

Later a male who identified himself as Johnson's attorney called and agreed to have the women turn themselves in.

Johnson, Richardson and the juvenile turned themselves in two days later. No one made any statement about being force to steal at gunpoint. The male suspect was identified as Charles J. Hester 19, a regular thief in Chesterfield with Johnson and Richardson.

The County Prosecutor's Office refused to issue charges so charges were issued in City Court. The male suspect was charged but has yet appear in court.

DRIVER FOUR TIMES OVER THE LEGAL LIMIT ISN'T STOPPED BY POLICE WITH FLASHING LIGHTS BEHIND HIM UNTIL HE CRASHES. It was just after 4pm on Thursday December 2, 2021 when the calls were being dispatched to Chesterfield Police officers about a very drunk driver. The calls started in the THF shopping center on Chesterfield Airport Road and continued to Wildhorse Road and Wilson Road.

Officer Ashley Saffa found the Audi occupied by 50-year-old Robert Anthony Jenkins of Chesterfield behind the wheel of the running car on a parking lot on Clarkson Road.

Officer Saffa

Officer Saffa pulled her marked police car behind the Audi and walked up to the drivers' window only to have Jenkins drive off. He did not get very far.

He drove off the parking lot at slow speed with Officer Saffa and the flashing lights on her car trying to stop him. Jenkins then turned onto Wilson Road. After a short distance he turned left going the wrong way on Champion Drive on the wrong side of the median. He then drove up on the landscaped median before hitting a streetlight.

Saffa now contacted Jenkins who lived in the subdivision. He was clearly drunk. He agreed to do sobriety tests but those did not last very long. Jenkins started to fall over several times before the tests were stopped and he was arrested. Per Officer Saffa's report this was Jenkins condition at the time of the arrest.

His son came from the nearby house and picked up the Audi. At the Police Station Jenkins called his wife and then took a breath test.

At 5:27pm, almost 90 minutes after his contact with the police Jenkins took the breath test. The test showed Jenkins was 4-times over the legal limit at .323% BAC. 30 years ago police officers would expect to see this BAC level at 4am, not 4pm.

Per Chesterfield PD's policy of person testing over .30% Jenkins was taken to St. Lukes Hospital for a fit for commitment from a doctor.

Back at the station Jenkins was issued citations for DWI, Fail to Yield to an Emg Vehicle and Failure to Exercise the Highest Degree of Care While Driving.

OUTCOME: Jenkins did not have any prior charges or any since his arrest. On 05/10/22 Jenkins pled guilty to DWI and was placed on a 2-year SIS probation. One of the two moving violations was dismissed. The other was reduced to a Health Code Violation with a $500 fine. This means for being 4-times over the limit and crashing his car after failing to stop for the police Jenkins will have no points on his driving record. True Chesterfield justice for someone who hires a lawyer.
