

DRUNKS AND THIEVES 2021 PART 9

November 9, 2021

By John Hoffmann

STEALING BOOZE WITH YOUR BACKPACK: On July 29, 2019 at 8:06pm security at Sam's Club in Chesterfield Valley watched a store member (customer) go to the liquor department and put a $49 bottle of Grey Goose Vodka and a $46 bottle of Woodford Reserve Bourbon in his backpack.

The man kept shopping and selected some peaches and spice which he took to the self checkout, but not before store security called the Chesterfield Police. When the suspect had paid for his peaches and spice and then left the store he was stopped by Chesterfield Police Officer Johanna Flushing after he left the store. Officer Flushing is not someone to mess with as she was featured on NBC's America Ninja TV Show.

Officer Flushing

Officer Flushing identified the thief as Charles Dominic Harris, 27 years old of Royal Crest Court in Chesterfield. Harris told Officer Flushing the two large bottles of liquor in his backpack were his from his house that he carried into the store.

- 1. Grey Goose Vodka 1.76 Liters bottle valued at $48.98
 - 2. Woodford Reserved bourbon 375ml bottle valued at $45.98
- Total value of the items recovered was $94.98

Since store security had a video of Harris stealing the booze he then offered to pay for it. This didn't work. He was taken to the security office of the store. Harris had no prior criminal arrests or citations, plus he was a Chesterfield resident. He was then released from Sam's Club on a summons for stealing and never went to the police station to be fingerprinted or photographed.

OUTCOME: On January 28, 2020 before COVID-19 created a national pandemic, Harris pled guilty in Chesterfield Municipal Court. He was represented by a lawyer from Chesterfield so of course he did not get convicted of a crime. He pled guilty to a Health Code Violation and was fined $216 for something he did not do.

Harris had played this game before. In 2014 he hired a local lawyer and had three moving violations in St. Ann turn into Parking Violations.

CHESTERFIELD POLICE MAKE A RETURN VISIT FOR A SECOND ARREST FOR DOMESTIC ASSAULT: The first call occurred on March 26, 2020. The second call and second arrest happened on December 3, 2020 at 5pm when neighbors heard breaking glass and a man yelling "call the police" at a Condo in the 800 block of Coalport.

Chesterfield Officers Devin Kitrel, Ryan Broeker and Celia Saaverda responded in December.

Officer Kitrel Officer (now Det) Broeker Officer Saaverda

On arrival Officer Kitrel contacted the male of the relationship that had produce a child, Lorenzo Gordon. He patted down Gordon and immediately found a 9mm handgun in his pocket, which was seized.

Gordon stated they he and Williams) returned home and there was a package at the front door address to him. His live-in girlfriend, Brittany Williams immediately began demanding for him to tell her who the package was from. He wasn't saying.

He went upstairs with the package and then returned downstairs as she followed and began throwing glasses and wine bottles that broke on the floor. He said she slipped, fell and hit her head on the refrigerator causing an injury.

Of course the girlfriend, Brittish Williams had a very different account of things. This is from the police report:

When I spoke with J [REDACTED], she told me when they arrived at Lorenzo's Condo there was a large package on the door step. She asked who it was from and Lorenzo was being secretive about it. J [REDACTED] said she grabbed the package and went upstairs in the bathroom. Lorenzo followed her attempting to retrieve the package. While in the bathroom, Lorenzo starting shoving her and grabbing the package. J [REDACTED] said she went back down stairs and Lorenzo starting pushing her more. J [REDACTED] stated she starting throwing several glasses on the floor. She stated Lorenzo pushed her really hard causing her to go head first into the door casing a laceration to her forehead. Once she fell on the floor, Lorenzo mounted her and wouldn't let her up.

It was also determined that she had the laceration on her forehead.

The officers determined that Gordon was the aggressor. He was arrested. He was held at the police department for three hours and then released on a citation for Domestic Assault.

This was the first visit for the Chesterfield Police involving the pair.

On Wednesday March 25, 2020 at about 10PM police were called to their Condo at 800 block of Coalport Drive (in Gordon's name). This time the girlfriend had an injured lip. She reported that Gordon had struck her. The argument was over another women. The victim had left the apartment for two days after an earlier argument to cool down.

Gordon was again arrested for Domestic Assault.

800 block of Coalport Drive

Lorenzo Gordon

OUTCOME: The March Domestic Assault was reduced to Peace Disturbance. Gordon pled guilty on 02/08/21 and was fined $170.

Also on 02/08/21 he pled guilty to another amended charge from Domestic Assault in December to Peace Disturbance and was fined another $170.

Gordon has a number of civil actions against him including a $6,770 judgment owed to his Condo Association, but he had no other criminal cases of any kind.

Gordon who had played professional basketball in Europe and British Williams (the victim) have been featured on television shows Basketball Wives of LA and Marriage Bootcamp: Reality Stars.

Williams went to Clayton High School and Gordon played for the disgraced former coach and ex-convict Floyd Irons at Vashon. He played one season of JUCO basketball and then one season at Illinois State and Oklahoma City U.

He played pro basketball overseas in Sweden, Turkey, Russia, Israel and also in Argentina.

In September 22, 2021 Williams was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on five Felony Charges of Misuse of a Social Security number, 4-counts of Bank Fraud, 3-counts of Making False Statements to the IRS, 3-counts of Felony Wire Fraud and 3-counts of Aggravated Identity Theft.

HIGH ON DRUGS 28-YEAR-OLD FROM BRIDGETON TOOK OUT 35-FEET OF GUARD RAIL ON I-270. INSTEAD OF BEING CHILLED SHE WAS A HANDFULL and wasn't wearing her pants

On Friday night into Saturday morning June 27, 2020 at 12:45AM Town and Country Officer Dustin York was dispatched to a single vehicle crash on Southbound I-270 at or near the Clayton Road overpass.

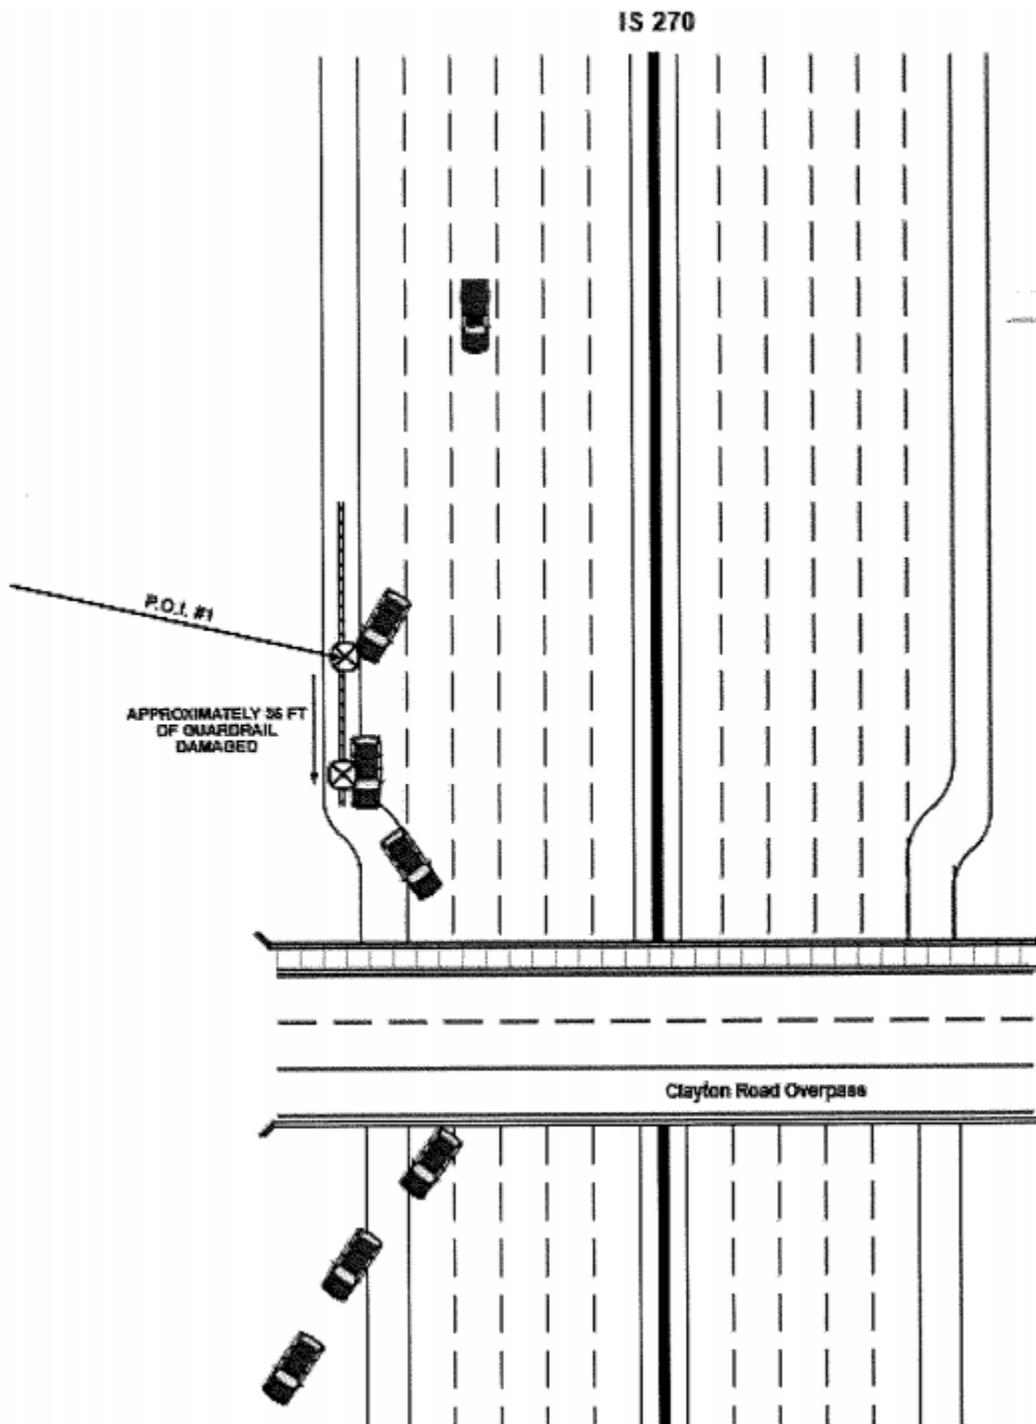

On arrival Officer York found a white GMC Terrain off the road and stuck on an embankment. The vehicle had extensive damage to the right side.

The driver, Jessica Marie Morgan 28, was out of the vehicle and had removed her pants which were on a rear seat. Officer York asked her to put her pants back on, a task that was difficult.

Officer York reported that Morgan was calling out names that she said were her children. He checked the area and the vehicle and could find no other people. A witness who was driving on I-270 behind Morgan stopped after she crashed and reported that there was no one else in Morgan's GMC.

The witness reported the GMC was swerving and then left the roadway to the right striking a guardrail and then continue driving off the highway before getting stuck on the embankment at which time the driver was spinning her tires.

Officer York stated that Morgan hysterical at times and once claimed people had set her up.

This is from his report:

The female then continued to make random statements about how her friends knew a "Hibachi Guy". I asked the female what drugs she was on. The female stated she had taken CBD. I asked the female how long ago she took the drugs. The female stated "Not long ago". I asked the female if she had any alcohol to drink. The female stated she had not, but also stated she took a "rip off of a bong".

I asked the female what happened. She stated she did not know. I asked the female if she was willing to perform field sobriety tests. The female requested her shoes. The female's shoes were retrieved from her vehicle. Once her shoes arrived she put on the sandals and then jumped onto the hill face down. At that time the West County EMS arrived on scene. Paramedics checked out the female, who stated she did not feel injured. The female also stated her name was Morgan, Jessica and gave a date of birth of, 11/21/1991. Paramedics asked Morgan if she would like to go to the hospital. Morgan, still acting hysterically, would not answer the direct question. After asking several times, Morgan stated she could not breath and finally decided to be transported to Mercy Hospital.

Once in the ambulance Morgan became uncooperative and at one point began spitting on the paramedics.

Morgan was assisted to West County Ambulance #3537. Paramedic Shuh, (P19594) escorted Morgan into the ambulance. While in the ambulance Morgan became belligerent with the paramedics. Morgan stated she did not want to go to the hospital and yelling random phrases about her friends and drug use. Morgan also began to spit in the ambulance. Morgan was also cursing at the paramedics and calling them "bitches". When she was again asked if she wanted to go to the hospital she yelled that she wanted to "roll a blunt". After changing her mind for several minutes, Morgan decided she would like to go to the hospital. Before the ambulance left the scene, I approached Morgan, who was laying on the stretcher. I placed my left hand on Morgan's left shoulder and advised Morgan she was under arrest for driving while intoxicated. I informed Morgan that I would be accompanying the ambulance to the hospital. Morgan stated, "okay okay".

At the hospital it was more of the same. She refused a "police evidence blood draw" and to answer any questions.

Morgan stayed at the hospital which means I was unable to get a mugshot (rats!). She was issued citations of Driving While Intoxicated/Drugs, Improper Lane Use,

Possession of Marijuana for a bag of pot in plain view in the front seat area, and No Proof of Insurance.

Dustin York

OUTCOME: On April 1, 2021 Morgan pled guilty to DWID. She was fined $466 and sentenced to 90-days in jail with a 2-year SES probation term on the jail sentence. She got full points for DWID and a permanent public record. The Improper Lane Use that caused $10,000 worth of damage to Highway Department guardrails and the No Proof of Insurance charges were dismissed.

The Possession of Marijuana charge was amended to Littering with a $316 fine.

Morgan's record only included three traffic charges amended to Illegal Parking with stiff fines in St. Ann.

58-YEAR OLD BALLWIN WOMAN SHOPLIFTING LOTS OF BOOZE OVER TWO MONTHS, MAYBE FOR A GARDEN PARTY. Store detectives at the Town and Country Target store were restricted from taking shoplifters into custody due to the COVID 19 pandemic. That did not keep them from working.

The store's asset protection officer on April 29, 2020 observed a women stealing. With the store's COVID-19 policy of not detaining people he contacted the lady and suggested she leave the items she was trying to steal. She ignored him and took stolen bottles of liquor out of the store. He followed her and got the license number off of her Mercedes CLS 550.

He described her as white/female around 60 with a slim build.

A review of store security video over two months showed the woman was a regular thief.

Here on the dates and times she was seen stealing (normally booze):

March 13, 2020, at 16:30 hours
April 14, 2020, at 18:00 hours
April 19, 2020, at 19:00 hours
April 20, 2020, at 10:00 hours
April 29, 2020, at 13:00 hours

Here is what she was seen stealing:

Two bottles $65.98

6 bottles $89.95

1-bottle $29.99

1-bottle $17.99

4-750ML $59.96

2-bottles 750ML $29.98

1-bottle $14.99

3-12 packs of 50ML bottles of Vodka $65.97

2 more 1.75ML $59.98 2-bottles $39.98

AND FINALLY FOR THE GARDEN PARTY:

4-bags of potting soil $33.96

We have shown all the items stolen because the suspect, Mercia Belle Myers is not exactly a large woman.

She is 5-foot-2 inches tall and weighs in at 120 pounds.

60-year-old Mercia Myers.

The investigation of all five thefts totaling $508.73 was being handled by Det. Jason Sapienza, who didn't have to spend too much time in clearing the cases..

He did a photo lineup of the suspect where the Target asset protection employee immediately picked her out. He got video of Myers in action. He then called Myers and she agreed to come to the station and meet with Det. Sapienza.

After being advised of her rights Myers immediately started talking about her husband, Mark Myers and saying how he had a drinking problem.

Det. Sapienza stopped her and showed her the video of her stealing a lot of booze. She then changed her story and admitted it was her stealing and added that she also has a drinking problem. This is from the police reports: (In Det. Sapienza's reports he bounces back and forth from "third person" to "first person.")

Detective Sapienza then produced five theft reports which included the incident date, merchandise stolen, and surveillance photographs. At this time, Myers said she wanted to be completely honest. Myers admitted that she too probably has a drinking problem. Myers said she was responsible for stealing the items listed in each of Bacher's Target Theft Reports and identified herself in each surveillance photograph. Myers admitted to taking the gardening soil for tomato plants and three bags of potato chips when she was exiting the store. This concluded Myers' statement.

I advised Myers that she was under arrest for five counts of "Stealing". I conveyed Myers to the booking area where she was booked on the indicated charges. A computer inquiry of Myers' name revealed no additional wants or warrants. Myers was released with five summons for "Stealing" with a return court date of July 9, 2020.

OUTCOME: Myers hired a lawyer so things would probably not be too bad for a chronic thief with an apparent alcohol problem.

March 13, 2020 Theft On 12/11/20 she pled guilty and was placed on a 2-year No-fine, No Permanent Record SIS Probation.

April 14, 2020 Theft On 12/11/20 she pled guilty and was placed on a 2-year, No-Fine, No Permanent Record SIS Probation.

April 19, 2020 Theft On 12/11/20 she pled guilty and was fined $166.50 to Stealing and it is a permanent court record.

April 20, 2020 Theft On 12/11/20 she pled guilty to something she did not do. The theft charge was amended to littering. She was fined $216.50 for an offense some environmentalists would consider more serious than stealing.

I would hope that restitution was part of a pre-plea agreement because there was nothing in the online court files about paying back Target .

DRUNK WOMAN DRIVING A 2016 PORSCHE THAT WITNESSES REPORT WAS DOING 100 MPH CAUSED 4-CAR CRASH ON I-64 NEAR MASON ROAD. On Saturday night November 9, 2019 Tiffany Peter at about 8:25pm was driving her 2016 Porsche west on I-64 so fast she caused motorists she passed at high speeds to call 9-1-1. Then just before Mason Road she caused a high-speed multi-car crash that generated more 9-1-1 calls.

Town and Country Police dispatched four officers to the call. Cpl. Dan Duddleston apparently drew a short straw and was a primary officer.

Four T&C Officers on the Scene

The driver of the Porsche was identified as Tiffany Peter of Ballwin. From the police reports this is the general condition and attitude of Peter:

This is the diagram of all the points of impact caused by Peter:

The first vehicle struck by Peter's Porsche was 2010 Ford Focus operated by Grant Sims of Chesterfield, MO and occupied by his wife. This car was total as it overturned after the impact. Of course the Porsche was also totaled.

Here is Sim's statement:

DRIVER 2 STATED HE WAS TRAVELING IN LANE 1 ON WESTBOUND INTERSTATE 64, EAST OF MASON ROAD. DRIVER 2 STATED HE LOOKED IN HIS REAR VIEW MIRROR AND OBSERVED VEHICLE 1 APPROACHING HIS VEHICLE AT A HIGH RATE OF SPEED. DRIVER 2 STATED HE ATTEMPTED TO CHANGE LANES TO THE RIGHT TO AVOID BEING STRUCK BY VEHICLE 1. DRIVER 2 STATED HE WAS UNABLE TO COMPLETE THE LANE CHANGE BEFORE THE FRONT OF VEHICLE 1 STRUCK THE LEFT REAR OF HIS VEHICLE. AFTER THE IMPACT, DRIVER 2 STATED HIS VEHICLE BEGAN TO SPIN AND THEN OVERTURNED ON THE PASSENGER'S SIDE. DRIVER 2 STATED HIS VEHICLE RAN OFF THE ROADWAY TO THE RIGHT AND THE FRONT OF HIS VEHICLE STRUCK THE EMBANKMENT. AFTER STRIKING THE EMBANKMENT, VEHICLE 2 RETURNED RIGHT SIDE UP.

From the Crash report, here is Tiffany Peter's statement:

DRIVER 1 STATED SHE COULD NOT RECALL THE DETAILS OF THE CRASH.

Cpl. Duddleston obviously thought Peter was drunk. She agreed to do field sobriety tests. That agreement and those tests did not last long.

After Cpl. Duddleston finished check her eyes Peter said she had to urinate and demanded to go to the bathroom. Duddleston pointed out to her there were no restrooms on I-64. She then refused to do any more sobriety tests. She stated she would go urinated in the grass off the shoulder. While walking in the grass she fell. This is from the police report:

stated she was a calling her lawyer and will urinate in the grassy area north of the shoulder. Peter began to walk down the grassy area and fell to the ground. It was apparent Peter would not submit to field sobriety tests, nor could she safely perform field sobriety tests.

She was arrested for DWI and other traffic charges. Sgt. McNutt transported her to the police station and a bathroom.

At the police station Peter refused to take a Breath Test. She did agree to be interviewed. In that interview she stated that she had been drinking at a charity awards function at the downtown Hyatt hotel from 3pm to 7:30pm. She said she wasn't sure how many drinks she had saying, "maybe five."

She admitted that she thought she was intoxicated.

In July of 2000 he was also charged with misdemeanor domestic assault in Richmond Heights.

10-months after this crash in October of 2020, Tiffany Peter filed for Divorce from her 67-year-old husband, Michael Peter. That was pending in October of 2021.

Two months after the crash Tiffany Peter was sued by Grant and Jordynn Sims who were in the Ford Focus that was the first car hit by Peter, was overturned and totaled. That suit has not been settled.

CONCERNED CITIZEN HELPS NAIL A DRUNK DRIVER. On Saturday June 13, 2020 at about 9:50pm a motorist was so concerned about the way a driver of a Blue Toyota Prius in front of him on EB I-64 was weaving from lane to lane that he called 9-1-1. He told the dispatcher he would stay behind the Toyota with his flashers so a police officer could find them.

The officer responding was Eric Diaz, a former Missouri State Trooper.

Officer Eric Diaz

Officer Diaz found the vehicle and got behind it between Mason Road and I-270 on EB I-64. He immediately noticed that the car was weaving and also straddling the lane dividers between lanes 2 and 3.

Officer Diaz turn on the overhead flashing lights and his spotlight. The driver of the Toyota slowed to 20 mph but did not pulled over until he was on the exit lane for Ballas Road.

Once the driver, Aleksandr Prokhorets,57, finally stopped Officer Diaz contacted him and immediately noted that he was dealing with a drunk driver.

This is from the police report:

I immediately detected a strong odor of alcoholic beverage emitting from the inside of the vehicle. I also noticed the driver's eyes were watery and glassy. I identified myself and asked the driver how was he doing and he stated, "I'm doing well." I explained to the driver that I observed him swerve in and out of lanes and asked him why he took so long to pull over, he stated, "I just didn't see what you..." The driver's words were slurred, confused, and, mumbled. I asked the driver how many drinks did he have today he stated, "None." At this time I made the

The driver, Aleksandr Prokhorets, had such trouble with the field sobriety tests that he could not walk a straight line or put his heel to his toe. The reason became quickly clear when Prokhorets took a field sobriety test and tested at .191%.

Prokhorets had changed his story on drinking at the time of the field sobriety tests, "I had two glasses of wine. I'm a wine guy."

Based on Prokhorets' clear drunken condition, his failure on the field sobriety tests and the BAC reading on his field breath test he was arrested and taken to the Town and Country Police station.

At the cop shop he agreed to take an official breath test. He was arrested in 2019 by the Olivette Police for DWI and refused to take a breath test and then hired a lawyer to fight the driver's license suspension in court, only to later drop the appeal.

The official breath test showed his BAC level was dropping but was still over twice the legal limit.

OUTCOME: On February 5, 2021 Prokhorets pled guilty to Weaving and DWI. Prokhorets having a DWI arrest eight months earlier and being on probation in Olivette at the time of his plea, had an effect on Town and Country Judge Andrea Niehoff who placed Prokhorets on a 2-year SES full-record and full points probation term and fined him $366.

There is currently an arrest warrant for Prokhorets for apparently violating his probation on his DWI arrest in Olivette by being arrested and convicted for DWI in Town and Country.
