

DRUNKS AND THIEVES 2019 PART 9 December 31, 2019

DRUNK DRIVER NOT SURE IF IT WAS DECEMBER 26 OR THURSDAY JANUARY 25 OR MONDAY. HARPO'S BAR SENDS ANOTHER DEADLY WEAPON ONTO THE LOCAL ROADS:

On very early Tuesday morning 12/27/16 at about 1:30am Chesterfield Police Sgt. Dave Weiss was on the parking lot of the Hilltown Village Shopping Center. That was a good place for a cop to be in the 1 o'clock hour as Harpo's Bar would be closing and Harpo's has a history of serving intoxicated people leading to Drunk Drivers leaving the parking lot or drunken fights.

This is from Harpo's Facebook.

This is from Harpo's facebook on Christmas Day

While on the parking lot Sgt. Weiss saw a black 2009 Toyota Corolla being driven erratically. He tried to stop the car on the parking lot, but the driver did not pull over. The driver continued on and went through a major intersection and finally was stopped in an apartment complex on Peach Hill Lane.

Once there Sgt. Weiss was assisted by Officer Angela Gibbs. As in most cases the sergeant saw the offense and stopped the suspect and the lowly police officer got stuck with the arrest and 3-hours of police reports and forms.

The driver Merari Aguilar admitted to having a “few drinks” at Harpo’s. There was a marijuana “blunt” cigar in the car’s ashtray. Aguilar stated she had not smoked that since noon. Prior to towing the car incident to arrest officers also found a pill bottle full of marijuana. At the time of her arrest Aguilar was a bartender. She is now a manager at the Wildflower Restaurant in St, Louis.

Both officers observed that Aguilar’s breath reeked of booze, her eyes were watery, constricted and bloodshot (signs of both alcohol and drug intoxication), her balance was unsure and she needed help standing, and her speech was laced with profanities as her mood would rapidly change. She could not produce a drivers’ license.

She failed a visual field test and was arrested for DWID, Improper Lane Use, Possession of Marijuana. She was also arrested as a Fugitive from Maryland Heights as there was a warrant for her not appearing in court.

At the police station on 12/27/16 at 2:42AM Aguilar agreed to be interviewed. She first stated that the day was December 26. She then said it was either “Thursday January 25 or Monday.” She stated that she only had “two drinks and a shot” at Harpo’s. She apparently was unaware that Sgt. Weiss had been trying to stop her for some time, claiming she was on the parking lot, not driving, but the car was in gear, when Sgt. Weiss first saw her.

Then she pulled an old trick that drunk drivers have been using for 50 years. Instead of blowing into the mouthpiece on the breath testing instrument she continually blew around it so no breath actually entered the instrument to be tested. This was eventually counted as a refusal.

She was then issued citations and released to the Maryland Heights PD on the warrant.

OUTCOME: Three times Aguilar failed to appear in Chesterfield Municipal Court. She was arrested on 12/07/17 by the Overland Police. After making bond she failed to appear again. She was arrested by the Richmond Height PD on 4/5/18.

Also on 01/05/18, after appealing her drivers' license suspension for failing to take a breath test, she failed to appear at the St. Louis County Associate Circuit Court.

On August 13, 2019 over two-and-a-half years after her arrest she pled guilty in Chesterfield Municipal Court and was given a 2-year SIS probation term with no fine or no points and would be removed from her record at the end of the term. She was required to attend several Substance Abuse classes and one Victim Impact presentation.

Her guilty pleas to Improper Lane Use and Marijuana Possession resulted in $198 fines on both charges.

VERY DRUNK WOMAN DRIVER STOPPED IN DES PERES. STATED SHE BEGAN DRINKING WHEN THE POLICE PULLED HER OVER AND STOPPED DRINKING THREE HOURS BEFORE THAT: Town and Country Police Cpl. Fowle was completing a sweep of southbound I-270 after 4AM on Saturday Morning November 18, 2017. He was already out of the T&C City Limits getting ready to exit onto Manchester Road when he saw the driver of a white 2017 Acura ILX weaving as exiting to go east on Manchester.

Cpl. Fowle watched the car continue to weave on Manchester and then stopped the driver after she turned right onto Ballas Road.

The driver was identified as Ashley W. Ryan, 33, of South County. This is the condition Cpl. Fowle found Ryan to be in at the time of the stop from his police report:

Ryan was confused and dropped her drivers' license 10 inches in front of Cpl. Fowle's hand plus she could not find her proof of insurance card.

She then did several field sobriety tests which she failed. The most telling was when she was asked to recite the alphabet beginning with J and ending with W. She started with ABCDEFG and Cpl. Fowle stopped her and gave the instructions again. She again went ABCDEF and was stopped again. Then she gave the following:

JWHIJVMAGMAMAE.

She refused to take a portable breath test and was then arrested for DWI and Improper Lane Use.

At the police station she agreed to be interview and claimed she was not intoxicated, but refused to take a breath test to prove it. Probably the most unusual answer during the interview when she was confused and answered questions about starting and stopping drinking backwards.:

OUTCOME: Since Cpl. Fowle's observations of Ryan's driving were outside of Town and Country Ryan was charged in Associate Circuit Court in Clayton.

On 12/03/18 Ryan pled guilty to DWI and was given a 2-year SIS probation term with No-Fine, No-Points and no permanent record. She was required to attend a Victim's Impact Session and 40-hours of Substance Abuse classes. She was fined $100 for the Improper Lane Use (weaving).

SHOPLIFTER TRIES TO EASE OUT OF WALMART WEARING STOLEN GOODS, WHILE HIS ACCOMPLICE HID IN THE BATHROOM:

On Monday November 6, 2017 four Chesterfield Special Enforcement Officers assigned to retail crimes at Chesterfield Mall and the Chesterfield Valley responded to the Wal Mart Store.

Store security officers were watching a white/male wearing a St. Louis Blues hoodie hide items under his hoodie and then take clothes to a dressing room and leave with less clothes than he took in.

With officers in the security office watching on video the suspect abandoned his shopping cart and walked outside where officers stopped him. There he at first admitted stealing just a flashlight. He was arrested and taken to the security office where it was determined he also had a battery charger and was wearing a pair of stolen pants under his pants, and a t-shirt under his hoodie. All items were valued at $92.56

The thief was identified as Robert Joseph Wade, 29, of De Soto, MO.

While in the security office he was asked if he had an accomplice and he said he did and she was hiding in the bathroom.

Officers found Mallory Clarissa Moore, 24, of Arnold, MO hiding in a stall. Video from another nearby store later identified Moore as a shoplifter two hours before the Wal Mart incident.

A computer search by a security officer revealed Moore had been issued a “no trespassing” notice not to come onto the leased or owned property of a Wal Mart anywhere in the country.

CHESTERFIELD MAN SO DRUNK HE COULD NOT STAND RUNS OFF OF CLAYTON ROAD CRASHES INTO MAILBOX, TREE AND UTILITY POLE He was uncooperative to officers and hospital staff, but he left Town & Country Court without a DWI conviction on his record.

On Thursday night 11/16/17 at about 11:42pm a call was dispatched of a car in crash sideways in the yard at 12021 Clayton Road. Frontenac Police Officer Jeremy Newton was the closest (Frontenac city limits were two blocks to the east). He responded along with Town and Country officers Freddie Yaakub and Jeff McNutt.

Officer Newton found Andrew Zotos, 23, of 1112 Chatsworth Place in Chesterfield. The officers all determined that Zotos was westbound when drove off of Clayton Road around 12005 Clayton Road. He then struck a brick enclosed mailbox in front of 12021 Clayton Road and then continued and hit a tree.

Officer Newton found that Zotos was passed out behind the wheel seat belted in. There was no one else in or around the car. When contacted by officers Zotos denied driving the car. He claimed a woman was driving and fled the scene. At first he could not remember her name.

This is from the police report:

PO Cook walked up and asked what happened and A. Zotos stumbled forward and almost fell. He then stated in a slurred manner that he was not driving and a girl was driving. A. Zotos could not remember the girls name at first. He then stated the girl's name was Carly Cassiday. A. Zotos began to stagger forward and he almost fell on us. West County EMS responded and he was very uncooperative as the paramedics were trying to check his well being. A. Zotos kept stating he wanted to talk to his attorney before he would get into the ambulance. A. Zotos had severely slurred speech. His speech was also incoherent and he mumbled at times.

Zotos (no mug shot taken)

Zotos at the hospital refused to answer any questions. He stated he couldn't hear because "the lights were too loud." He refused to answer any questions and wanted to talk to his lawyer. The problem was Zotos was too drunk to dial his telephone Officer Yaakub dialed the number on a hospital phone and apparently called his father, Thomas Zotos. While Zotos eventually agreed to have a blood draw, Thomas showed up at the hospital and told him to refuse to allow a blood draw.

Zotos was issued a citation for DWI and Improper Lane Use.

Zotos had a prior DWI in 2013 in Warren County where he also refused to take a breath test.

OUTCOME: Apparently there wasn't enough evidence for prosecutor Ed Sluys and Judge Andrea Niehoff. Car crash, driver passed out behind the wheel of a running car, seat belted in, so drunk he could not stand without help, openly lied to police officers plus had a prior DWI. No this was not enough to seek a no-probation guilty finding of Zotos.

On 08/09/19 Zotos appeared in court with his attorney pled Guilty to DWI and received a No-Points, No-Fine and No-Drivers' Lic Record SIS probation. He did plead guilty to Improper Lane Use and was fined $225.

TRIO ESCAPE AFTER STEALING FROM CHESTERFIELD POLO AND JUSTICE SHOPS BUT ARE ARRESTED A COUPLE HOURS LATER STEALING AT THE KIRKWOOD T.J. MAXX STORE. Officers assigned to the Chesterfield security (store) enforcement unit responded to a call from the Polo Store in the Chesterfield Outlet Mall on North Outer Forty Road of four black/females who had just run from the store without paying for three bags of clothes. The call was on Friday June 22, 2018 at 3:22pm.

On arrival officers were told that the store staff was suspicious and offered to put the merchandise the trio had in their hands in bags and hold it at the checkout. The items went into bags, but the trio then ran from the store with the bags.

A Mall security officer reported seeing the trio enter a silver Nissan Maxima with one right side black fender. The security officer wrote down the license plate and that checked to Ebony Cannamore. Officer Bromwich obtained a drivers' license photo of the registered owner of the car, Ebony Cannamore. Polo store staff identified Cannamore as one of the suspects.

Officer Bromwich entered an Arrest Order in the police computer system on Cannamore.

The next day Chesterfield Police were notified by an officer from the Des Peres Police Department that Kirkwood PD has arrested Cannamore and two others shoplifting at the T.J. Maxx store. There was an outstanding warrant for Carramore for stealing at the West County Mall in Des Peres. Cannamore was transferred to the County jail in Clayton when she was unable to post bond. The Kirkwood arrest was a short time after the Chesterfield thefts.

Officer Bromwich went to Kirkwood and he and the arresting Kirkwood officer went to the parking lot T.J. Maxx where the suspects' vehicle was still located. After forcing the lock officers found $433.99 of stolen merchandise from the Polo Shop and $99.10 in stolen items from the Justice Woman's Store.

Officer Bromwich and Officer Pousson interviewed Cannamore at the County Jail. She admitted the Chesterfield theft and gave up the name of her accomplice, as Otisha Smith, but refused to give up the names of the other two persons she was with in Chesterfield claiming they were not involved with the thefts. A 16-year-old girl had also been arrested in the Kirkwood theft.

Smith was also contacted at the jail and agreed to speak with the officers. She said she had stolen only two dresses at the Polo Shop and was not responsible for stealing any other items. After making that statement she refused to answer any other questions. A fourth suspect was developed and identified as Creuiannia Martin.

EXCESSIVE LANE WEAIVING ON I-64 RESULTS IN A DRIVING WHILE DRUGGED ARREST. It was Saturday night into Sunday morning on August 19, 2018 at about 1:04am when Town and Country Officer Duddleston saw a car weaving across the different lanes on WB I-64 at 141. Officer Duddleston stopped the car at Timberlake Manor.

The driver, Gene C. Brady, 31, of North St. Louis County, had no odor of booze on his breath, but Officer Duddleston thought he maybe under the influence of drugs. Brady's eyes were constricted and his balance was unsure. He either marginally passed or failed several field sobriety tests. He was then arrested for DWID and Improper Lane Use.

At the police station he denied using any illegal drugs but refused to have blood drawn for a drug test.

OUTCOME: On 07/11/19 the DWID charge was reduced to Careless & Impudent Driving. Brady pled guilty and was fined $225. He was also fined $225 for Improper Lane Use. The No Insurance Charge was reduced to Illegal Parking with a $100 fine.

REPEAT DRUNK DRIVER IMMEDIATELY CONFESSES TO THE OFFICER THAT HE IS DRUNK. HE TURNS NOT SO NICE AT THE POLICE STATION CAUSING $364 IN DAMAGE TO JAIL CELLS. On Wednesday night-Thursday morning July 26, 2018 at about 1:20 am Chesterfield Officer Randy McWilliams observed a white GMC pickup truck on Olive Blvd near Riverwoods Lane with expired license plates. Before he could pull the truck over the driver turned into St. Luke's Surrey Place nursing home.

Nine minutes later Officer McWilliams spotted the truck again on Olive Blvd near Ladue Bluffs Drive. He got behind the truck and noticed it was weaving. He then stopped the pickup on Wellesley Place just off of Olive Blvd.

Officer McWilliams

After being stopped the driver upon being contacted confess.

"I'm guilty," said the driver, Timothy Patrick Lynch, 35, of Fenton.

"Guilty of what," asked Officer McWilliams.

"Drinking and driving," said Lynch.

Officer McWilliams asked how much Lynch had to drink.

"Enough to know that I shouldn't be driving," said Lynch.

Lynch gave plenty of indicators that he was drunk besides his admission. He had a strong smell of booze on this breath, his eyes were glassy and bloodshot, his speech was slurred, incoherent, shuttering and mumbling plus once out of the truck he was staggering.

Officer McWilliams checked Lynch's prior record and found he was convicted of DWI in 2012.

To save time let's be brief. Lynch failed field sobriety tests and was arrested for DWI, Improper Lane Use and Expired License plates.

At the police station Lynch refused to take a breath test. He agreed to be interviewed. He admitted he was intoxicated and was drinking beer from 9 to 11:30. He also admitted to smoking some marijuana earlier in the day in his truck.

He was asked how much he had to drink.

"I don't know exactly. Enough to get pulled over," was his reply.

Timothy Patrick Lynch

Lynch's eyes

Later Lynch was being process (photos and prints). He was asked to sign the print card that says "signature of person fingerprinted." Lynch demanded to take and read the entire card. Officer McWilliams would not hand over the card to Lynch.

Lynch became irate and misidentified Officer McWilliams' gender by calling him a "pussy-bitch." He also started punching and kicking the booking cage area.

Lt. Dale Vogelpohl talked to Lynch in an attempt to calm him down. It did not work. Lynch had to be forcibly taken to holdover cell #5, where Lynch began jumping on a metal bunk until it broke loose from the wall. He was then moved to cell #6 where he did the same thing. He was then transferred to the County Jail.

Lt. Dale Vogelpohl

OUTCOME: Clearly Lynch did not hire defense attorney Travis Nobel to represent him in front of Judge Rick "Let m' Go" Brunk. He was actually convicted.

LYNCH, TIMOTHY, DWI: Plead guilty on 6/3/19, fine of $1000.00 and 90 days jail, suspend the execution of the 90 days jail for 2 years, with SATOP and VIP. Also paid court costs of $26.50, recoup fee of $85.00 and the $1000.00 fine.

DEST OF PROPERTY X 2: Plead guilty on 6/3/19, fine of $300.50 and $26.40 court costs on each. Restitution paid of $364.91 to the City of Chesterfield

IMPROPER LANE USE: Plead guilty on 6/3/19, fine of $198.50 and costs of $26.50

DRUNK DRIVER FROM FENTON WITH A PRIOR DWI PASSED POLICE DOING 88 MPH ON I-270. Saturday night on August 18, 2018 at about 9:38pm Town and Country Officer Dan Duddlestone was south on I-270 near the T&C south city limits when he observed a car in the passing lane rapidly overtaking him. After the yellow Chevrolet Cavalier passed his police car he activated the radar and clocked the car at 88 MPH in the 60 zone.

Officer Duddleston

He stopped the Chevy on I-270 and Manchester Road and contacted the driver, James Clubb, 28, of Fenton. He immediately could tell Clubb was drunk.

The driver stated he had couple of shots and a beer or two. He later changed that tally when interviewed at the police station to "maybe 4 beers and two shots." In the interview he also admitted that he thought he was intoxicated.

He failed the field sobriety tests including reciting the alphabet and counting backwards. He was arrested. At the police station he refused to take a breath test.

Clubb had a prior DWI arrest by the Highway Patrol on 09/03/11 after being stopped for speeding 20-25 MPH over the limit. Clubb seems to have a regular pattern when he is driving drunk. He pled guilty on 12/11/11 and was fined for both the DWI and speeding.
