

DRUNKS AND THIEVES 2021 PART 5

July 6, 2021

By John Hoffmann

A REPEAT THEIF! 55-YEAR-OLD WOMAN FROM NORTH ST. LOUIS SHOPLIFTING MENS CLOTHES AT TOMMY HILFIGER. She put some of the loot in a bag from the "True Religion" store. Can you say AMEN?

Outlet Mall Security was onto a shoplifter from Tommy Hilfiger. On Friday August 16, 2019 at about 4pm Janeane Walls, 55, from North St. Louis was at the Tommy Hilfiger store at the Chesterfield Premium Outlet Mall. She was seen taking merchandise to a dressing room where she removed the security sensors and put seven pieces of men's clothing into a "True Religion" shopping bag and her purse.

Security agents called Chesterfield Police Special Enforcement Officer Matt Pousson directly and he and Officer David Krumm responded.

Upon arriving at the Outlet Mall the suspect was already on the parking lot with mall security following her. She was stopped by the officers and identified as Janeane F. Walls of North St. Louis. At first she denied stealing anything. Officer Krumm went to the store and view security video and saw her stealing items.

When confronted with this Walls admitted stealing "three or four items" and buying the rest but had no receipt and was not seen on video making any purchases. These are the seven items recovered from her purse and True Religion shopping bag valued at $308.93.

1. Men's shirt, sku 638950888609, $38.99
2. Men's shirt, sku 638950888500, $38.99
3. Men's shirt, sku 046863687774, $41.99

6. Men's pants, sku 638950781894, $48.99
7. Men's pants, sku 638950781870, $48.99

Total $308.93

Officer Matt Pousson, one of the few remaining original cops on the Chesterfield force. This is Officer Pousson receiving a 30-year service award in 2019. The Chesterfield PD started in 1989 shortly after the city was incorporated.

Oddly Walls was not booked but released on a citation at the scene. Due to the pandemic this was occurring more and more but at the time she was issued a citation she could have been arrested for Felony Stealing as she is an ex-con with numerous stealing convictions.

OUTCOME: Just two months after her arrest, she appeared in Chesterfield Municipal Court on 10/15/19 and Pled Guilty to Stealing. Chesterfield Judge Rick Brunk ignored the fact she had 15 stealing convictions, eight prison sentences and six jail sentences and fined her $500. In 2021 she has not paid the fine.

The return of Janeana Walls: However, she did return to the Premium Outlet Mall on January 7, 2021 when she was arrested for stealing from the Ugg store. This time felony stealing charges were filed against her.

DRUNK DRIVER WITH VOMIT ON HER BLOUSE DOESN'T REMEMBER MUCH INCLUDING ALMOST HITTING A POLICE CAR HEAD-ON AND STOPPING AT A GREEN TRAFFIC LIGHT: Chesterfield Police Officer Devin Holroyd was driving west on Chesterfield Airport Road at RHL Drive when a 2017 Ford Explorer made a very wide right turn to go east, crossing the center line and being briefly in Officer Holroyd's Lane. It was Saturday night November 16, 2019 at almost 12-midnight.

Officer Holroyd turned around to follow the car only to find that the driver had stopped at the green traffic light at Chesterfield Airport Road and Boone's Crossing.

He contacted the driver and only person in the car, Amy I. Williams of Rolla, Missouri. Williams could not find her drivers' license. She had vomit on the front of her blouse. She said that she did not know how that happened. She later said her "date" threw up on her, but there was no date to be seen.

Williams appeared confused and very intoxicated. She said she was leaving a nearby movie theater but could not tell Officer Holroyd what movie she had just watched.

She refused to perform any field sobriety tests or take a Field Breath Test.

She was arrested for DWI, Improper Turn, No Drivers' License or Insurance Card.

She had trouble walking and keeping her balance from her car to the police car.

This is from Officer Holroyd's report.

Holroyd should know and recognize drunks. Before becoming a police officer he was a chef and a restaurant manager for eight years.

Below is Holroyd with a chef's hat and shirt, plus his duty belt at a Taste of Chesterfield event. Holroyd's carrying advance items of running a kitchen, a semi-automatic pistol and a taser.

Once at the police station Williams was still very confused. She refused to take an official "Breath Test."

She was advised of her rights per the Miranda Ruling and agreed to be interviewed for a short time, before refusing to answer additional questions. This is from the police report:

Using Alcohol Influence Report (AIR), Form 2389, when asked what the current time was, she stated "10:20". I asked her what the current date was, and she said "I'm guessing 09/17, wait, September 17th of 19." I asked her what city or county she was in currently. She stated "I don't know." When asked what she was doing during the last three hours prior to my contact with her, she stated she was "watching a movie." I asked her if she was operating the vehicle at the time of the traffic stop and she stated "I don't remember." I asked her if she had been drinking, and she stated "I don't know." It should be noted, Williams refused to continue to answer any further questions. See AIR form for further.

Amy Williams

OUTCOME: Williams hired a local lawyer and appeared in Chesterfield Municipal Court on November 5, 2020, a year after her arrest. She was rewarded by City Prosecutor Tim Engelmeyer for being so drunk she puked on herself, passed out at a green light, almost hit a police car head-on and refused to take a breath test but of course hired a local defense lawyer. That is all that matters in the world of Judge Rick Brunk and Engelmeyer. Public safety comes a very distance second. Engelmeyer dismissed all of the companion charges. Williams pled guilty to the DWI, but was given the “No-Fine, No-Points, No-Public Record” SIS probation term by Brunk.

ANOTHER TOP GOLF DRUNK DRIVER: The Top Golf facility in Chesterfield Valley with multiple levels of tees helps golfers improve their game until 11pm every night. With a full bar plus wait service at every tee serving drinks Top Golf also helps Chesterfield Police Officers with their DWI arrests.

Officer Todd Lantz

On August 26, 2018 Chesterfield Officer Todd Lantz was east on Chesterfield Airport Road when he saw a speeding auto going west. Lantz check the moving radar unit in his patrol car and saw that the approaching black 2018 Honda Accord was doing 57 MPH in the 45 mph zone.

Lantz turned around and pulled the car over and contacted the driver, Jacob J. Woltering of St. Charles and the female passenger. Officer Lantz could immediately tell they had both been drinking and appeared to be drunk.

Woltering gave the official drunk driver answer when asked how much he had to drink, "A couple of beers."

This is from the police report:

I approached the driver (later identified as Jacob Woltering) and requested his drivers' license and proof of insurance. I asked him where he was coming from and he said he was coming from Top Golf. I noticed his speech was slurred and he had an odor of intoxicating beverage coming from his person. I asked him how much he had to drink and he stated, "Not a lot tonight." He stated he had a couple of beers.

Woltering agreed to do Field Sobriety tests which he failed. He also tested drunk after taking a field breath test.

Woltering was arrested for DWI and speeding. His passenger was taken to a business (we are guessing a hotel) where she called for a sober person to pick her up.

At the police station Woltering agreed to take an "official" breath test. That showed his BAC level to be .104.%

In an interview after the BA test, Woltering stuck with the "2-beers" but admitted that he thought he was drunk.

OUTCOME: There was no DWI conviction in this case. On 04/16/19 Woltering pled guilty to DWI and Judge Rick Brunk placed him on a "no points, no-fine, no public record" SIS probation. He did have to attend a Victim's Impact meeting and another sobriety meeting.

Woltering is a former Post-Dispatch Scholar-Athlete from 2011 having played basketball and soccer at Duchesne High School in St. Charles. He has had no other traffic violations that we could find.

BAREFOOT DRUNK ASSAULTS TWO AT FOUR SEASONS DIERBERG'S. CHESTERFIELD JUDGE AND PROSECUTOR MAKE SURE THERE IS NO ASSAULT CONVICTION. Patrick Durham, 41, of Seabrook Drive in Chesterfield was drunk driving, but before he was drunk shopping at the Dierberg's in the Four Seasons Plaza on Olive. He was also barefoot.

It was September 9, 2018 at about 10:05PM. Durham was waiting in a checkout line. Behind him was Victim #1.

A Dierberg's employee had called the police and later explained to the Officer Taylor Wissmann that a man who appeared to be drunk, (Durham) entered the supermarket and was barefoot. A little later Durham, was in a checkout line and the man behind asked him what the deal was with no shoes.

Durham replied by saying "shut the fuck up" and promptly slapped the customer in his face. He then challenged his victim to step out into the parking lot to fight.

Outside in the victim's parked car was his roommate (described in the report as "boyfriend") The soon-to-be second victim was looking out the car window into the store and saw the slapping incident.

When Durham went outside to his car he was confronted by the "boyfriend" and immediately started shoving him hard in the chest saying, "you want to fight."

Durham ran to a Silver Jeep while the second victim got the license number.

Officer Wissmann

Officers found the Jeep at Durham's house and contacted Durham. Durham said he knew why they were there. He admitted to the slapping. He was arrested for two counts of common assault.

At the Police Station Durham declined to make a statement.

Patrick Durham

He was charged with just one assault and issued a citation to city court.

Durham's arrest record:

07/10/19	Moving Vio reduced to Parking Vio $193 fine	Manchester PD
09/09/18	Assault (see outcome)	Chesterfield PD
10/11/02	Speeding Guilty $150 fine	MO Hwy Patrol

OUTCOME: On 03/04/19 Prosecutor Tim Engelmeyer reduced the Assault charge to Peace Disturbance. Durham pled guilty and was fined $225.50 plus court costs.

A WINDY DAY BLOWING OPEN A CAR DOOR GETS A VERY DRUNK DRIVER OFF THE STREETS, BUT CHESTERFIELD MUNI COURT PUTS HIM RIGHT BACK ON THE STREETS. It was February 12, 2019. A day shift worker at the Springhill Suites Hotel was leaving after the end of her shift a little after 3pm.

It was a windy day and when she opened her driver's open the wind caught it, blew it open against the car parked next to hers. She looked for any damaged and noticed a man slumped behind the wheel who did not wake up to her door hitting his 2017 Jeep Cherokee.

The hotel worker went back into the hotel and had them call the Chesterfield Police to check on the man.

When Chesterfield Police Officer Matt Adams pulled onto the parking lot, the driver of the Jeep, Sean Dugan, 55, of Leawood, Kansas was awake and driving off the parking lot. A hotel employee motioned to the vehicle and Officer Adams got behind it.

He pulled Dugan over on Chesterfield Parkway and the North Forty Outer Road. When he contacted Dugan it was clear that he was drunk, but Dugan denied having anything to drink. This is from the police report:

I made contact with the driver, Sean Dugan (0[REDACTED]/1964) and advised the reason for the stop. I asked Dugan if he knew anything about me being called and he replied "well, I was on a call. I was on a. I was on a call." While making contact with Dugan, I observed a strong odor I associate with an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. Dugan's speech appeared slurred and his eyes were bloodshot. I asked Dugan how much he had to drink and he responded "zero". I requested Dugan's license and insurance at which time he provided his drivers license and looked at me. I requested Dugan's insurance card a second time at which time he provided it.

Dugan agreed to do field sobriety tests which he failed despite claiming he had nothing to drink. Next he agreed to a field breath test. The results of that test were .309% or almost 4-times over the legal limit. Pretty amazing for a guy who claims he had nothing to drink.

Sean Dugan

Dugan's eyes,

Officer Adams did not seize Dugan's drivers' license as he was a Kansas resident. However, he did complete paperwork that would suspend Dugan's privilege to drive in Missouri due to the high BAC level.

OUTCOME: The guy that was almost 4-times over the legal limit when he was stopped at 3:15 on a Tuesday afternoon with regular traffic, plus school buses on the road, appeared in Chesterfield Municipal Court on July 15, 2019. City prosecutor Tim Engelmeyer reduced the DWI to Careless and Impudent Driving. Dugan pled guilty and was fined $198.50. He has no DWI on his record with one exception.

Dugan appealed the suspension of his Missouri Driving Privilege. On February 23, 2021, two years after his arrest his appeal was heard in St. Louis County Circuit Court. Dugan lost and his driving privilege was suspended.

ESTRANGED HUSBAND CALLS TO SPEAK WITH CHILDREN. THEY DON'T WANT TO TALK TO HIM. HE COMES TO THE HOUSE DRUNK AND ASSAULTS WIFE, WHO ALSO DID NOT WANT TO TALK TO HIM. Andrew Duke, 47, had been estranged from his wife Lisa Rebecca Duke for several weeks and had moved out of the couples' house on Crownridge in Chesterfield after telling his wife he was "in love" with another woman.

Now Lisa Duke's house on Crownridge.

On Sunday November 5, 2017 at about 9 pm he called and wanted to talk to his two children. They did not want to talk to him. His wife, Lisa, said he sounded drunk and he was furious with the children and threatened to come over.

He fulfilled his treat and was at the house a few minutes later. Lisa and the children were both frightened. He spoke with the children and they were crying when he confronted Lisa. He demanded to talk to her away from the kids. She didn't want to talk to him alone, but he grabbed her arm and forcibly dragged her into the dining room leaving marks. While Lisa was screaming the 11-year-old daughter called 9-1-1. The call taker could hear the screaming in the background.

On arrival of the Chesterfield Police, Andrew Duke had already fled the house, leaving a half drunk can of beer.

A crime scene officer responded and photographed the injuries (red marks and bruises) to Lisa Duke's arm.

Officer Charlie Thompson called Andrew Duke. He reported that Duke sounded intoxicated.

Officer Charlie Thompson

Officer Thompson said Duke became belligerent and threatened to complain to his good friend the Chesterfield Prosecuting Attorney Timothy Engelmeyer about Thompson's treatment toward him. This is from the police report:

I eventually made contact with Andrew D. via phone. Andrew D. speech was slurred and I believed he was intoxicated. He stated that he had done nothing wrong and refused to obtain a sober ride to come to the Chesterfield Police station to provide a statement. Andrew D. became more belligerent and threatened to tell the Chesterfield Prosecuting Attorney, (That he reportedly personally knows) that I was not doing my job. After several more rants, and accusations, I ended the phone call.

The next day Lisa got an Order of Protection/Restraining Order against Andrew.

On November 7, 2017 Duke turned himself in at the Chesterfield Police Department. He told officers he did not do anything wrong on 11/05. He called his 11-year-old daughter, but she hung up on him. He believed she did so at his wife's instruction so he drove to the house.

OUTCOME: On 02/12/19 Duke pled guilty in Chesterfield Municipal Court. Judge Richard Brunk gave this person with a record of domestic violation a No-Fine, No Permanent Public Record SIS probation. Since this probation Duke has been arrested three times in Webster Groves for domestic violence related acts.

DRUNK DRIVER HITS MEDIAN WALL AND ENDS HIS NIGHT OF DRIVING ON I-64.

On Friday night into Saturday morning just after midnight on October 10, 2020 Town and Country Police Officer Ryan Schneider on his first week of work at Town and Country having just been hired from the Ellisville PD, was dispatched to WB I-64 near I-270 for a report of a car that had hit the median wall. A Frontenac Police officer also responded.

On Officer Schneider's arrival the Frontenac officer was already talking to man behind the wheel of a damaged Black 2015 Toyota RAV4. The vehicle had right front damage and a flat right front tire.

Rayan Ahmed, 20, of Ballwin said he had been driving the Toyota, but Officer Schneider did not provide any explanation from Ahmed concerning the crash in his report.

Ryan Schneider

Officer Schneider could clearly tell that Ahmed had been drinking. This is from his police report.

Through conversation that I had with Ahmed, I believed he was intoxicated. When answering questions, Ahmed's speech seemed slurred at times and his eyes were watery and bloodshot. I also smelled a strong odor that was consistent with an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. When asked how much he had to drink and how long it had been since his last drink, Ahmed stated he had two or three beers over a 30 minute time period. It should be noted Ahmed admitted driving the vehicle numerous times.

While Ahmed was still in his Toyota, Officer Schneider gave him two sobriety tests. He asked Ahmed to recite the alphabet beginning with the letter "D" and stopping at "R". Despite several tries Ahmed was unable to do this correctly.

Next Officer Schneider told Ahmed that he had $2.75 in quarters and then asked how many quarters he had. Ahmed said "13." (I like that test. My favorite test I used when making DWI arrests was to have them count backwards from 10-to-zero using odd numbers only.)

Out of the car Ahmed failed several walking and balance field sobriety tests and was arrested for DWI.

At the police station Ahmed agreed to take a breath test. The results of the test were .153% BAC or almost double the legal limit.

In an interview Ahmed said he did not have any idea what time it was or what the date was. He said he thought he was in Ballwin at the Ballwin Police station.

OUTCOME: On January 28, 2021 with an attorney Ahmed pled guilty to DWI before Town and Country Judge Niehoff. Ahmed had no prior record of traffic citations or arrests.

He was given a 2-year SIS (No-Points, No-Fine, No-Permanent Record) Probation term.

58-YEAR-OLD DRUNK WOMAN FROM BELLVILLE RUNS OFF ROAD AND WRECKS HER AUDI ON BOPP ROAD ON A SATURDAY NIGHT. She claims she was not intoxicated. A beath test says otherwise.

On Saturday night around 9:35pm on September 14, 2019 Omar Qureshi was driving to his Town and Country home west on Clayton Road. He was in Frontenac when he noticed that the blue Audi in front of him was weaving into the other lane and off onto the right shoulder.

At EB Clayton Road and Bopp Road, Mr. Qureshi got into the left turn lane to go south on Bopp Road. The Audi had been in the straight lane but suddenly turned left into front of him almost causing a crash.

Mr. Qureshi said within a block the car ran off the right side of the road and crashed into something, but then continued at a very slow speed. He called 9-1-1 to get the police to respond. During that time the woman drove the Audi off the road again at Fordyce Manor and that was the end of her driving for the night as the car was disabled.

She had hit a concrete storm drain and a metal guard rail.

Town and Country Officer Alex Pflueger and Sgt. McNutt responded. Officer Pflueger found the driver of the car, Denise Chomicki, 58, of Belleville, Illinois behind the wheel. She appeared to the officers to be drunk. This is from the police report:

Mrs. Chomicki, with Pace Properties, said she had just had one-and-a-half glasses of wine while at a friend's house. She said she did not know why the car drove off the road. She also said she was going home but did not say why she was headed toward Kansas and not Illinois and after turning she was headed toward Arkansas.

Officer Pflueger asked her to recite the alphabet beginning with “B” and stopping at “J.” From the police report here is her response:

B,C,D,E,F,G,H,I,J,A,K-

Officer Pflueger stopped her as she started to create a new set of letters.

He then got her out of the car to conduct field sobriety tests since she claimed she was not intoxicated. However, she was so drunk and her balance was so bad Officer Pflueger did not have her do the tests for her safety.

She was arrested and taken to the Town and Country Police station. There she agreed to take a breath test. The test results showed she was almost 2-times the legal limit.

This is from a brief interview shortly after she tested way over the BAC limit.

OUTCOME: On March 5, 2020 she appeared with a lawyer in Town and Country Municipal Court. She pled guilty to DWI. Now look at the photo of her, the fact she crashed her car twice, a witness reported she was weaving all over Clayton Road and Bopp Road and tested almost twice the legal limit. Judge Andrea Niehoff placed her on a 2-year SIS probation with no-points, no fine and no permanent public record.
