

DRUNKS & THIEVES 2024 PART 3

May 7, 2024

DRUNK 57-YEAR-OLD FROM MINNESOTA CRASHES HIS RENTAL CAR ON I-64 TRYING TO GET BACK TO HIS HOTEL. Adam Johnson 57, from Belle Plaine, MN (south of Minneapolis) was in St. Louis on Thursday January 27, 2022 staying at a hotel in the Chesterfield Valley and driving a 2021 Ford Explorer rented from Hertz at the St. Louis Airport.

He had been drinking with friends in O'Fallon, MO leaving to return to his hotel around midnight. He was missing his exit and swerved trying to exit at Boone's Crossing, but drove off the road instead, hitting a MoDot sign.

Chesterfield Officers Shelby Trivette, Ashley Saffa and Kyle Tyndell were dispatched to the wreck and further advised a motorist had been reported by a number of callers driving a similar vehicle weaving just prior to the crash.

Tyndell

On arrival the driver, Johnson, was standing outside the vehicle. The Ford SUV was undrivable due to damage. It quickly became clear the Johnson was drunk. When asked when he stopped drinking, he said 30 minutes earlier or slightly before midnight. He would later change that to 10 o'clock or 2+ hours before the crash. This is from Officer Trivette's DWI report.

Johnson's balance was so poor that no field sobriety tests were given. He was arrested and the Hertz Ford was towed away.

At the scene he said he had four or five drinks. At the police station he claimed it was three Crown Royals. He agreed to take a Breath Test that showed his statement about how much he had to drink was more accurate at the crash scene as his BAC level was .214%.

After blowing a .214% BAC, in his interview he stated he did not consider himself intoxicated. He also thought the time was 10:30pm. It was 2am.

OUTCOME: On September 19, 2022 Johnson appeared in Chesterfield Court with a defense attorney from St. Charles. He pled guilty to DWI and was given a 2-year SIS (no fine, no points, no permanent record) probation term. He also pled guilty to Careless Driving regarding the crash and was fined $366.

ST. CHARLES MAN ARRESTED FOR STEALING $380 OF PLAYING CARDS AND $17 WORTH OF MENS' SHORTS PLUS A DESK LAMP: Playing cards are apparently a big item for thieves shoplifting in stores. On Friday August 12, 2022 at 3:55pm Chesterfield Police Officer Jason Bromwich of the Special Enforcement received a cell call from Walmart security that a shoplifting suspect was currently placing items in a box. The items included

YGO CARDS; SKU# 008371785652; $15.98; QUANTITY: 24
MS OPP FLOOR; SKU# 079891903779; $9.87
MENS SHORT; SKU# 071731216444; $16.92

The suspect went to the self-checkout and paid for two boxes of lamps. The third had the stolen cards, the shorts and a lamp. Officer Bromwich was waiting for him out the store and arrested Cameron D. Jackson 26 of St. Charles.

DRUNK DRIVER 3X OVER THE LIMIT THOUGHT SHE WAS IN ARNOLD AND CLAIMED TO HAVE LEFT CAPE GIRARDEAU. On Saturday August 27, 2022 at 8:12pm Chesterfield Police officer Sgt. John Bodi was at the stop light South Outer Forty and Timberlake Parkway. When his light turned green he saw the Honda Civic on Timberlake that wasn't going to stop for the red light. The driver of the Civic ended up stopping in the middle of the intersection. Officer Bodi Pulled behind the Civic and called for an assist car. Officer Greg Rupp responded and got stuck with the arrest and report.

Sgt. Bodi

Officer Rupp

When officers approached the car in the middle of the intersection the driver, Leslie Ann Job appeared to be asleep with her head down on her chest. After Sgt. Bodi knocked on the passenger window, Job lowered it and Sgt. Bodi reached in turning the engine off and taking the keys.

Job, from rural Scott City, stated that he had been with friends in Arnold and was going to her brothers in Wentzville inferring that his house was close by. Job claimed earlier that she had just left Cape Girardeau in far southern Missouri and now claimed she just left Arnold and thought she was still in Arnold.

Officer Rupp had Job get out of her car and walked to the shoulder. She almost fell twice having to balance herself against the car. Once officers got her safely to the shoulder, Sgt. Bodi drove her Civic out of the intersection to the shoulder. An open bottle of Captain Morgan’s Rum was found on the floor of the car by Sgt. Bodi.

Job was so intoxicated that officers stopped giving her field sobriety tests after she failed to understand the instructions and continued to lose her balance. She was arrested for DWI, Disobeying a Red Light and Open Bottle of Alcohol.

This is from Officer Rupp’s report:

OUTCOME: Job had no prior arrests or citations. She appeared in Chesterfield Court on February 7, 2023 with an attorney and pled guilty to DWI and the Open Container. She was placed on a 2-year SIS (no points, no fine, no permanent record) probation. She was fined $191 for running the red light.

TRIO FROM ST. LOUIS COME TO CHESTERFILED WALMART TO STEAL, BUT GOT CAUGHT: On Friday September 22, 2022 Wal Mart Security saw three females enter the store and then watched on video while two stole $48.89 worth of household cooking goods and $54.57 worth of food.

Officer James Dammrich, Officer Fenton and Officer Matthew Niemeier arrived to have a security officer point out a woman pushing a cart with two kids in it as a suspect. Officers Niemeier and Fenton contacted the woman and while talking to her the other two suspects exited the store. The three were taken into custody and escorted to the Walmart security office.

Suspect Tammy Bryant, W/F 47, admitted to the thefts, saying they were on hard times. Suspect Dennisha Ivy B/F 21 was clearly seen on Walmart security video stealing. When first contacted by store security Ivy and the third woman began swearing, giving the finger and threatening to punch security officers in the face.

DRUGGED DRIVER REAR ENDS A PICKUP IN SLOW LANE ON I-64 AT NOON TIME

On Tuesday October 25, 2022 about 12:40 in the afternoon Chesterfield police officers received a dispatch to be on the lookout for a gray Ford pickup truck weaving from lane to lane on eastbound I-64. Two minutes later officers were dispatched to a crash on I-64 involving a gray Ford Pickup truck. The Ford had rear-ended another pickup truck in the slow lane. The vehicles left the highway and were in the parking lot of Ruth Chris Steak House

Chesterfield officer Ashley Safa was assigned the call with two other officers to assist.

The driver of the Ford truck, Kaleb Patrick Jarnagin, 32, appeared to be under the influence of drugs. This is from Officer Safa's report

Jarnagin failed field sobriety tests, often losing his balance and at time “nodding off.” He gave officers permission to search the truck prior to it being towed.

Illegal narcotics were also found in the truck. This is from the report:

As I was speaking with the other party involved, PO Adams DSN 295 arrived to assist. During this time, PO Adams and PO Sosuh received consent to search Jarnagin's truck. During the search, a white crystalline substance, suspected to be methamphetamine, was located in the dash within a folded piece of paper. A black and purple capsule containing suspected heroin/fentanyl was also located on the driver seat. These items were seized and later placed into evidence.

Jarnagin denied using any drugs that day and prior to driving the truck. He agreed to give blood for a drug test. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital for the blood draw. The blood sample was sent to the Highway Patrol's lab. Results showed Fentanyl in Jarnagin's blood.

He pled guilty to DWI and was place on a 2-year SIS (no fine, no points and no permanent record) probation that required him to attend a substance abuse program. He also pled guilty to Careless and Impudent Driving with a $350 fine.

DRUNK DRIVER REFUSED TO MOVE OVER AND ALMOSST HIT OFFICER ON A TRAFFIC STOP ON I-64. Friday night had just turned in Saturday morning September 18, 2021. Town & Country Police Sgt. Freddie Yaakub was responding to assist an officer on a traffic stop on Westbound I-64 near Mason Road.

As he approached he watched traffic drive to the left away from the flashing lights of the police car on the stop, with one exception, A red Nissan Altima did not move over and weaved toward the shoulder almost hitting Officer Cook who was outside with the car he had stopped.

Sgt. Yaakub attempted to stop the Nissan that would not pull over until it exited I-64 at Timberlake Parkway and pulled up on a parking lot.

Sgt Yaakub

The driver, Sheriden M. Smith was clearly drunk with heavy BOB (booze on breath), slurred speech, bloodshot eyes and poor balance. This is from the police report:

Smith immediately said, "I know, I know...I noticed it too late."

Smith of Westboro Drive in Chesterfield said he was leaving his parents' house in Webster Groves. Smith refused to answer any question about how much he had to drink, refused to do field sobriety tests or take breath tests in the field or at the station.

He was arrested and taken to the police station where he was booked for DWI and Fail to Yield to an Emergency Vehicle.

OUTCOME: On June 22, 2023 Smith with a defense attorney came to the Town and Country Municipal Court. Smith Pled Guilty to DWI and was placed on a 2-year SIS (no-points, no-fine, no permanent record) probation. The Failure to Yield to Emergency Vehicle was reduced from a traffic violation to Littering (something Smith did not do) and he was fined $316. Another example of the Muni Court looking after the safety of police officers. A drunk driver who almost hit a police officer and then refused to cooperate left court with no-points on his drivers' license and no permanent record of committing any traffic violation.

CREDIT CARDS STOLEN IN ST. PETERS AND USED IN TOWN & COUNTRY. On Tuesday February 2, 2021 just before 1pm, Town & Country Officer Gowen responded to the Police Station and contacted a woman who reported her credit cards were stolen at a fitness gym in St. Peters on January 29, 2021. She continued that her Home Depot card had already been used for $1,035.74 at the Town & Country Home Depot when she called to cancel the card. The card was in the name of her business Distinct Home Solutions.

Officer Gowen went to Home Depot and had the video of the card being used sent to the police station. The case was then turned over to Detective Katie Exline.

Det. Exline

Using the video of the transaction Det. Exline was able to identify one of the two people checking out at Home Depot as Nicole Marie Spurr, a person with a lengthy arrest record.

Maryland Heights Police Detective Ryan Devouton contacted Det. Exline and stated from the video she supplied to a police website he was able to identify one of the suspects as Nicole Marie Spurr, 37.

On April 3, 2021 Spurr was arrested by the Maryland Heights PD and Det. Exline interviewed her at the Maryland Heights PD where she admitted stealing the credit cards but denied it was her using the Home Depot card two hours after the theft. However, she would later plead guilty to Fraudulent Use of the credit card on 11/30/22. She was sentenced to SES Probation in lieu of 4-years in prison.

OVER TWICE THE LEGAL LIMIT FOR MARYLAND HEIGHTS WOMAN: It was Friday night into Saturday July 9, 2022 at 3:26am. Town and Country Police Cpl. Steve Doll was north on I-270 when he noticed a white Honda Pilot in front him speeding doing between 70-75 mph. He also noticed the vehicle was continually weaving between lanes. He attempted to pull over the driver just north of I-64, but she didn't stop until I-270 at Olive at the north city limits of Creve Couer.

Cpl. Doll contacted the driver Cheryl Denise Steele, 36, of Maryland Heights. Steele stated that she was speeding because her boyfriend in the right front seat needed to go to the bathroom. This caused Cpl. Doll to ask what that had to do with her weaving. She could not provide an answer.

Cpl. Doll noticed that Steele had BOB (booze on breath) and other clues that she was drunk.

OUTCOME: Steele had no prior arrests or traffic summonses. On March 2, 2023 Steele came to Town and Country Court with a lawyer from Clayton. She pled guilty to DWI and was placed on a SIS (no points, no-fine, no-permanent record)2-year probation term. The lane weaving charge was reduced to something she didn't do, illegally park. She was fined $191 and walked out of the court room with no points on her driving record despite being double the alcohol legal limit. Town and Country justice for drunk drivers double the limit.

SPEEDING, LANE WEAVING CAR IS STOPPED ON HWY 141 AND ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL. AT 9:21 at night the clearly drunk driver stated he was a medical equipment sales rep and was picking up a tray to St. Joseph's Hospital. That would later change to St. Mary's.

Originally Town and Country Officer Josh Hamel while westbound on I-64 clocked a black Chevy Malibu doing 89 mph in a 60 zone and weaving from lane to lane at 9:21pm on Saturday February 18, 2023. The driver exited I-64 and went north on Hwy 141.

The driver, Trystan Steves, 25, produced an Illinois Drivers' License showing a home address in Tuscola, Illinois in the center of Illinois in Douglas County. In the passenger seat was a female. Stevens was wearing a green wrist band from "Molly's" pub. There was a partially filled Vodka bottle on the rear floor.

He took field sobriety tests that he failed. He denied having anything to drink. He continued to deny having anything to drink after his arrest. He refused to take a breath test, which would of course prove he had nothing to drink. By refusing he basically proved he was lying.

OUTCOME: Despite five prior moving violations reduced to non-moving violations with no points the Town and Country Court was not about to actually do something about a dangerous driver and public safety. On 10/27/23 Stevens showed up in Town and Country Court with defense attorney Travis Noble who advertises wo he will get you off DWI.

Clearly city prosecutor Keith Cheung and Judge Andrea Niehoff are afraid of Noble or simply hold defense attorneys getting their client off by paying large fines for non-moving violation more important than convicting defendants of dangerous offenses they actually committed.

Stevens pled guilty to DWI despite lying and claiming he had nothing to drink and then refusing to take breath tests. He was placed on a SIS (no-point, no-fine, no permanent record) probation. Next Cheung reduced the speeding charge to a no-points Parking Violation with a $191 fine. The weaving charge was also magically turned into a Parking Violation with a $191 fine. NO TAILLIGHTS AT 3 IN THE MORNING LEADS TO DWI ARREST: Taylor Stewart’s Nissan SUV turned her in for DWI. At 3:17 in the morning on Saturday morning June 11, 2022, Town and Country Police Cpl. Dan Duddleston was pulling over a 2019 Nissan SUV as it was leaving Ballas to go east on I-64 for No Taillights.

The vehicle stopped on I-64 and Cpl. Duddleston contacted the driver Taylor Elizabeth Stewart, 22 of St. Louis, who clearly had been drinking and appeared to be drunk. Stewart denied having anything to drink despite having BOB (booze on breath), bloodshot eyes, slurred speech, no balance and having urinated on herself. This is from the police report:

She agreed to be interviewed and confessed lying about not drinking. She said she was in Soulard at Molly's and then at McGurk's and had "three drinks." She also stated that she knew she was intoxicated. She was issued citation for DWI and the Taillight violation.

91MPH ON I-270 WHILE DRUNK AND APPROACHING A MARK POLICE CAR
NEVER A GOOD IDEA

At the beginning of Sunday at 12:15am on December 11, 2022 Rory Stone, 40, of Warson Woods was screaming south on I-270 at 91 mph in a 60 zone in his new Audi unaware that he was approaching a marked police car.

In the police car was Sgt. Freddie Yaakub who was well aware that a vehicle at high speed was about to pass him. He turned on the rear moving radar and clocked the car at 91 MPH. When Stone realized he was passing a marked police car he dramatically slowed down but it was too late.

Sgt. Yaakub for safety reasons spoke to Stone through the passenger window and could smell a heavy dose of BOB (booze on breath) from Stone. He asked Stone how much he had to drink and Stone denied having anything to drink. Sgt. Yaakub then told Stone he could easily prove that by taking a field breath test. Stone refused. Stone then said he was coming from his parents' house in Clayton

Sgt. Yaakub got Stone out of the car to do vision tests, such as following his finger. Stone said he could not do the test as his vision becomes distorted in the presence of bright lights, which begs the question "what is he doing driving a car at night?"

Stone was arrested for DWI and Speeding. At the police station Stone refused to take an "official" breath test or be interviewed.

OUTCOME: Prior to these cases Stone already got moving violations reduced to parking or loud muffler violations with no-points and a dangerous driver's insurance rates stay low. In this case once again the Town and Country prosecutor and judge put public safety last and defense lawyers' bills first.

On August 3, 2023 Stone and a defense lawyer were in T&C Court. Stone pled guilty to DWI and received a 2-year SIS (no-points, no-fine, no-permanent record) Probation term. His 91 MPH in a 60 Zone was reduced to a $191 Parking Violation. How is this fair to the public in general and how is it fair to people who mail in the fine for a speeding ticket, for someone doing 91 mph to get off with no points?

In the Stone case a Drunk Driver doing 91 mph who refused to take breath tests or field sobriety tests and who made a claim indicating he should not be driving at night walked out of the courtroom with no-points
