Patrick Ahlering

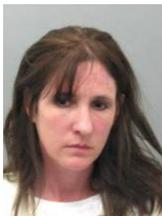

The money from the stolen items all went toward Patrick's gambling habit at area casinos. While the official amount of stolen property was $743,000 it could be much higher due to other thefts before the parents decided to call the police.

On December 1, 2016 Patrick Ahlering pled guilty to the thefts (receiving stolen property) and felony Credit Card Identity Theft before Judge Nancy Watkins. He was sentenced to seven years in prison. HOWEVER, that sentence was immediately stayed and Patrick was placed on a 5-year SES probation term. This means he has a record that will not disappear at the end of a successful probation.

This is the same rental house where Doug Morgan died 28 months earlier.

Koriath had used lighter fluid and fireworks to turn her GMC SUV into a firebomb on wheels. At 6:30 on November 20, 2013 with her teenage sons in the car she ignited the interior and then crashed on NB I-270 at Clayton Road. The Highway Patrol determined she wanted to kill herself and her sons to get back at a former boyfriend who drove by that location every day. blocks from home (several miles, actually) and offered the officer a bribe. In September of 2011 McLaughlin had multiple accidents on Baxter Road. Less than six months later while his first arrest was pending in court on June 23, at 2:48AM he was clocked speeding by the Ladue Police on I-64. He again appeared intoxicated, was arrested and refused to take a breath test. He represented 9% of all of Ladue PD's DWI arrests in 2012.

I asked the driver to step out and to the rear of his vehicle. The driver walked to the rear of his vehicle, he turned to face me, and he began doing the Walk and Turn Test before I gave him any instructions. I asked the driver what he was doing. The driver said what you want me to do.

Siegfried's BAC level was .109%.

2 1/2 years after his arrest, Siegfried's lawyers could not continue the case any longer and he pled guilty on January 30, 2015. He was sentenced to one year in jail but given a SES probation term, meaning the conviction is on his record. He has not had a valid driver's license for a number of years.

On 02/26/16 Siegfried was arrested for DWI for the sixth time when he was stopped for Speeding and Driving with Revoke License on Topping Road after leaving his house at 9:30 AM. He was convicted of Driving While Revoked and sentenced to six months in jail.
