NARRATIVE

On Tuesday, 11/25/2014 at 10:30 hours Det. Steven Queen DSN 259 and I responded to 455 North Woodsmill Rd (Parkway School District Administration Building) for a report of a larceny.

Upon arrival we made contact with the following school employees; Dr. Keith Marty (Superintendent), Desmond Kirchhofer (Deputy Superintendent),

Frederick Crawford (Chief of Security), Patricia Bedborough (Chief Financial Officer), Timothy McCarthy (Principal Parkway Central High School), J. Douglas Hoover (Director of Bands) and Jason Rooks (Director of Technology).

Marty provided the following information:

Approximately 15 years ago, from 1999-2003, Rice A. Jacobs "Sandy" was a Parkway School Board Member. Two of his children attended Parkway Central High School. Over the years Jacobs became good friends with several of the staff members to include Band Director Hoover. Around 2003-2004 Jacobs left the school board and took on a volunteer role for the Parkway Central High School Music Parents Booster Club.

The role involved the managing of money for the orchestra, choir and band. There was an account set up at First Bank (Account [REDACTED]) to manage the money that was brought into the club related to fund raising activities to pay for trips and other items needed. Jacobs had total control of this account with little to no oversight.

Around November 18, 2014 Marty was advised by other school officials of checks not clearing due to insufficient funds in the account. After talking to Marty, I spoke to Hoover. Hoover provided the following information:

In early October, Hoover was informed by leaders of the craft show of a money transfer from their account located at First Bank to the parents booster club account. The leaders of the craft show and the treasurer did not authorize and originally had no knowledge of the transfer. They insisted the money be returned to their account. Hoover thought it was strange that Jacobs would transfer the money without the proper approval and called or texted Jacobs about the transfer. Jacobs stated the money was placed back into the account and all the accounts were in good standing. It should be noted it is unclear as to how Jacobs had access to the Craft Fair Account and was able to transfer the money without consent.

Hoover stated he started having concerns over the finances of the parent's booster club fund after receiving the above information. At the time several large checks were written to several people and companies to include a Cavallo Bus Lines, his wife, [REDACTED], for personal money they used out of their account to help fund the band and the band writer. Hoover also contacted First Bank and was granted permission to check the balance of the account over the phone. The balance of the account was far less than anyone had anticipated.

On Tuesday, November 18, 2014, Hoover again made contact with First Bank. This time the account showed a balance of around $450.00.

On Wednesday, November 19, 2014, he received an email from the Cavallo Bus Line informing him the check did not clear. He immediately called his wife and found the check written to her did not clear due to insufficient funds.

On Saturday, November 22, 2014, Hoover was contacted by the band writer stating her check did not clear for the same reason as the others.

On Tuesday, November 25, 2014 a meeting was arranged by Hoover to go over the finances with Jacobs. The meeting took place at Parkway Central High School and was attended by the following employees; Ben Silvemintz (Choir Director), Winifred Crock (Orchestra Director), Tim McCarthy (PCH Principal) and Hoover.

During the meeting, Jacobs was asked "Why the checks bounced" and "Where is all the money"? Jacobs sat very still with his hands in his lap and stated the "The money is gone". Jacobs further stated he wanted to pay the money back in the next three weeks. He further indicated he has been stealing money over the past two to three years.

Hoover completed a written statement describing in further detail the information listed above. The written statement was collected and later placed into evidence.

I also spoke to Parkway Central Principal Timothy McCarthy. McCarthy gave an identical account of the meeting. He also completed a written statement, which was collected by me and later placed into evidence.

A short time later I spoke to Patricia Bedborough (Chief Financial Officer). Bedborough provided one year of financial statements regarding the First Bank account listed above. She stated she found in the statement $42,487.39 worth of fraudulently written checks that had been signed and cashed by Jacobs from the end of 2013 through November of 2014. Bedborough stated Jacobs had a First Bank Debit Card (Master Card) connected to the bank account. The debit card account number is [REDACTED]. There was additional money debited from the account using the card. The additional charges during the time listed above amounted to $2,091.04.

Bedborough stated she would obtain a record from First Bank of all the transactions on the account going back at least 7 years. It is unclear if First Bank could go further back into the account. She further stated she would go through each statement and obtain the fraudulent transactions.

After talking to Bedborough, I spoke to Jason Rooks. Rooks provided emails that were sent between Ben Silvermintz and Jacobs and Hoover and Jacobs. Jacobs email account is [REDACTED]. In the emails Jacobs provides financial documents showing what he says is in the accounts. In a later email to Hoover he stated "I am so sorry that I have let everyone down and as Winnie said especially the kids. I am going to try and make this up to all of you".

At the time of this report I was unable to contact Ben Silvermintz and Winifred Crock for a statement. I will make contact with both employees at a later date.

After gathering the above information Det. Queen and I responded to [REDACTED] located at 1628 Clarkson Rd. It should be noted, Jacobs works for [REDACTED] as a licensed investor.

Upon arrival at [REDACTED] we made contact with Jacobs. We met Jacobs in his back office. Jacobs immediately stated "I know why you are here". Det Queen and I escorted Jacobs to the detective vehicle. He was searched, handcuffed with the handcuffs double locked and placed in the front seat of the detective vehicle. The detective vehicle was searched prior to placing him inside and once again upon arrival at Chesterfield PD.

Jacobs was placed in the holdover interview room. I read Jacobs his Miranda Warnings from the Waiver of Rights Form. He signed the form and stated he understood his rights and volunteered a statement. Jacobs also provided a written statement.

In the written statement Jacobs stated, during the years of his tenure from 2003 to the present as the Treasurer of the Parkway Central Music Parents Booster Club he misappropriated the organizations funds for personal use. He further stated no one else had knowledge of the stolen funds. He stated no one had oversight of the funds and it was easy for him to "hide the misdeed" until recently. He further apologized for his actions to the students and people that entrusted him.

During the interview Jacobs stated he has had money trouble for a long time. He had been taking money from the fund since 2003. He could not provide a dollar amount as he had not documented any of the transactions. According to Jacobs he is in counseling because of his actions.

Jacobs was shown the transactions I received earlier in the day from Bedborough. Jacobs admitted to writing the checks and cashing them. He further admitted to the debit charges on the card. I asked Jacobs if he currently had the charge card on him. He reached into his wallet and pulled out the charge card with account # [REDACTED]. The card was seized and later placed into evidence.

Jacobs stated he did pay a lot of money back to the organization. He provided a USAA Federal Savings Bank account that was in his name, account # [REDACTED]. This account was closed by Jacobs in July of 2014. There were only two statements in which Jacobs used the account to pay back the club. Jacobs went on line and pulled the statements from the bank website while in my presence.

The first statement was dated 05/16/2014 and contained the following checks written to the booster club account:

Check #128
Date: 04/08/2014
Amount: $3,964.79

Check #129
Date: 04/12/2014
Amount: $3,925.00

Check #131
Date: 04/14/2014
Amount: $4,150.00

The second statement was dated 06/17/2014 and contained the following checks written to the booster club account:

Check #132
Date: 04/16/2014
Amount: $4050.00

Check #133
Date: 05/20/2014
Amount: $4,200.00

Check #134
Date: 05/21/2014
Amount: $4160.00

Check #135
Date: 05/27/2014
Amount: $4,142.00

Check #136
Date: 06/02/2014
Amount: $199.00

Check #138
Date: 06/04/2014
Amount: $845.00

Check #140
Date: 06/09/2014
Amount: $847.50

Check #143
Date: 06/12/2014
Amount: $842.50

According to Jacobs, the total amount returned to the account was $39,575.79.

The interview was recorded to DVD and later placed into evidence.

Jacobs was booked and processed for stealing over $500.00. He was then released pending warrant application.

It should be noted a record check revealed no prior convictions of stealing and no active warrants.

This report will be forwarded to the St Louis County Prosecuting Attorney's Office for review and consideration of charges.

My investigation is ongoing.

NARRATIVE

In reference to Chesterfield Police Report #14-6030, wherein Parkway School Administration reported theft from the Parkway Central High School Music Parents Booster Club, I wish to report the following:

On Tuesday, 12/02/2014 I responded to Parkway Central High School and made contact with Winifred Crock (Orchestra Director) and Benjamin Silvermintz (Choir Director). Both Crock and Silvermintz were present during the meeting wherein Jacobs admitted to stealing the money from the account. Both were interviewed and made separate verbal and written statements regarding the meeting. Both written statements were later placed into evidence.

During the interview with Crock, she stated in May of this year she asked Jacobs for reimbursement regarding a spring orchestra trip. Jacobs wrote her a check out of the Booster Club account that later bounced. She informed Jacobs the check had bounced. Jacobs indicated there was a second account for the club and he would have to move money.

According to Crock the second account was identified by Jacobs as a money market account. The reason for placing the money in this type of account was to gain more interest. Crock thought this was suspicious. Jacobs wrote a second check to Crock in August. This check also bounced. At the time, Jacobs apologized and wrote a personal check from his account to cover the fees of the bounced checks. He then wrote a third check which had cleared.

During this time several other checks written to various people and companies had bounced. Crock was later informed by Hoover, whom responded earlier to Frist Bank and received the bank statements, of several checks that Jacobs wrote to himself. The amount of the checks was approximately $42,000.00. After gathering this information a meeting was set up with Jacobs on November 24, 2014 to go over the financial status of the account.

According to Crock, Jacobs admitted to stealing money from the account. He has taken money from the account over the last 5 years. He further admitted there was not a money market account containing any additional funds. All the information provided above is also contained in Crock's written statement.

After interviewing Crock, I interviewed Silvermintz. Silvermintz stated he contacted Jacobs requesting an updated breakdown of the Parkway Central High School Parents Booster Club Account at the beginning of the 2014 school year. Jacobs never produced the year to date records of the account. He did provide an update of the financial picture which failed to show individual transactions. With the continued inability of Jacobs to provide the documentation needed and several bounced checks the music staff decided they needed to have a meeting with Jacobs as mentioned in Crock's statement.

At the meeting they confronted Jacobs about the missing money. Jacobs admitted to taking the money for personal use. He further advised he was willing to go to jail and hoped to pay back the money taken. Silvermintz statement reflects the above information.

On 12/03/2014 I made contact with Patricia Bedborough (Chief Financial Officer). Bedborough provided the additional bank statements from First Bank. The statements go back to 2003. Bedborough stated she was able to obtain the statements from 2003-2007, however she could not determine which checks were fraudulent during 2003-2007. Bedborough went through each year of statements and completed a summary for each year. The following amounts were broken down by year from 2007-2014. The check total represents the amounts of checks made payable to Jacobs for each year. The debit card total represents the total amounts spent by Jacobs on personal items.

Year	Check total	Debit card total	Other	Total
2014	$42,487.39	$ 2,091.04		$44,578.43
2013	$20,010.78	$769.68		$20,780.46
2012	$14,267.11	$1,724.44	$1,269.00	$17,260.55
2011	$15,665.72	$1,732.50		$17,398.22
2010	$7,950.21	$4,590.11		$12,540.32
2009	$7,523.25	$1,605.32		$9,128.57
2008	$4,655.30	$55.54	$64.00	$4,774.84
2007	$9,255.19	$151.85		$9,407.04
Totals:	$121,814.95	$12,720.48	$1,333.00	$135,868.43

It should be noted the "Other" column represents amounts believed to be used by Jacobs for personal use. Due to not having any type of receipt for the amount it is unknown if the money is a legitimate expense used for the club.

The total amount taken from the account appears to be $135,868.43 since 2007.

It should be noted the amount of $39,575.79 previously reported in the original report as being returned to the account is inaccurate. Upon further examination of the account the amount returned to the account is $31,325.79. All the deposits are listed in the original report.

The total amount that is currently missing that can be accounted for is $104,542.64.

This report will be forwarded to St Louis County Prosecuting Attorney's Office for review and recommendation of charges.

My investigation is ongoing.

NARRATIVE

In reference to Chesterfield Police Report #14-6030, wherein Rice Jacobs stole money from the Parkway Central High School Parents Booster Club, I wish to report the following:

On 12/17/2014 I received notification from Dave Truman of the St. Louis County Prosecuting Attorney's Office with regard to the warrant application packet he had been assigned to review. After careful consideration, Mr. Truman issued the following charge in reference to suspect Jacobs.

Stealing Over $25,000.00

Parkway School District employees were updated on the status of this case. This case should be reclassified as Cleared by Arrest.
