

DRUNKS AND THIEVES 2020 PART 4 July 4, 2020

By John Hoffmann

VERY DRUNK ILLEGAL ALIEN WITH NO DRIVERS' LICENSE PEES IN HIS PANTS AFTER OFFICER TOLD HIM NOT TO URINATE ON I-270. On Saturday night into Sunday morning at 3:11am on December 30, 2018, 33-year-old Jorge Mendez Hernandez, an undocumented alien living in Berkley, Missouri was enjoying all the lanes of I-64 as he swerved his way to the north I-270 entrance ramp, where he began to explore the right shoulder.

Behind Hernandez's 2004 Pontiac Gran Prix was Town and Country Officer Cpl. Jordan Fowle. When the Pontiac left the road to visit the shoulder, Cpl. Fowle hit the overhead lights and siren, but the driver did not stop. He continued north into Creve Coeur swerving from lane to lane before stopping.

Cpl. Jordan Fowle

There Cpl. Fowle contacted the driver, Jorge Hernandez, who appeared to be drunk. He had the usual strong smell of booze on his breath, bloodshot, watery and glassy eyes, confused mumbling speech and once outside the car he had trouble standing. At the time of the stop Hernandez handed Cpl. Fowle a Mexican Drivers' License despite living in Berkley, MO and driving a car with Missouri License plates.

Hernandez failed several field sobriety despite claiming he had just "one beer." After flunking the tests he unzipped his pants and began to remove his penis saying he had to take a piss. Cpl. Fowle told him to hold it as they would be at the police station soon where he could use the restroom. Hernandez could not hold and then peed in his pants.

A field breath test showed Hernandez Mendez's BAC level to be .194%. It would be later determined that his BAC was going up and not down.

At the police station Hernandez said he had one beer at 7pm. He must have guzzled it because he claimed that he quit drinking at 7pm. Also at the police he agreed to take an official breath test. That showed his BAC level was on the rise, as he tested at .198%.

Hernandez admitted being an undocumented illegal alien. Cpl. Fowle called a 24-hour number for the INS and spoke with an INS agent who declined to have Town and Country PD hold Hernandez, who was released later that morning on citations to a sober driver.

OUTCOME: On July 12, 2019 INS still had not picked up Hernandez and deported him. He appeared in Town and Country Municipal Court and pled Guilty to DWI. He was given a two-year SES probation instead of any jail. He was fined $652 dollars. He also pled guilty to No Operator's License and was fined $225. For No Insurance he was fined $342.

CHESTERFIELD RESIDENT DOING 86mph ON I-270, SMOKING A JOINT WHEN POLICE PULL HIM OVER: It was another Saturday night into Sunday morning on November 25, 2018 at 2AM. Town and Country Police Officer Scott Schlager was on I-270. So was Matthew Ryan Kelly, 31, of Callender Court in Chesterfield, MO driving a 2013 black like the night Optima Kia.

Kelly was likely to get most police officer's attention because he was doing 86 MPH in a 60 MPH zone. He was sure to get Officer Schlager's attention at 2AM on a weekend morning. That was because over 20-years with the Town and Country Police Schlager had made over 1,000 DWI arrests.

Officer Scott Schlager (now retired after a disability on job injury)

Kelly exited I-270 at Manchester Road and was going west. Officer Schlager was using his red lights and siren to pull Kelly over at which time he observed Kelly toss a white cigarette or marijuana joint out the window.

Kelly stopped just past Topping Road. When Officer Schlager contacted Kelly he asked what he had thrown out the window. Kelly denied throwing anything out the window at which time Officer Schlager told him it was recorded on his police car's dash-cam. Kelly then admitted it had been a joint. Schlager already knew that because he could smell the recently burning marijuana from inside the car.

Officer Schlager preformed field sobriety tests and did one traditional one a little different. Normally an officer has the drunk driver do an alphabet test starting with letters in the middle of the alphabet and stopping before "Z." This required a little more concentration that most drunk drivers don't have.

But Officer Schlager simply asked Kelly to do his ABCs starting with A and ending with Z. Here is what Kelly said:

OTHER: (ANY OTHER TEST[S] GIVEN NOT LISTED ABOVE) e.g., ALPHABET, COUNTING, NUMBERS, FINGER TOE
ALPHABET A-Z DRIVER SAID A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, H, I, J, & K

Kelly said he had 4 glasses of wine between 11pm and 1AM. He agreed to take a field breath test that showed his BAC level to be at .15% or almost twice the legal limit.

Kelly was arrested and at the police station he took an official breath test that showed his BAC was dropping, but that he was still drunk. He tested at .134%.

After flunking both breath tests Kelly said he did not consider himself drunk. Take a look below. What do you think?

OUTCOME: On March 7, 2019 Kelly appeared in Town and Country Court and pled guilty to Speeding and DWI. He was fined $350 for Speeding. He was placed on a 2-year SIS No-Fine, No-Points probation for DWI.

2:00AM DRUNK DRIVER DRIVES UP ON CONCRETE LANE DIVIDER AND TAKES

OUT TRAFFIC SIGN: It was Saturday night into a Sunday morning on November 11, 2018 at 2:12AM when Town and Country Police Sgt. Chris Moose and Officer Dan Duddleston were dispatched to the report of a one-vehicle crash on NB Hwy 141 just north of I-64.

Sgt. Moore

Officer Duddleston

On arrival this is what they found:

They found the driver of the car, 61-year-old Luis Zambrana of Murrieta, California (a town of 103,000 in Riverside County California), standing outside of the car, a 2019 Chevrolet Equinox.

Zambrana appeared to be drunk. He had a strong smell of booze on his breath, bloodshot eyes, slurred speech and unsure balance. He said he was tired and fell asleep.

He agreed to take a field breath test that show a BAC level of 0.131%. He also failed several field sobriety tests, including reciting the alphabet beginning with "C" and ending with "U." Zambrana started with C and ended with U, but left out the always popular "R,S & T."

He was arrested. At the police station he agreed to take an official breath test. That test showed he was still drunk but the level was going down. He tested at 0.121%.

Luis Zambrana

Zambrana's eyes

Zambrana, recently a Ballwin resident, stated he had two glasses of wine earlier in the evening at Alibi 25, a sports bar on Clayton Road in Ellisville. In something that you don't hear from drunk drivers, despite saying he had just two glasses of wine (at a Sports Bar) Zambrana admitted that he thought was intoxicated.

He was cited for Improper Lane Use (from the crash) and DWI.

OUTCOME: On 06/20/2019 Zambrana appeared in Town and Country Municipal Court. The Improper Lane Use charge was reduced by the Town and Country prosecutor to Illegal Parking with a $225 fine. He pled guilty to DWI and was given a No-Points, No-Fine SIS probation term by Judge Andrea Niehoff. He left court with no points and nothing on his record that said he was a drunk driver who crashed into a wall.

WOMAN FOUND IN DISABLED CAR ON CHURCH LOT AFTER CRASHING ON I-64 IN POSSESSION OF FENTANYL AND HEROIN. On Tuesday August 14, 2018 Town and Country Officers Dan Duddlestone and Lauren Becker (now Lauren Wolfe) were dispatched to check on the welfare of a woman in a disabled car on the parking lot of the West County Assembly of God church on the North Outer Forty Road.

On arrival they found Kristina Krone, 35, of Foristell, MO sitting in a 2001 Acura MDX that was disabled from damage to the left front side and a flat left front tire.

Officer Duddlestone's report states that Krone's eyes were bloodshot and constricted and her balance was unsure. She was wearing a tank top and pajama bottoms.

Krone said she sneezed three times on I-64, lost control of her car and hit a median.

While Officer Becker spoke with her Officer Duddlestone looked into the car and saw several capsules with a white powder that he associated with heroin or fentanyl or a mix of both.

Krone took a field breath test that show NO presence of alcohol. When asked if the capsules with white powder contained heroin, Krone said no, they were for her Lyme Disease. Officer Duddlestone felt the capsules had illegal drugs. Krone told him not to search her car. She was going to be arrested and due to incident to the arrest and an inventory prior to towing, plus plain view evidence Duddlestone searched the car and found a total of 11 capsules with the white powder.

At the police station and after being advised of her rights per the Miranda Ruling Krone admitted the capsules contained either heroin or fentanyl. Later tests at the St. Louis County Police Crime revealed the capsules contained both.

Krone was charged with DWI in State Court and Felony Possession of Controlled Substance.

OUTCOME: On 08/09/19 Krone appeared in St. Louis County Associate Circuit Court. The drug charges were issued when Bob McCullough was prosecutor in 2018. They were dismissed with Wesley Bell as prosecutor in 2019. Krone pled guilty to the misdemeanor DWID charge and was placed on a 2-year No-Points, No-Fine probation.

TWO WOMEN PUT SHOES, BOOTS AND JEANS IN SHOULDER BAGS THEN WALKED OUT OF TOWN & COUNTRY TARGET INTO THE ARMS OF THE LOSS PREVENTION MANAGER. Hannah Wisnewski (then 22) of Chesterfield and her companion, Catherine Anne Kleiss (22) of Kirkwood arrived at the Town and Country Target store around 5:30 on September 20, 2017 and began stealing while appearing to shop. They each had large shoulder bags.

Wisnewski stole a pair of blue jeans ($29.99) and a pair of high heels ($37.99) while Kleiss took a pair of black boots ($44.99). After getting their loot they headed to the store's exit going past all the checkout aisles.

Waiting for them outside the store was the store's loss prevention manager Tiffany Graham who had been watching the thefts on video.

Kleiss gave up but Wisnewski tried to flee, but Graham grabbed her bag, the strap broke with the loot falling to the ground. Kleiss and Graham convinced Wisnewski to stop running and both women went with Graham back to the loss prevention office to wait for the arrival of Town and Country Police Officer Pflueger.

Wisnewski

Kleiss

I have always been a big believer in booking and taking mug shots of shoplifters because they have a tendency to try it again. This did not happen to Wisnewski or Kleiss. They had no prior records. They were issued citations at the store and were released.

The only problem with this is the department is not booking local whites, but if the suspects had been from North St. Louis or North County even without a prior record I have a feeling they would have been booked with mug shots.

OUTCOME: In 2018 Kleiss had her stealing charge reduced to a non-criminal charge of Littering and she paid a $200 fine.

On June 7, 2018 Wisnewski appeared in Town and Country Municipal Court and pled guilty to stealing. She was given a NO-FINE, NO-Permanent Record SIS probation.

TWO SUSPECTS CREATED A DIVERSION TO STEAL $2,300 WORTH OF I-PHONES FROM THE TOWN AND COUNTRY We reported on this event when it occurred, but now we have the whole story, even without getting the police report. A liberal St. Louis County Judge (Michael Burton) entered defendant Rami Abdel-aal into a special court diversion program on multiple felony charges which Abdel-aal has constantly failed to show up for, but still leaving him without a conviction. Without a conviction on both suspects you cannot get a copy of the police report under the Sunshine Law.

So we obtained the court documents that tell the story.

Patterson

Abdelaal

I, Chris Hunt, DSN 0073, Town and Country Police Department, knowing that false statements on this form are punishable by law, state that the facts contained herein are true. I have probable cause to believe that on June 4, 2018, at 1030 Schnucks Woods Mill Plaza, Rami Abdel-Aal, White, Male, DOB 10/08/1989, 5'09", 170lbs, committed one or more criminal offense(s).

Count: 01 STEALING - $750 OR MORE - CLASS D FELONY

The facts supporting this belief are as follows: At the AT&T store in Town and Country, defendant Patterson spoke with an employee and said he wanted to buy two Apple iPhone X mobile phones (valued at $1,149.99 apiece). At some point while the employee was going through the process of activating the phones, defendant Abdel-Aal entered the store. When the store employee went to a back office to take a phone call, defendant Abdel-Aal took the phones and left the store. Defendant Patterson left the store shortly thereafter. Defendant Patterson turned himself in to Town and Country police and confessed to acting with defendant Abdel-Aal to steal the phones. He said defendant Abdel-Aal had driven him to the store, and that after the two of them reunited following the theft, defendant Abdel-Aal gave him $400 for assisting in the theft. Video surveillance of the theft was shared with local media and defendant Abdel-Aal's sister contacted Town and Country police, saying she had seen the video on television and recognized her brother. Defendant Abdel-Aal was arrested and interviewed. He denied being at the AT&T store on the day of the theft, claiming he was working at the time. Police contacted the company for which defendant Abdel-Aal said he had been working; the company told police defendant had not worked for them since approximately two weeks prior to the theft.

Judge Burton is amazing. He had a defendant with six felony charges over 20 months and you send him to an offenders' school designed for first time offenders. If you see Judge Michael Burton's name on a retention ballot, you might think about voting "No."

DRUNK DRIVER REAR ENDS VEHICLE DURING EVENING RUSH HOUR ON I-270 CAUSING AN INJURY ACCIDENT: On Friday 12/21/18 Michael Hogan, 47, of South St. Louis County was driving his employer's 2014 Chevrolet pickup truck south on I-270 south of Clayton Road. Traffic as it does in every weekday afternoon rush hour began to slow and Hogan failed to slow down and rear ended a 2014 Subaru Outback that had slowed in front of him.

Town and Country Police Officer Steven Doll was dispatched to the scene at 4:37pm.

The driver of the Subaru, Steven Botwinski of Cape Girardeau, MO stated that after the accident both drivers pulled to the right shoulder and he contacted Hogan who was clearly drunk.

Botwinski's wife, Hope, complained of back pain resulting from the crash, but declined immediate medical attention.

Officer Doll had a similar opinion as Botwinski concerning Hogan's sobriety. Officer Doll asked Hogan if he had anything to drink and Hogan replied, "No, Sir."

Officer Doll was then quick to point out to Hogan that he smell booze on him and from inside the car. Hogan then stated that he had been at a company (KCI Construction) Christmas Party and then his "been drinking?" answer changed from "no" to "six or eight beers."

Officer Doll asked what time he started drinking and Hogan said around 2 o'clock. This is the general condition Officer Doll found Hogan in according to the police report.

Hogan complained of an aching back that he had for several days that made it difficult to do field sobriety tests. He agreed to take them anyway and failed. He then took a field breath test that showed his BAC level to be .171%. He was arrested and taken to the police station. His truck was not drivable and the owner KCI Construction had it towed.

At the police station he called his boss, his wife and a co-worker for advice if he should take an official breath test. After talking to them he declined to take the test.

This is the second time Hogan has been arrested for DWI and refused to take the official breath test. In 2005 he was arrested and his drivers' license was suspended for failing to take the breath test. The probation term for his 2005 DWI conviction expired and that arrest is no longer a public record, but his appeal of his breath test record still is.

Despite his statement that he had eight beers in two hours at a Christmas Party and then testing .171 (double the limit) on a field breath test, in an interview at the police station a short time later Hogan claimed he was not intoxicated.

Take a look at the photos below. Does this guy look drunk to you?

Michael C. Hogan

Hogan's eyes

OUTCOME: On April 18, 2019 Hogan appeared in Town and Country Municipal Court. He pled guilty to DWI. Despite being in and causing an injury crash on I-270, refusing to take a breath test, having a prior DWI with a prior breath test refusal it was the usual for Judge Andrea Niehoff. Since Hogan hired a lawyer, he got a NO-Points, NO-Fine SIS probation term for DWI. To hell with the safety of the public! Despite the other driver being from out of town, Officer Doll observed Hogan behind the wheel of the pickup truck on his arrival at the crash site. Hogan did plead guilty to Following Too Closely and was fined $225.

TOWN AND COUNTRY OFFICER STOPS DRIVER OF CAR WITH NO FRONT LICENSE PLATE (ALMOST UNHEARD OF IN T&C). THE CAR IS STOLEN, WOMAN DRUG ADDICT CALLS BOYFRIEND WHO MAKES FALSE 9-1-1 CALLS CLAIMING THERE IS A SHOOTING IN TOWN AND COUNTRY. THE PLOY DIDN'T WORK.

The unofficial motto of the Town and Country Police is "Protect and Serve and Don't Stop Expensive Cars with no Front License Plates Driven by Rich Residents."

On Wednesday night/Thursday morning June 14, 2018 an officer used “No Front Plate” as his probable cause in stopping a car that was later found to be taken in a carjacking in University City a month earlier.

Town and Country Sgt. Chris Moore was WB on I-64 when he noticed a black Toyota speeding in the passing lane. At 2AM on a weeknight, the Toyota didn't have anything to pass.

Sgt. Moore got behind the Toyota only to have the driver change lanes and hit the brakes and then pulled to the shoulder. Moore was forced to drive past the Toyota. However patience is a quality to have in police work. Moore drove over the crest in the road after Mason Road at normal speed like he was leaving the area. He then pulled onto the shoulder and waited.

After a few minutes the driver of the Toyota thought the coast was clear, pulled back onto I-64 and shortly passed Sgt. Moore who started to follow again. The female driver of the Toyota exited I-64 at the Maryville Exit, went across the overpass and was in the left turn lane as if to reenter the highway and go east. At the last minute the driver turned right from the left turn lane and headed toward the Westminster Christian Academy high school.

Sgt. Moore stopped the Toyota and contacted the driver, Tiffany Marie Kanzler, 25, of South St. Louis. The one license plate on the car checked not to a Toyota but to a 2014 Chevrolet Tahoe, apparently owned by Kanzler's boyfriend's mother.

Kanzler did not have a driver's license but handed Sgt. Moore a Missouri ID Card. She told him that she knew she had traffic warrants outstanding but that she was 4-months pregnant and was taking Methadone for drug addiction.

While Sgt. Moore was checking her paperwork and running checks on Kanzler the 9-1-1 dispatcher radio'ed and said they had a report from a female of a Black/Male who just exited a red Jeep with a handgun and was approaching another motorist on Maryville Center Drive north of I-64.

Sgt. Moore was immediately suspicious of this call. The dispatch center then received another call transferred by the Hazelwood PD dispatch center. The caller was a male who stated he was talking to a friend who reported that someone was shooting at car on Maryville Center Drive.

Sgt. Moore had the dispatch center triangulate the first 9-1-1 to determine the location of the cell phone being used according to telephone towers. This check located the call coming from where Sgt. Moore had Kanzler pulled over.

Tiffany Kanzler

Kanzler's boyfriend Aaron Walker

Sgt. Moore went back to Kanzler and accused her of making the 9-1-1 call. She denied it but said her boyfriend Aaron Walker did in an attempt to direct the police away from her so she could escape.

Moore arrested Kanzler for Driving While Suspended. The car's VIN was checked for ownership before it was towed and it was searched prior to being towed.

The VIN check showed the car was stolen, taken from a woman in University City at gun point in carjacking on May 16, 2018 at 11:15pm.

A check of the car found a syringe with white powder in it that police believed to be heroin in the center console of the Toyota. Kanzler stated that she did not know anything about the syringe, but when officers said it had heroin in it, Kanzler corrected them saying it was meth.

A further search of the car found many more syringes in the glove box, hidden under clothes lying on the backseat and on the floor. Officers also found semi-automatic handgun ammo, a semi-auto handgun box, but no guns.

A backpack had a spoon with drug residue on it, a small blowtorch, more syringes and more rounds of ammo. A satchel was found with 46 more pills in it. Then there were the checks.

Officers found numerous checks signed by Roselyn Walker made out to Aaron Walker and Tiffany Kanzler for over $23,000 on various credit union accounts.

One check for $1,270 had the "pay to" name whited out with "Tiffany Kanzler" written over the white out.

At the police station officers found a small amount of more drugs in Kanzler's purse.

After being advised of her rights she agreed to make a written statement. The statement is described in the police report:

Kanzler said she wished to provide a written statement which relates the following: Kanzler advised she obtained the vehicle on Monday 06/11/2018 from a Joseph MacDonald while she was visiting his house. Kanzler said she needed a car and was informed by MacDonald that she could use the car outside on weekdays. Kanzler said MacDonald said the temporary tag on the vehicle was expired and told her the car was not stolen. Kanzler said she would use a license plate that belonged to the mother of her boyfriend who she later identified as Roselyn Walker. Kanzler said the satchel in the vehicle was hers and the backpack was her boyfriend's. Kanzler said she placed the first call to 911 and reported a flourishing to see if we would leave the area without arresting her. Kanzler said she called her boyfriend, Aaron Walker, when the first 911 call failed to benefit her. Kanzler said her boyfriend called 911 and reported the shooting. Kanzler said she believed the vehicle could possibly be stolen after learning several days ago that Joseph MacDonald was involved in a two state pursuit in a stolen dump truck on May 31st, 2018.

Kanzler's written statement was seized and submitted as evidence. A copy is attached to this report.

At the time of her arrest Kanzler was booked for the following:

- 1- Tampering 1st Degree - State Felony
- 2- Possession of Narcotics (Heroin) - State Felony
- 3- Possession of Drug Paraphernalia - Municipal Ordinance

One of the passengers in the vehicle was the owner Devin Arciszewski of Chesterfield, who said he had let his friend, Evan Willenbrink, 23, of St. Louis drive his car. Arciszewski said that Willenbrink had been drinking.

Officer McNutt and Cpl. Freddy Yaakub (now sgt) began looking for Willenbrink, when Officer McNutt saw a Lyft ride sharing car in the area. McNutt and Cpl. Yaabuk followed the Lyft vehicle into Chesterfield and then stopped it near the Highcroft School.

There the passenger was indentified as Evan Willenbrink. The driver picked him up at on South Woods Mill on the parking lot of the Centene Building at 400 S. Woods Mill Road.

Willenbrink was arrested for Leaving the Scene of an Accident and Driving too Fast for Conditions. Willenbrink took a breath test that showed his blood alcohol content was at 0.074% just under the intoxication level of 0.08%.

Willenbrink gave the following written statement that included his reason for running was that he was applying for police officer jobs and was afraid of a DWI arrest.

"I, Evan willenbrink, was drinking at my friends Devin Arciszewski's house on the date of 12/18/18. I got at his house around 23:00 after I got off work. We drank a few mixed drinks while playing a few games. About 2 hours later we decided to get food. Devin let me drive his car. When we were about halfway to the fast food place, Nick, Devins brother, and Devin both said to take the turn really fast and try to burn rubber. I did it knowing I didn't know how and ended up in a crash, hitting the side rail. Knowing I was trying to get a job as a Police Officer or corrections officer and drinking, I fled the scene because I was afraid of what was going to happen. I called a lyft to pick me up and take me back to devins and that was when I got Pulled over by sergeant McNutt at Highcroft.

OUTCOME: On April 10, 2019 after hiring a Clayton Lawyer Willenbrink appeared in Town and Country Municipal Court. The prosecutor Ed Sluys reduced the Leaving the Scene of an Accident to Improper Lane Use. Willenbrink pled guilty to that and Too Fast For Conditions. He was fined $225 on each charge.

Willenbrink is now a Police Officer with the Normandy Police Department.

ANOTHER DRUNK DRIVER LEAVES CHESTERFIELD COURT WITH NO POINTS ON HIS LICENSE. IT IS ALSO ANOTHER CASE OF A DRUNK DRIVER CLAIMING HE HAD NOTHING TO DRINK AND THEN REFUSING TO TAKE A BREATH TEST

On Friday night-Saturday morning September 7, 2019 at about 1:57am Chesterfield Police Officer Brendan Steber was driving on Chesterfield Airport Road when he saw a black Nissan Altima going west at a high rate of speed. He turned on his in-car radar and clocked the car at 60MPH in the 45 MPH zone. He stopped the car at Long Road.

Officer Steber

He contacted the driver Fernando Alvarez, 38, of Cottleville, MO (St. Charles Co) who produced an Illinois driver's license.

Officer Steber could smell booze in the car on the breath of Alvarez plus other clues. This is from his report:

Upon contacting Alvarez at the front passenger window of his vehicle, I detected a moderate odor of an alcoholic beverage(s) emitting from the vehicle. Upon speaking with Alvarez, I observed his eyes to be watery and bloodshot. I asked Alvarez if he had recently consumed any alcoholic beverages, he stated he had not.

Officer Steber conducted field sobriety tests of Alvarez which he failed. He was then arrested for DWI.

At the police station in an interview Alvarez continued to deny having been drinking, but then refused to prove it by refusing to take a breath test.

Fernando Alvarez, does this guy look like he has been drinking? Alvarez's eyes!

09/07/19	DWI, Speeding (see outcome for disposition)	Chesterfield PD
03/06/17	Moving Violation reduced to Illegal Parking $167	MO Hwy Patrol
05/16/13	Moving Violation reduced to Illegal Parking $200	St. Louis Co PD
06/29/12	Unreg Vehicle Guilty fine	MO Hwy Patrol

OUTCOME: With his prior two moving violations Alvarez hired David Diamond a "Traffic Law" shop attorney and got the moving violations reduced to Illegal Parking.

For the DWI case he hired Bob Ciuffa, a former County assistant prosecutor in the 1970s who has also sat on the bench in some municipal courts. Despite being drunk, lying to the police about not drinking and refusing to take a breath test plus speeding 15 MPH over the limit, when Chesterfield Judge Rick Brunk and prosecutor Tim Engelmeyer were done, on January 28, 2020 Alvarez walked out of the Chesterfield Municipal Court room with no points on his record and no DWI conviction.

The speeding charge was reduced to Illegal Parking with no points, but a hefty $191 fine. He pled guilty to DWI, but was given a SIS No-Points, No-Fine probation. He does have to attend a Drunk Driving class. However his insurance rates will not go up and good drivers will be underwriting his bad and risky driving. He now has had three moving violations reduced to Parking tickets and a DWI that did not go on his driving record. Once again Brunk and Engelmeyer put the profits of defense attorneys above the safety of the public.
